

G. O. P. LEADERS HOLD PARLEYS WITH HOOVER

Optimism Is Expressed by Work, Fort, Moses After Conferences.

BY PAUL MALLON
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Herbert Hoover held a series of conferences with the Inter-Campaign council here today, and while the subject thereof was not revealed officially, it was indicated the recent activities of Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant attorney general, were discussed.

Those attending included Hubert Work, chairman of Republican national committee; Franklin Fort, committee secretary; Senator George Moses, New York director, and Col. Horace Mann, in charge of the committee's southern division.

Work, Moses, and Mann declined to discuss the purposes of their conferences with Hoover when they came out.

The chief asked me if I had any communications about Mrs. Willebrandt and I said I had plenty. Moses said, declining to amplify that statement.

Leaders are Reticent

"I am chairman of the Republican national committee and I have conferences every day with Mr. Hoover," Work said.

Mann declined to say anything. Moses was jubilant over the Republican situation in New England. He did not say whether Mrs. Willebrandt's activities caused him to make the trip from New York for a conference with Hoover.

"I came down to report about certain matters of vital political issue in states over which I have a watchful eye," he said. "I reported to the secretary about the situation and I received from him certain words of wisdom and I am now on my way back."

Fort, the first to emerge, said he had given Hoover a report of his recent New England trip and had not discussed Mrs. Willebrandt's recent speeches.

"I feel more confident of New England now than before," Fort said.

Speech Draft Finished

Hoover sent the first draft of his Elizabethan speech to the printers today, and betting was even around his headquarters that he would take next week for the fishing trip he has delayed for a month.

The speech takes no recognition of recent attacks upon the Republican campaign by the Democratic candidate, Governor Smith, in his western tour. It is based on historical incidents in the battle of Kings Mountain, fought near the little Tennessee town where it is to be delivered, and it treats of the necessity for developing the humane side of Government.

The first draft required a week of arduous labor. The nominee will now go over it again, and headquarters hopes he will be able to conclude it by the end of the week.

Plans to Go Fishing

In that case, he will try out some of the new fishing tackle presented to him by friends. He may go to Solomon's Island, in Chesapeake Bay to board a private yacht for two or three days angling before he sets out for a week from Friday for his brief Elizabethan trip.

Tempting reports that the water abounds in bluefish, spots, perch and trout have been laid before him in an effort to lure him away from his desk.

RULES ON STATE FUNDS

Gilliom Says Defunct Lagrange Bank Dividends to Pay Indiana.

Unless the receiver of the National Bank of Lagrange, closed some time ago by Federal bank authorities, is able to make dividend interest after paying depositors, the State of Indiana cannot hope to receive interest on a balance in the hands of the receiver.

This was the opinion given Wednesday by Arthur L. Gilliom, attorney general, to Mrs. Grace Banta Urbahn, State treasurer.

Of the $10,000 State funds in the bank, $75,000 has been repaid by the surety bond company and the remainder will be paid in dividends by the receiver, Gilliom said.

BORAH SCORES AL'S DRY STAND

Ridicules Governor's Pledge of Enforcement.

By United Press
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 27.—Senator William E. Borah of Idaho, continued his campaign for the Republican national ticket here Wednesday night in the convention hall, where three months ago, he completed the ticket by nomination of Senator Charles Curtis as vice presidential candidate.

The Idaho Senator referred to the Eighteenth Amendment as the Democrats' "one definite issue," and directed a satirical attack against Governor Alfred E. Smith's modification proposals.

"John Raskob, chairman of the Democratic national committee, says the Eighteenth Amendment is a 'damnable affliction,'" Borah declared. "Governor Smith says he's against the Eighteenth Amendment but will enforce all laws. Now how can these two get together to select an attorney general, United States marshals and prohibition officials who will enforce this 'damnable affliction.'"

Half-a-House

Owners of Cottage, Sold to Schools, Take Out Doors, Lights, Furnace.

Whether a furnace is part of household furnishings or a part of the real estate, is a question that faced school commissioners Tuesday evening.

Superintendent Charles F. Miller reported that former owners of a cottage located on a seven-acre tract recently purchased by the board in Broad Ripple, for a new Broad Ripple High School site, had removed not only the furnace, but also lighting fixtures, doors and other articles usually considered a part of the real estate.

The removal was discovered, he said, when Principal K. V. Ammerman looked over the cottage preparatory to remodeling it for class rooms, to relieve temporarily crowded condition of Broad Ripple High School.

Martin M. Hugg, board attorney, ruled the furnace and other articles were a part of the real estate and Business Director Albert F. Walman volunteered to see that they are returned, or the school city compensated for their loss.

W. C. T. U. TAKES ANTI-AL VOTE

Liquor Only Issue, County
Convention Agrees.

Elimination of all questions but prohibition as deciding factors in the coming election was the keynote of the afternoon program of the two-day convention of the W. C. T. U. of Marion County at the Broadway M. E. Church, Wednesday.

Active support of an educational campaign for law observance and enforcement was urged in the report of the platform committee.

Resolutions were passed condemning Governor Smith and urging all members to vote for Hoover and Curtis, but to change party affiliations only where the question of prohibition was involved.

A showing of hands was requested for independent workers for Hoover to meet at the Y. W. C. A. Oct. 10. About a fifth of those present volunteered.

These officers were elected: President, Mrs. Eva Davidson, re-elected; Vice President, Mrs. W. H. Lewis; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Alonzo Huls; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Adalade Almond; Treasurer, Mrs. Clara E. Hlman, re-elected.

CURTIS PUSHES INTO OKLAHOMA TO FINISH TOUR

Leaves Missouri to Rival,
Senator Robinson, Who Speaks Tonight.

BY KENNETH G. CRAWFORD
United Press Staff Correspondent
ABOARD CURTIS CAR IN
OKLAHOMA, Sept. 27.—Senator Charles Curtis left Missouri to his Democratic opponent today and pressed on into Oklahoma to finish his western campaign for the vice presidency.

Senator Joseph T. Robinson, Democratic nominee for Vice President, will speak tonight at Springfield, Mo., in the same auditorium where the Republican nominee appealed for support Wednesday night.

Between 5,000 and 6,000 persons applauded Curtis' promise of effective farm relief and higher tariff protection, both for agriculture and industry, if the Republican party is returned to power next November.

Scores At's Wet Stand

They cheered most lustily, however, when he mentioned prohibition, denouncing Governor Alfred E. Smith's modification proposals.

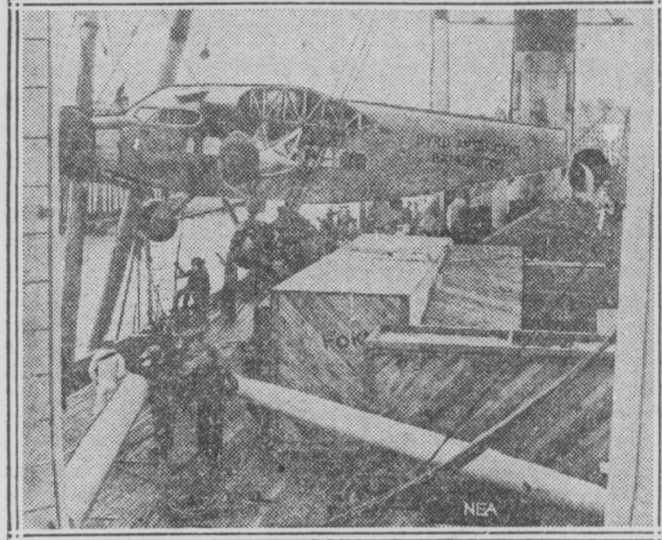

Turning from Missouri into Oklahoma, Curtis goes from one doubtful border State to another, but to a section where he is understood to have a large personal following. The Oklahoma delegation at the Republican national convention gave him its votes for President.

Curtis is scheduled for three speeches today, the first at Miami before an Indian audience, the second at Tulsa, and the third at Okmulgee.

Sore Throat Bothers

be the principal speaker at a night meeting.

Representative Fred Purnell, ranking member of the House agriculture committee, joined Curtis at Afton to relieve him of some of his campaign burdens.

The nominee still is suffering from sore throat contracted last week at Rosebud, S. D.

SAUNDERS' WIFE SUES

Asks Divorce From Memphis Chain Store Owner.

By United Press
MEMPHIS, Tenn., Sept. 27.—Mrs. Carolyn W. Saunders, wife of Clarence Saunders, widely known chain store owner, has filed suit for divorce on grounds of "cruel and inhuman treatment," it became known today.

Mrs. Saunders alleged in her bill that "trivial matters affected Mr. Saunders so that he was driven to say cutting, stinging and abusive things." She set forth that she is of such "extremely nervous disposition and possessing of such high degree of pride that the tense situations caused unpleasantness of an extreme degree."

TROOPS RETURN RULE TO CITIES IN GALE AREAS

Civic Authorities Carry on Reconstruction; Order Restored.

By United Press
WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Sept. 27.—National Guard units started gradual restoration of control in the hurricane stricken areas of Florida to civic authorities today. Coast guardsmen who aided in relief work also were returning to their stations.

The West Palm Beach city council opened a drive against profiteers in rentals, food and clothing. Emergency measures were passed at a meeting Wednesday.

Meanwhile relief work under Red Cross direction went on. Floods had abated in the Lake Okechobee district and most through roads were open to traffic. Trucks with food, clothing and tents were sent in.

A. L. Schafer, Red Cross relief director, in a statement emphasized the immediate need of funds.

BURGLAR 'GETS' $8

Wakes to Find Purse Stolen; Store
Robbed of $15.

A careless burglar knocked a bunch of keys from a bed in the apartment of Miss Mary Kirkhoff, 1126 Park Ave., Wednesday night and awoke Miss Kirkhoff. She found her purse and contents, valued at $8, had been stolen.

Burglars broke the glass in the rear door of the Barrett Delicatessen store, 2927 Central Ave., and took $15 from two cash registers.
