

HOOVER DAY IN DIXIE TO DRAW GREAT CROWD

Elizabethton, Tenn., Town of 12,000, to Entertain 50,000 Visitors.

By NFA Service
ELIZABETHTON, Tenn., Oct. 2.—Tucked away in the rolling foothills of the Appalachian Mountains, this historic little east Tennessee town is making preparations to entertain 50,000 visitors Saturday when Herbert Hoover will come here to make his only southern address in his campaign for the presidency.

It's a stupendous task for a town of only 12,000 population, but Elizabethton is meeting the situation. Committees are on the job; every unoccupied hall and building has been engaged for sleeping quarters; cots, blankets and camp equipment have been ordered; a tent hotel is being erected; restaurants, lunch counters and barbecue stands are being made ready; 2,000 acres of parking space has been reserved and 200 extra policemen engaged.

Hoover Day in Dixie

For historic Elizabethton—which saw the "King's Mountain boys" drill with their flintlock muskets in the Revolutionary War, which knew Andrew Jackson when he was a country lawyer, which saw the death of President Andrew Johnson—is preparing for a gala day. It's on the fringe of "the solid South."

"Hoover day in Dixie" will be one of the strangest political meetings of the 1928 presidential campaign. Awkward mountaineers in blue jeans and hickory shirts will rub elbows with silk-hatted and frock-coated New Yorkers, tired mothers for freckle-faced little boys will sit beside elegantly gowned society matrons from Knoxville and other nearby cities.

Over Carpet of Roses

Arriving, Hoover will be escorted into the town on a carpet of roses, tossed into the highway by thousands of school children from east Tennessee.

As his auto enters the city the air will be rent with the noise of a sham battle in which artillery, machine guns, howitzers and airplanes will participate.

Adding to the din, all factory whistles will be sounded and rock quarries for miles around will set off dynamite blasts.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoover will be guests of honor at a luncheon and immediately thereafter they will take part in a big parade. This colorful procession, staged by Elizabethton as an industrial pageant and exhibiting the products of its industry, will be led by a tribe of Cherokee Indians from North Carolina.

Street Dance at Night

When Hoover speaks to acres of upturned faces from a temporary stand on the side of Lynn Mountain, he will be introduced by ex-Governor Alf Taylor, Tennessee's only Republican Governor (except for a fusion candidate) since Civil War days. "Uncle Alf," as he is familiarly known, is famous all over east Tennessee as a fox hunter and old-time fiddler.

Immediately after his speech Mr. and Mrs. Hoover will leave for Washington, but that night the streets of Elizabethton will be gay under the flickering glare of torches. From curb to curb the streets will sway with dancing mountaineers, tripping to music supplied by brass bands, jazzy orchestras and old fiddlers.

STUDENTS DIE IN DUEL

Pistol Used in Affair of Honor at Latvian University.

By United Press
RIGA, Latvia, Oct. 2.—Two German students of the Latvian University died after a duel of honor Sunday in the forest on the outskirts of the university. Pistols were used.

One of the duelists died en route to the hospital. The other was killed almost instantly.

MAN HAD PAINS IN BACK; FELT DIZZY

Seemed Like He Would Tumble On His Head, But Bad Feeling Went Away After He Took Black-Draught.

A well-known resident and property owner, Mr. S. E. McFarland, of 418 First Street, Georgetown, Ky., gives the following account of his use of Theford's Black-Draught:

"I have been a user of Black-Draught for fifteen or twenty years, and can highly recommend it."

"I used to get very constipated. This would cause pains in my back and limbs. I also took Black-Draught for indigestion."

"I would get up mornings, feeling so dizzy, just like I would tumble on my head, and after a few doses of Black-Draught, this would be gone. It relieved indigestion and constipation, and would make me feel like new."

"I cannot say too much for Black-Draught."

"My wife takes Black-Draught, too, for constipation. It is a good medicine."

Thousands of other men and women find Black-Draught of great help in relieving and warding off common ailments, due to constipation, biliousness and indigestion.

For several generations, the old, well-known Theford's Black-Draught, in a yellow package, has been a familiar item in family medicine chests.

For sale by all druggists, 25 cents.

HOLD PRAYER SERVICE

The Public Novena at the Little Flower Church, Fourteenth St. and Bosart Ave., will close with services at 8 p. m. Wednesday. Children of the church will take part in a procession during which a statue of St. Therese will be carried through the aisles of the church.

A number of priests from other churches of the city will participate in the ceremony. The Rev. William Sullivan, O. P., Zanesville, Ohio, who has been in charge of the Novena, or nine days of special prayer, will give the address at the last service.

G. O. P. STRIKES AT RELIGION AS VOTE ISSUE

Second Warning Against Appeal to Prejudice Is Sounded.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Twice within a week Republican national headquarters has been compelled to caution State leaders regarding the injection of the religious issue into the presidential campaign, it was disclosed here today.

The second incident was made public by Chairman Work of the national committee in his wire to Oliver D. Street, national committeeman for Alabama, concerning a pamphlet reported to have been written by Street and distributed throughout the State.

The wire read: "A circular has reached me purporting to have been written by you on the subject, 'Governor Smith's membership in the Roman Catholic Church and its proper place as an issue in the campaign.'"

"I regret exceedingly that any of our party officials should bring the religious question into a partisan campaign. Invite your attention to a letter from me to all national committeemen, dated June 29, in which I said:

"The campaign policy we propose to follow will be informative and constructive only. The promptness of the conscience and personal liberty within the law are not proper subjects for political debate."

"I am sure you will observe suggestion in future."

The telegram to Street follows closely on the heels of the repudiation by Hoover of the now famous "Romanism and Rum ridden" letter sent by Mrs. Willie W. Caldwell, national committee woman of Virginia to Mrs. Clara Lyon of Virginia Highlands, Va., which brought nation-wide comment.

No Attack on Church

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 2.—C. D. Street, Republican national committeeman from Alabama said today he would continue to distribute the campaign literature to

U. S. AGENTS AID POLICE

George Batts Held On Blind Tiger Charge Following Raid.

George Batts, Apt. 6, at 703 Massachusetts Ave., was arrested on the charge of operating a blind tiger when police and Federal agents raided his home Monday night. The police said they found grain alcohol and home brew. Federal agents said Batts has a liquor case pending against him in Federal Court.

which National Chairman Hubert Work objected in a telegram to Street Saturday.

Street received Work's telegram this morning. He explained that it was directed to him in Birmingham and that he had been in Guntersville for the last few days.

Street said that the literature did not attack Smith because of his religion.

BOND RATE RAISED

Council Boosts Interest on Hospital Issue.

Advertisement of a new $60,000 bond issue for city hospital building program was ordered today following passage of the ordinance Monday night by council.

The council authorized 4½ per cent interest on the bonds because a former issue at 4½ failed to sell. It will take forty days to sell the bonds.

The council rezoned for apartments the northwest corner of Meridian and Twenty-Seventh Sts. Boynton J. Moore, former councilman, was convicted of accepting a bribe in connection with the rezoning of the district from apartment to business district.

Council annexed districts bounded by Tenth St., Pennsylvania Railroad, Kitley Ave., and Edmonson Ave., including Pleasant Run golf course, and Forty-Fourth St., Monon Railroad, Fifty-Second and Keystone Aves.

4,000 COPS TO NEW BEATS IN PHILLY PROBE

Biggest Shakeur in U. S. Cities' History Takes Place Tonight.

By United Press
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 2.—More than 4,000 policemen will be patrolling new beats at midnight tonight in the biggest police shakeup ever staged in a large American city.

All sergeants and patrolmen in South Philadelphia will report to new districts tonight by order of Mayor Harry A. Mackey, who is seeking to halt bribery of police by bootleggers and saloon keepers. Police in other divisions will be assigned to new districts within their present divisions.

43 Officers to Move

The forty-three captains had to be ready to move at a minute's notice today. Monday they reported on conditions in their former districts.

It was understood the reports showed between 2,000 and 3,000 speakeasies in the city and about 300 disorderly houses. Within ten days the captains will be asked to report on vice conditions as they find them in their newly assigned districts.

Traffic police will be the only ones not transferred. They form a special trained unit and have not been involved in the police corruption revealed by the grand jury.

Ex-Captain Indicted

While the police officers are being shifted, a former police captain and two of his district detectives are under indictment by the October grand jury on 104 indictments carrying more than 700 counts. It was alleged Capt. William Knott received more than $8,500 during a six month's period in bribes from saloon keepers.

John Monaghan, district attorney, said that another police captain had $20,000 in cash hidden in his home. The name of the captain was not revealed, but the district attorney said he had not been linked previously with the police collusion with bootleggers.

MISSING SHERIFF HELD TO HAVE QUIT OFFICE

Albert J. Lucas Takes Over Duties of Rufus R. Pointer.

By Times Special
MARTINSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 2.—Rufus R. Pointer has been ousted by the Morgan County commissioners as sheriff. He has been missing since July, when he took Charles Blackstone to the Indiana State Prison, Michigan City, to begin a life term for second degree murder.

Albert J. Lucas has been appointed sheriff by the commissioners. He served Pointer as chief deputy.

In a resolution declaring Pointer's office vacant and appointing Lucas, the commissioners declared Pointer had failed to make known his whereabouts to them or the Morgan Circuit Court and they therefore deemed he had abandoned his office.

Chicken Swallows Snake

ALEXANDRIA, Ind., Oct. 2.—A garter snake nearly a foot long was found in the craw of a chicken being prepared for cooking by Mrs. William Wade.

NEED FLORIDA FUNDS

Indianapolis citizens who have not yet contributed to the Red Cross fund for relief of hurricane devastated areas of Florida and West Indies today were urged by Chairman Gavin L. Payne to boost the fund without delay. Contributions should be sent to the Red Cross office, 777 N. Meridian St. The local fund has passed the $13,000 mark. The original national goal of $5,000,000 has been found inadequate, in view of conditions revealed by a complete survey of the stricken area, Payne said.
