

K. OF P. SISTERS ELECT OFFICERS AT CONVENTION

500 at First Session of Two-Day Parley, Held Today.

About 500 Pythian Sisters of the Grand Temple attended the opening of the annual two-day convention in the Grand Lodge hall of the K. of P. Bldg.

The election of officers was the most important feature of the day. Leona Burkett, Rome City, was elected past chief. Other officers advanced in line were: Mary Alkman, Newport, grand chief; Daisy Duval, Richmond, grand senior; Nell McCurry, Goodland, grand junior; Ida Neal, Aurora, grand marshal; Edna Mae Cart, Hope, grand protector, and Ociea Jellicon, South Bend, grand outer guard.

Love Feast Tonight

Cora Hood, Bluffton, and Magdalene Fred, McCordville, were candidates for grand mistress of records and correspondence.

Action was expected to be taken on the proposal by the grand lodge of the K. of P. that Pythian Sisters be admitted to the Home at Lafayette. Because of an increased assessment if the proposal is accepted, several members are known to be opposed to the step.

The annual "Love Feast" will be held at 5:30 p. m. today, at the Spink Arms for all members of the order. Ritualistic degrees will be exemplified tonight at the Denison. Installation of officers and reports will close the session Friday.

Knights Elect

Democratic Committee for County Named by Leroy J. Keach.

There's no stopping a woman's advice to her husband, or her advance in politics.

That, evidently, was the conclusion of Leroy J. Keach, Marion County Democratic chairman, when he Wednesday announced appointment of an "advisory committee" of the wives of five Democratic candidates.

The five now armed with credentials empowering them to counsel and advise their politically ambitious husbands are: Mrs. Louis Ludlow, wife of the candidate for Congress; Mrs. B. Howard Caughran, wife of the candidate for State Senator; Mrs. Harry B. Perkins, wife of the candidate for State representative; Mrs. Ernest K. Marker, wife of the nominee for commissioners of Marion County, second district; and Mrs. John F. Linder, wife of the nominee for joint State Senator.

'Monkey Shine'

By Times Special
PETERSBURG, Ind., Oct. 4.—A monkey which tired of his job—making a parachute jump from an airplane—avoided the job, but received several bird shots in his hide.

Just before a plane took off with the monkey, as part of an air circus program near here, the animal escaped and took to a tree. Defying pursuers as it hopped about in the treetop, the animal was finally brought down with a shotgun. Several shots were picked from its body, but, sore physically and mentally, the monkey was spared making the leap and a dummy took its place.

HINT NEW LEAD IN BLAST QUIZ

Remy Refuses Names of Jury Witnesses.

Only two witnesses were before the county grand jury today in the investigation of the explosion at the Traugott Clothing Store, 215-17 W. Washington St., Aug. 26.

Prosecutor William H. Remy was with the jury for two hours, but refused to disclose names of the witnesses or the lines he was following in the quiz. He indicated he was uncovering some new leads.

The grand jury was expected to continue efforts to definitely identify the owner of a watch that was found in the safe at the Traugott store following the fire. Authorities are working on the theory that the watch was one of those stolen in the Broadmoor holdup.

Remy today ordered R. L. Brokenburr, deputy prosecutor, to file suit in a county court to obtain judgment on a $1,500 bond filed in Criminal Court by Mrs. Ivy O'Roarke, for the appearance of Joseph Hunter, known as "Kentucky Joe," who is wanted on a charge of robbery. The bond was defaulted by Criminal Judge James A. Collins on Remy's request Wednesday.

Another development was investigation by State police of a reported auto theft ring operating in Evansville that is said to have been linked with the alleged auto theft ring in Indianapolis.

Dr. Fred V. Binler, Terre Haute, indicted in the interstate automobile theft ring case, was released under $25,000 surety bond today. He had been in jail for more than a week.

Foellinger Warns against Over-Confidence in State for Hoover.

"Hoover forces in Indiana will not be content with anything less than a landslide."

That was the declaration Wednesday of Oscar G. Foellinger, chairman of the Indiana Hoover Clubs, calling upon Republican workers to guard against over-confidence.

"No election ever was victorious for any side that was content to rest on its oars, supremely confident that it could not suffer defeat," Foellinger said. "Regardless of how safe Hoover's candidacy may be in Indiana, every Hoover vote will be sought with every ounce of energy our workers can command."

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Mrs. Bella Howley, her husband and six children have refused to move from their home while it is being repaired for fear they will lose their right to vote for Governor Alfred E. Smith in the presidential election.

Indiana Girl Wouldn't Eat

"Everybody in the neighborhood was crazy about Dorothy. She was the happiest, brightest little thing you ever saw," says her mother, Mrs. J. W. Hamilton, 1422 Laurel St., Indianapolis. "She looked so healthy we thought she'd never have any trouble. But she began to be constipated. It made her fretful, cross and feverish. Her breath got to be terrible and her tongue was nearly always coated. She didn't want to do anything but lie around. She wouldn't eat and was losing weight fast.

"Then our doctor recommended California Fig Syrup and I began giving it to Dorothy. It brightened her up right away. She began to eat heartily and her stomach and bowels started acting perfectly. Soon she commenced gaining weight again and she's been perfectly well, strong and happy ever since."

California Fig Syrup is made from two of Nature's greatest laxatives—ripe California Figs and First Quality Senna Leaves. Children like its rich, fruity taste. It regulates their stomach and bowels and gives these organs tone and strength so they continue to act normally, of their own accord.

The genuine, endorsed by physicians for over 50 years, always bears the word "California." All drug stores have it.

REVEAL UTILITY PAID HEAD OF CLUB WOMAN

National President Given $14,400 for Articles in Farm Papers.

By CECIL OWEN
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Magazine articles written by Mrs. John B. Sherman, former president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, for which she received $600 a month from the National Electric Light Association were put in evidence today in the Federal trade commission's power investigation.

Most of the articles appeared in rural publications and dealt with electrical equipment for the farm home. Mrs. Sherman urged farmers' wives to purchase modern equipment.

Payments to Mrs. Sherman aggregated $14,400 since October, 1926.

Agreement Still Effective

George F. Oxley, publicity director of the N. E. L. A., testified that arrangements with Mrs. Sherman still are effective and she recently completed eleven articles to be published soon.

Some of Mrs. Sherman's articles were rewritten by Oxley, reprinted in utility literature without her signature and frequently printed in newspapers in their news columns after utility agents sent them to the editors, he said. There was no indication that the articles were paid for by utility groups. Oxley admitted.

Mrs. Sherman cooperated also with the N. E. L. A. in a survey of rural home electrification, Oxley said. He added she prepared a digest of that survey. Although made by the general federation, this was partly financed by the N. E. L. A., according to previous evidence.

Paid by Advertising Firm

All payments to Mrs. Sherman were through the advertising firm of Lord & Thomas and Logan, New York City, advertising counsel for the N. E. L. A.

Among farm magazines printing Mrs. Sherman's articles was Capper's Farmer, the Progressive Farmer, Farm Life and Better Homes and Gardens.

Tom Kelly, 543 Coffee St., is an artist in the business of playing hookey.

According to testimony given by his wife in Municipal Court on "lazy husband" charge today, Kelly packs his lunch pail every morning and starts for work. His "boss" frequently reports, however, that Kelly is not on the job.

Judge Clifton R. Cameron fined Kelly $25 and sentenced him to thirty days in jail, but suspended the sentence on Kelly's promise he would work regularly.

WILLEBRANDT INDIANA TOUR IS CANCELLED

G. O. P. Chiefs Advised That Appeals to Prejudice Would Hurt Hoover.

By Times Special

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Cancellation of the projected speaking engagements of Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt in Indiana is reported here to have been at the advice of Oscar Foellinger and other Hoover leaders in Indiana, who did not believe that the kind of speeches she has been making in other sections would help Hoover in Indiana.

Former Governor J. P. Goodrich called on Hoover yesterday, but contented himself after the call with saying that Indiana would give Hoover "nearly as large" a Republican majority as those of 1920 and 1924, and that Colorado and Oklahoma, where he recently has visited, were safe for Hoover. Whether Mrs. Willebrandt's speech is known.
