

FLAYS LESLIE AS JACKSON, COFFIN CHOICE

Whipped 9 to 1 in Primary, Yet Handed Nomination, Craven Reminds.

By Times Special
KOKOMO, Ind., Nov. 2.—Defeated by Republicans nine to one in the primary, Harry G. Leslie owes his G. O. P. gubernatorial nomination to the combined influence of Ed Jackson, George Coffin, Alfred Hogston, Walter Bossert and Henry Marshall, declared Joseph Cravens, state senator, at a Democratic rally here Thursday night.

D. C. Stephenson, former klan dragon, now imprisoned for life for murder, and Clyde A. Walb, former Republican state chairman, now a federal prisoner, had a hand in Leslie's election as speaker of the House of Representatives in 1925, Cravens charged despite Leslie's denial.

"If, as he says, Leslie had been elected speaker in 1925 over the combined opposition of Stephenson, Jackson and Walb, the fact would have been so remarkable and astounding that the papers would have been filled with accounts of it," said Cravens.

William Frazee, utility lobbyist, and D. C. Stephenson were present in the office of Lawrence Cartwright, 514 Traction building, when Leslie, after being elected speaker in 1925, repaired there and selected the house committees, Cravens charged.

"There was present there," said Cravens, "Cartwright, whom Stephenson intended to make highway director if the ripper bill became a law; Stephenson himself, Clyde A.

Walb, William Frazee and four other members of this group of irresponsible men."

Declaring Leslie was not nominated by Republicans in the primary, the veteran Democratic senator said:

"There were ten candidates for the nomination. Mr. Leslie ran fifth. A total of not quite 425,000 votes were cast for the ten candidates. Leslie's vote was 46,393, slightly more than one-ninth of that vote. Did the Republican party want him?"

"All during that race, Leslie was as silent as the grave concerning the administration of Jackson, the relations of Stephenson, of Walb and other of their ilk, to the affairs of the Republican party."

Cravens reviewed the fate of four Republican candidates who "came out into the open and denounced the administration and the forces in control in more or less vigorous terms."

The four, he recalled, were Frederick Landis, who got 30,000 more votes than Leslie; Thomas H. Adams, who got 20,000 more votes than Leslie; Charles W. Jewett, who led Leslie by 11,000 votes, and Jesse Eschbach, who got within 12,000 votes as many as Leslie while making no campaign or canvass of the state.

Jackson, Schortemeier, Coffin, Hogston and Henry W. Marshall engineered Leslie's nomination, Cravens charged, "and Leslie is now and will be tied hand and foot to the men whom I have named."

Cravens drew "thumb nail character sketches" of Leslie's sponsors. He referred to Jackson as "the man whom Stephenson made Governor and who in turn sold Stephenson, for $2,500, a spavined, knockneed, decrepit old horse named Senator; the man who raped the state's penal and benevolent institutions, the man who has now on the state's pay roll as appointee, not elected officials, but his relatives; the man who was saved from prison by the statute of limitations to the everlasting shame and disgrace of the state of Indiana."

Coffin, he said, was "Stephenson's man Friday," who recently led the Elephants to hear Leslie's opening speech at Lafayette.

ARCHITECTS MEET

How to Improve Service Is Topic of Day's Session.

A study of how to improve service to the public was made by delegates to the annual regional conference of the American Institute of Architects in concluding business sessions at the Indianapolis Athletic Club today.

Speaking at the annual banquet Thursday night, C. Herrick Hammond, Chicago, president, stressed the need for co-operation among architects and members of the allied arts.

The delegates, representing architectural chapters in Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio and Illinois, made an automobile tour of the city. F. S. Cannon, Indianapolis, is chairman of the general arrangements for the regional convention.

at the closing session of the convention this afternoon.

GARRETT, Ind., Nov. 2.—Work has been started on a new church building for St. Peter and Paul parish here. The structure, with the rectory built a year ago, will represent an outlay of $100,000.

Reduce the Acid

In sick stomachs—instantly

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour.

Alkali kills acid instantly. The best form is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless, tasteless does neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Since its invention, 50 years ago, it has remained the standard with physicians everywhere.

Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drug store.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Advertisement.
