

TALKING IT OVER WITH JOE WILLIAMS

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Bill Roper and his Princeton Tigers will spend the week-end in the west Saturday. They will play the unbeaten Ohio Staters in the most important inter-sectional game the season has developed so far.

NEITHER team has been beaten, though Virginia held the Tigers to a 0-0 score. Because of this latter incident and other sustaining data obtainable from comparative scores the Buckeyes have been made a sort of popular favorite.

YOU CAN'T STRAIGHT ARM THE FACT THAT DR. JACK WILCE'S CHILDREN HAVE PLAYED MORE IMPRESSIVELY THIS SEASON, AS FAR AS IT HAS GONE, THAN DR. BILL ROPER'S CHILDREN. BOY, BRING ME THOSE STEAMING STATISTICS.

NOW you can see for yourself. Here the Staters have played four games and won them all, scoring 83 points against a combined total of seven. Michigan was the only team to cross the Ohio line, and this touchdown grew out of a blunder.

And what has the Tiger done? Played four, won three, tied one. All told the team has scored 100 points, but 97 of them were made against a couple of Big Boy Petersons, as you might say, 50 against Vermont and 47 against Lehigh.

DR. ROPER'S CHILDREN WERE LUCKY TO BEAT CORNELL BY THREE POINTS, THOUGH IN FAIRNESS IT MUST BE ADMITTED THAT SOME OF HIS NICEST AND MOST GREATLY ADMIRED CHILDREN WERE SITTING ON THE BENCH THAT DAY.

AS for the 0-0 score with Virginia, well that was one of those early season games and they don't count, especially when you fail to win them. This same Virginia team was beaten 34-0 by Vanderbilt last Saturday—a team that, in turn, has been scored on by Colgate, Texas and Tulane but there is nothing to be gained by lugging all these dismal facts in. Football and chow mein are too complicated as they stand.

THE LAST TIME BILL INVADED THE WEST WITH A TEAM, HE PUT ON A WIG-LIFTING SHOW. THIS WAS IN '22 WHEN THE TIGERS CAME FROM BEHIND TO BEAT STAGG'S MAROONS AT CHICAGO, 21-19. IN WHAT HAS BEEN CALLED THE MOST THRILLING FOOTBALL GAME THE SUDDEN DEATH VILLAGE HAS EVER INHALED.

THE big jolt came in the final quarter. The Tigers were trailing 18-7, and even Scarface Al would have bet his last machine gun that Chicago couldn't lose.

The quarter was about five minutes gone when the Tigers got possession of the ball inside their own ten-yard line. Cleaves dropped back and flung a long forward to Gorman, who was downed on his own forty-five. The insolent daring of the maneuver unseated the Maroons, and presently a fumble occurred which Gray gathered in and ran for a touchdown.

A LITTLE LATER A POOR PUNT GAVE THE TIGERS THE BALL ON CHICAGO'S 23-YARD-LINE AND IN FIVE MORE PLAYS THE BALL WAS OVER AGAIN FOR THE WINNING POINTS. WONDER IF, BY ANY CHANCE, THE DECISION HAD ANYTHING TO DO WITH THE WEST SHOW LINE THAT LEFT IN HIS OLD CARPET BAG?

2 Big Games Excite Fans in Far West

Cardinals to Meet Trojans; Oregon to Oppose Golden Bears.

BY CARL H. BENNETT,
United Press Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Football on the Pacific coast will reach a climax Saturday when four members of the coast conference, each with an opportunity to finish in first place, engage in two contests on California gridirons.

The Cardinals of Stanford university meet Southern California at Palo Alto in one of the annual football classics of the west.

The University of Oregon plays the University of California's Golden Bears at Berkeley in an equally important game.

Stanford and California were the favorites today, but the four teams were considered so evenly matched that a single error might provide upsets.

Nearly 200,000 to View Games

By United Press

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Almost 200,000 fans are expected to see the three big football games in the east Saturday. The estimated crowds follow:

Yale-Dartmouth at New Haven, 75,000.

Notre Dame-Penn State at Philadelphia, 60,000.

New York-Georgetown at New York, 60,000.

Total, 195,000.

However, even the most optimistic prediction has been exceeded by him and recently he possessed an average of 209 in the Recreation League for 18 games, an even 200····· for the same number in the Uptown

Purdue has somewhat of a "breather" in the City game at Lafayette and the regulars may be reset up for the Northwestern game Nov. 10. Indiana is not scheduled to play this week-end. The same goes for Manchester.

Oakland City battles Rose Poly at Terre Haute, Bethel invades Hoosierdom for a tilt with Hanover and Franklin clashes with State Normal at Terre Haute.

Hunter, Morrison in Golf Play-Off

By Times Special

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—Willie Hunter and Fred Morrison will battle in a 36-hole play-off Sunday for the southern California open golf championship. The two links stars tied for first honors in the meet here Thursday. Each took 294 strokes for the 2-hole medal play meet.

Welch Enjoys Nailing 'Em

By N.E.A. Service

LA FAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 2.—Most football players who are back field performers admit that they get their greatest pleasure from carrying the ball. In that, "Pest" Welch of Purdue is different.

"I get more fun out of making a good tackle than anything else," he commented recently.

"Take that Purdue-Indiana game last year. I had more fun in that battle than I ever had in a football game before. The reason is I made a lot of tackles and that's what I like. I like to nail 'em!"

Indiana Central and Butler to Perform at Home Saturday.

THREE TEAMS GO EAST

Danville-Evansville Tilt Only Game Today.

STATE SCHEDULE

(Saturday)

Case at Purdue.

Muncie at Butler.

Earlham at Indiana Central.

Notre Dame at Penn State.

Wabash at Colgate.

De Pauw at Army.

Oakland City at Rose Poly.

Franklin at State Normal.

Bethel at Hanover.

Indiana and Manchester not scheduled.

(Today)

Danville at Evansville.

The Hoosier state today was prepared for another typical November weekend, one of those football Saturdays.

Danville and Evansville were to open the week-end hostilities this afternoon at Evansville. It was the only college game scheduled today and paves the way for the nine contests of Saturday in which three State teams are involved.

Indianapolis fans will have their choice Saturday of two contests—the Butler-Muncie Normal tilt at the Butler bowl which starts at 2 o'clock and the Indiana Central-Earlham contest at Washington park which starts at 2:30.

Eyes of state fans also will be turned to the Atlantic seaboard, where three Hoosier elevens invade eastern stamping grounds. Wabash, hoping to repeat its 7-to-0 victory of 1927, will battle the tough Colgate outfit, and Notre Dame tackles Penn State at Franklin field, Philadelphia, in one of the outstanding inter-sectional frays of the day. De Pauw tackles the great Army eleven at West Point.

Purdue has somewhat of a "breather" in the City game at Lafayette and the regulars may be re-set up for the Northwestern game Nov. 10. Indiana is not scheduled to play this week-end. The same goes for Manchester.

The under dog in baseball has no complaint to make over the judge's decisions. And he's the ONE BIG umpire—his verdicts stand.

JUDGE LANDIS, boss ruler of baseball, found it necessary to slap the Chicago White Sox on their pocketbooks. All because of the manner in which the Sox regulars cut up the Chicago city series melon. Shires, Blackerby and Swanson had been voted half shares. They beefed, and Landis took a hand and awarded them full shares. There may be an aftermath to the row next spring when the athletes go back to work.

THE IDEA IS NOT TO EXASPERATE COMMISSIONER LANDIS. HE MADE THAT PLAIN TO THE SOX BY TAKING THEIR POOL AND CUTTING IT UP ACCORDING TO HIS VIEWS. AND HE CAUSED THE SOX CLUBHOUSE BOY TO BELIEVE IN SANTA CLAUS AGAIN BY SLIPPING HIM A HALF SHARE AMOUNTING TO $40.
