NOMINEE CHALLENGED

Show Your Qualifications, Niblack Dares Murray.

Speaking for the Republican legislative and county ticket, John L. Niblack, deputy prosecutor and candidate for state senator, addressing noon meetings Thursday called upon Raymond S. Murray, Democratic nominee for prosecuting attorney, to state his "qualifications and experience in criminal jurisprudence."

"As far as I know in my three years as assistant prosecutor," said Niblack, "the Democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney never tried a case in criminal court. On the other hand, the Republican candidate, Judson L. Stark, chief deputy to Mr. Remy more than four years, has tried hundreds of cases, from murder down to profanity."

New Officers of Union Installed

New and re-elected members of the executive council of the International Typographical Union, installed at the Indianapolis headquarters Thursday noon today begin their respective duties.

INSANITY WILL BE DEFENSE IN THREE KILLINGS

Friends of College Youths Say They Never Noticed Abnormal Traits.

By United Press. ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 2.—The defense of George Harsh and Richard Gray Gallogly, alleged "thrill slayers" of two store clerks, will be based upon pleas of insanity, defense attorneys indicated today.

Harsh, the confessed principal in seven holdups here, was taken by Dr. Frank Eskridge, an alienist for examination twenty-four hours after Eskridge had examined Gallogly in his cell.

Dr. Eskridge said today that Harsh had been closeted with him for more than an hour, measurements taken and a brain test given. The results will wait trial for the young college student.

Close friends of Harsh at Oglethorpe university, when questioned today, said they never had noticed any abnormalities in the former Milwaukee boy.

"He was a prince of a fellow," one student said.

Gallogly, whose family long has been prominent here, had a record for turning in false fire alarms, authorities said. He also is said to have become enraged at one time and broken furniture in a room and was known to traffic officers as a reckless driver.

Harsh, however, is more reserved. He affects poise, clips his words precisely, while Gallogly talks at random, admits Harsh and typifies the follower, not the leader.

Indications today were that trial of the two, set for Nov. 13, may be delayed until early in December, because the defense is not ready with its case. It also appeared the two cases would be tried separately.

PROBER FOR LESLIE

Emsley Johnson Is Mum on Updike.

Emsley W. Johnson, special prosecutor in the Marion county corruption probe last year, will vote for Harry G. Leslie for Governor because Leslie is a Republican and so is Johnson.

He pointed this out in a plea for the G. O. P. ticket and Leslie at a Washington township rally at Sixty-Third street and Ashland avenue Thursday night.

A United States senator might die and a Democratic Governor would appoint a Democratic successor who might not believe in the tariff. This was one of Johnson's reasons for supporting Leslie.

He told of his work with the jury, which indicted Governor Ed Jackson and George V. Coffin, now Republican district chairman and big Leslie booster. He said at one time that Coffin wasn't for Leslie and that is another reason why he (Johnson) is for him.

Nothing was said by Johnson of Ralph Updike, candidate for reelection to congress, whose patronage contract with D. C. Stephenson was found in the black boxes into which the jury men peered under Johnson's guidance.

After Johnson finished speaking, however, William Bosson took the floor and said a word for Updike.

BRINGS HOME BACON TO 'MAMA' BURGLAR

Grocery Robbed of Larder for a Large Family.

Mr. So-and-so, an Indianapolis burglar, is known in his community as a good provider. It is a matter of pride with him that the family larder always is well stocked and that is another reason why he (Johnson) is for him.

For last night he entered the Tompkins grocery, 501 Agnes street, and took home three sides of bacon, several dozen eggs, twenty pounds of butter, six hams, two sacks of flour, and several loaves of bread.

Air Hobo's Fame 'Zep' Strikes Storm Clouds

By United Press. BERLIN, Nov. 2.—Still the center of attraction as the youthful stowaway of the Graf Zeppelin, Clarence Terhune found today that the attitude of the German press had changed.

When he arrived on the airship, early Thursday he was received with wild acclaim. Today, one newspaper said that "Clarence is a bluff."

No definite statements were made, but stories were printed saying the young caddy was under the supervision of an American newspaper man, who also made the trip on the Zeppelin, and it was hinted that the stowaway was part of a publicity scheme.

Clarence wandered about the city today and motored into the suburbs to buy clothes, but found shops closed because of a holiday.

The United States lines today offered him free passage home on the liner Republic, which sails from Bremen, Nov. 8.

president; Charles P. Howard, Chicago, president, and Woodruff Randolph, Chicago, secretary-treasurer. Howard, S. Smith, Perry and Morrison were re-elected.

The council are all members of the Progressive ticket. Approximately 100 members of the union and guests attended installation ceremonies.

A dinner for the new officers will be given at the Lincoln, sponsored by the Chicago Progressive Club, at 6:30 Saturday evening.

Cows College

Heifer Liberated in Office of Prexy Eschewed as He 'Moos.'

INDIANA Central college officials have in their possession one cow, a Holstein heifer. The cow doesn't belong to the officials. They don't want it. Their interest in agriculture is purely academic. Central is a school of liberal arts.

So, the owner can have the cow but—

It will be well for the owner to have an explanation as to how that cow got out of his pasture and into the office of President I. J. Good on Halloween.

Not that the college authorities expect the owner to know—any more than they believe he will know how—

One hefty concrete mixer got placed on the steps of the south entrance of the main building—or one Old Ford car was parked against the door on the front steps of the girls' dormitory.

Special services in the lobby at 3:30 will be conducted by H. T. Riley and the soloist for the mass meeting will be Millard Burwell, local tenor. Special musical numbers are to be given by the Y. M. C. A. quartet and band.

Seats for Many

Dr. H. L. Hummons, chairman of the religious department, has completed arrangements for ample seating facilities and a specially trained corps of ushers and workers. The attendance is expected to set a record for the session.

Sixtieth annual session of the Kentucky and Ohio C. M. E. conference will open at Phillips temple, Drake and West streets, Nov. 7, at 10 o'clock. Bishop C. H. Phillips, Cleveland, will preside. The sacrament will be administered at the opening service.

Welcoming exercises will be the program Wednesday evening. Speakers listed on the program include Governor Ed Jackson, Dr. R. L. Pope, pastor Bethel A. M. E. church; Dr. E. A. White, Simpson church; Dr. Stephen G. Spottswood, Jones tabernacle; Dr. B. J. F. Westbrooks, Second Baptist; Dr. D. F. White, Witherspoon Presbyterian; P. B. Ransom, attorney, and Mathias Nolcox, principal Attucks high school.

The Rev. Andrew J. Norris, pastor, announces sessions of the conference will close Nov. 11.

The pulpit schedule of the Rev. Stephen G. Spottswood, pastor of Jones tabernacle, has been announced for November.

Elder to Preach Sunday

Servants Sunday morning will be conducted by the Rev. E. S. Bailey, presiding elder of the Indiana conference.

At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon the Rev. R. A. Davis, pastor of Campbell's chapel, will deliver a special sermon. The evening service will be under auspices of the young women's missionary society, with a play, "Women of the Bible."

The fall festival at Pythian Castle hall draws large crowds each night. There are special attractions, with baby contest Saturday night.

The festival, closing Saturday night, has been conducted under auspices of all Pythian organizations of the city. This opportunity, grand chairman of Indiana, will remain in the city until the festival and membership drive are over.

Dr. Mordecai Johnson, of Washington, will address the Monday Luncheon Club, Nov. 5. Dr. Johnson is a nationally known orator. Meetings of the club will continue to be held at the Martha Ann tea room, according to Wallace N. Waugh, president.

Dr. Moten to Speak

Dr. E. D. Moten will speak of Simpson organization Sunday at 6:30 p. m. W. H. Keys is president. The Rev. Walter Chenualt, pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. church, Twenty-fourth street and Manlove avenue, announces for his subject Sunday morning, "We Are Able."

Mothers' council meeting to be held at the Flanner House settlement has been postponed until Nov. 13.

Monday Bridge Club entertained friends at a Halloween party Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. James Taylor, West Twenty-fifth street.

A Negro manager of Times carriers and circulation on the north side will be named by The Indianapolis Times Monday. This opportunity comes to the Negro group through special work of J. F. Johnson of the Times staff. The new manager is to handle business of the paper from Twenty-sixth street south to Indiana avenue. A large number of Negroes now are subscribers of the Times.

A community meeting will be held at school No. 4 Friday evening, P. M. De Frantz will be speaker.
