November's
Rush Begins
for Resort

SOCIAL activities at French Lick Springs, so far as Indiana guests were concerned, was much impeded by the election, there being a general return to Indiana cities to cast ballots. However, election over, the return to the springs is on for November. The weather at the springs has been suitable for outdoor enjoyment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Sallee, Indianapolis, have been guests of friends. Mr. and Mrs. George B. Patton, Charles H. Swain and Charles Mattingly, Lafayette, rested at the springs the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Cope J. Hanley, Rensselaer, have been guests at the hotel. Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Holland, Bloomington, were at the hotel for short stay at the hotel.

Dr. Charles C. Crampin, Delphi, and Dr. T. W. Oberlin, Hammond, have been at the springs, as have Dr. E. G. Ricker, Monticello, and Dr. William H. Barnes, New Albany.

Thomas D. Taggart, spent this week in Indianapolis with his father, Thomas Taggart, at the Taggart home on North Delaware street.
