ALLIED NATIONS OBSERVE TENTH ARMISTICE DAY

Hopes of Lasting Peace
Voiced as Tribute Is Paid to Dead.

By United Press
Throughout the allied nations Sunday there was the most fitting tribute to the war dead in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of the ending of the World War.

In every nation hope was expressed that lasting peace and greater international co-operation and understanding was forthcoming. President Coolidge pleaded for the understanding in his speech over a radio hookup Sunday night, while Secretary Frank B. Kellogg spoke on the advantages of the anti-war pact recently signed in Paris.

Far removed from the scene of hostilities, Marshal Joffre was found in the garden of his home near Paris and was asked to make a few comments on the armistice.

"Since I no longer am in active service I have no right to make declarations," he said. "But I can say that on this day I am wholeheartedly with the American soldier since I had them in the war. I will never forget their courage, their spirit and their energy. I feel I am honored to extend them an expression of my constant sympathy."

Paris Remembers

By United Press
PARIS, Nov. 12.—Thousands of people crowded into the streets and boulevards on the tenth anniversary of the signing of the armistice.

The skies were gray—similar to that sky of ten years ago—as pilgrimages started down the Champs Elysees. Various delegations of veterans, of war mothers and war widows, joined in the great throng.

A cannon high above the tomb of the Unknown Soldier announced one minute of silence. The whirring taxicabs of Paris stopped.

The mad noise that one identifies with Paris traffic was silenced. Tattered regimental flags could be seen as the old regiments, depleted by war's wrath, marched. The war flags of many nations were taken from the Museum des Invalides for the occasion.

Thirty-seven American Legion posts joined in the celebration of Compeigne forest at the railway siding where the armistice was signed.

Observance in Brussels

By United Press
BRUSSELS, Nov. 12.—King Albert and Queen Elizabeth, accompanied by Crown Prince Leopold and Princess Astrid, attended an Armistice day ceremony in front of the tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

Foreign delegations, including those from the United States, joined in the observance.

Wales Lays Wreath

By United Press
NAIROBI, Nov. 12.—The Prince of Wales placed a wreath on the cenotaph in the presence of church and state dignitaries on Armistice day here. Hundreds of ex-service men gathered.

King and Queen at Service

By United Press
LONDON, Nov. 12.—King George and Queen Mary attended the special Armistice day program Monday night at Albert Hall, which was attended by hundreds of former service men.

The hall rang with famous wartime songs such as "Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag," "The Long, Long Trail," and "Tipperary." These songs were broadcast through the nation, as were the speeches.

Poland Celebrates

By United Press
WARSAW, Nov. 12.—Poland celebrated the tenth anniversary of the founding of the republic Sunday. One hundred thousand persons, mostly ex-soldiers, came into the capital for the celebration. Marshal Pilsudski reviewed the troops at the Warsaw race track Sunday night, while President Moscicki was host at a reception to 1,000 prominent persons.

UNIFORM BOUNDARIES FOR PRECINCTS ASKED

Democrats Ask Revision to 500—
