Women's Voting Total Pleasing to League Head

Keen gratification is expressed by Mrs. Walter S. Greenough, president of the Indiana League of Women Voters, for the more active participation of women in government as manifested by the large number who voted in the recent election and by the number elected to office in Indiana.

A report sent to Mrs. Anne Williams, executive director of the national league by the Indiana league indicates that women are represented in practically every office of the county and state. The report shows that in addition to the state treasurer, Mrs. Grace Urbahn, and recorder of the supreme court, Miss Genevieve Brown, and three members of the house of representatives, a number of county officers were elected. The report states that six women were elected county treasurers, ten recorders, four clerks, one as prosecuting attorney, one auditor and two commissioners.

Election of Mrs. L. S. Pickenescher, South Bend, as third vice-president of the state league to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. J. E. Neff, also of South Bend, was announced by Mrs. Greenough. Mrs. Edna M. Christian has been nominated a delegate from the Indiana league to the conference on the cause and cure of war, to be held in Washington the week of Jan. 14. Mrs. John I. Gwin, Rensselaer, and Mrs. Bertha J. Ehrick, Evansville, have also been asked to be delegates.

Mrs. Frank Hatch Streightoff, chairman of the education committee of the state league, has been authorized to continue a survey of the organization of education in the state, including organization of the state board of education, election of the superintendent of public instruction and duties and powers of township trustees in relation to education. Efforts will be made to obtain information from other states on these problems of organization.

Social Evening

The Third Order of St. Francis will have a social evening at Sacred Heart hall, Meridian and Palmer streets, at 8 Monday evening. All members and friends are invited.

Camp Fire Honors Given at District Council Fire

THE semi-annual grand council fire for all the Camp Fire Girls of the Indianapolis territory was held today at the old Elks' hall. Members of thirty-eight groups attended in ceremonial and service costume to receive the awards and rank.

The ceremony opened with the singing of the "Wohelo Call," followed by the fire lighting ceremony. This was performed by two groups of girls. Three members of Truhenkino group at the Indianapolis Orphans' home lighted candles for work, health and love. Members of seven other groups lighted candles for the seven points of the Camp Fire law:

Seek beauty, give service, pursue knowledge, be trustworthy, hold onto health, glorify work and be happy.

The singing of "Burn, Fire, Burn" and "Mystic Fire," followed this ceremony with all girls singing and the motions given by the motion chorus under leadership of Mrs. Donna Eberhard.

The rank of wood gatherer was conferred upon Hazel Cronk, Plainfield; Louise Trees, Audrey Shearer, Rosa Lena Voeller, June Wainscott, Eva Cummins and Mary Ellen Purnell, Indianapolis. Those taking the rank of fire maker were Katherine Ross, Vera Embry and Florence Barbara Stelle, Anderson.

BREAKFAST—Orange juice, cereal, cream, baked French toast, brown sugar syrup, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Cream of onion soup, croquettes, tomato and cabbage salad, rice pudding, grape juice.

DINNER—Smothered chicken, twice baked sweet potatoes, French fried onions, apple, celery and nut salad, vanilla ice cream with caramel sauce, milk, coffee.

The following method of cooking chicken is quite novel and decidedly worth while when one chicken must serve many. The tomato sauce with mushrooms may be omitted, but really adds much to the savoriness of the dish. The chicken can be disjointed for serving before cooking if preferred.

Smothered Chicken

One chicken weighing about four pounds, 4 or 5 thin slices bacon, 1 onion, 1 carrot, 1 cup diced celery, 1 slice smoked ham, 4 tablespoons chopped mushrooms, ¼ teaspoon pepper.

Truss chicken as for roasting or disjoint for serving, cover bottom of closely covered kettle or small roaster with slices of bacon and add chicken. Chop onion, carrot, celery and ham, adding the "tribles"—heart, gizzard and liver—of the chicken. Spread this mixture over chicken and cover kettle.

Cook over a medium fire until bacon is brown. Add boiling water to half cover chicken, cover closely and cook in a slow oven for two hours. Remove chicken to hot platter, add tomato and mushroom sauce and bring to the boiling point. Serve the sauce in a gravy boat.

HAD TO WORK TOO HARD

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Gave Her Strength

"After my second baby was born I had to work too hard and be on my feet too long because my husband was ill. After his death I was in such a weakened and run-down condition that nothing seemed to help me. I am starting the fourth bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and feel a great deal better. I am much stronger and don't get so tired out when I wash or work hard. I do housekeeping and dressmaking and I highly recommend the Vegetable Compound. I am willing to answer letters."—Mrs. Gertrude Butts, 414 S. Market St., Mt. Carmel, Pa.—Advertisement.
