VELVET AFTERNOON FROCK

Velvet has gone modernistic, along with furniture and jewelry, and has gone to its advantage, for patterns are chic and new, and proclaim they are up to the minute. This afternoon frock comes in soft tones of brown and beige transparent velvet. The pattern is bold, but not unpleasantly so, and velvet tassels at the unbuttoned neckline and low neckline are delightful.

Money Above All With Some Folk These Days

BY MARTHA LEE

If there has ever been an age when a false standard of values is placed on things it is in these hectic times. It has come to the point where people do not say "Who is he?" or "What family does he come from?" but "How much has he got?" It is inconsequential, for the most part, that he is well born and well bred. What is far more important is that he be able to display a bloated bank account, or very definite and indubitable evidence that he expects to have one in the near future.

I have a letter from a young girl, which bears on this subject, with slight variations:

"Dear Miss Lee—I am twenty-three years old. I was graduated from high school when I was seventeen and have been working since that time. My parents had a large family and besides supporting myself, I have contributed toward the household expenses. For this reason, although I have been working some time, I have saved very little money."

I am engaged to a boy twenty-five who has had a similar situation in his home. We both have gotten along rather well in the business world, considering we had just high school education. We want to get married, Miss Lee, and strangely enough, although our own parents were married when their prospects were much bleaker than ours, they are fighting our marriage. They say "Wait. It is hard enough and long enough without stepping into it so young." My mother was seventeen when she married and my father twenty.

"My fiance and I both feel that we can get along financially on what we make. So we decided to just go ahead. The day after we had made up our minds concerning the date of our marriage, a girl in the office where I work was given a two weeks' notice. Her marriage was to take place in that length of time. I went to my boss and asked him about it, and he told me they never employed married women."

Now that just about ruins everything, because we had counted on my money to buy our furniture and my fiance's to pay the expenses and buy the clothing. What is your opinion of a firm that will fire a girl who has worked for it six years just because she wants to get married? Do you think we should take a chance and try to live on my fiance's salary?"

MARGERY.

Are you sure your parents, in both cases, have no selfish motive? Could it be that they hate to lose that extra five or so a week? I believe if their only objection is that you haven't enough money to strike out, I would more or less disregard that. You have both been self-supporting long enough to know the value of money.

DELORES DURMAN

Indiana Mother is Proud, Now

Don't allow your child to remain weakened or run-down for any length of time. In that condition children are so easily attacked by the millions of tiny germs that are seething and swarming around us. And it's so easy to get the bilious, fretful, puny, underweight ones back into condition, with a hearty appetite, rosy cheeks and abundant energy, by using a purely vegetable product which physicians have endorsed for over 50 years.

Children love the rich, fruity taste of California Fig Syrup and it acts almost like magic to regulate their little bowels and stomachs. It gives these organs tone and strength so they continue to act as Nature intends them to do and you don't have to keep dosing your child. Four million bottles used a year and the enthusiastic words of mothers everywhere prove it gives satisfaction.

Another Indiana mother, Mrs. C. E. Durman, 426 Irving Place, Indianapolis, says: "My little daughter, Delores, suffered terribly from constipation until she got very weak, run-down and underweight. I gave her California Fig Syrup and in just a little while she was eating heartily and gaining weight. Soon she was her bright, normal self again."

Always ask for California Fig Syrup by the full name to avoid substitutes—Advertisement.

Helps Women To Do Their Work

"I don't see how you can do all your own housework, sew for three children and find time for so much church and lodge work. I should be a nervous wreck."

"So should I without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken it for years whenever I feel nervous, fretty, or all tired out."

"Don't Get So Tired"

MR. CARREL, Pa.—"After my second baby was born I had to work too hard and be on my feet too long because my husband was ill. After his death I was in such a weakened and run-down condition that nothing seemed to help me. I am starting the fourth bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and feel a great deal better. I am much stronger and don't get so tired out when I wash or work hard. I do house-keeping and dressmaking and I highly recommend the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Gertrude Butts, 414 S. Market St., Mt. Carmel, Pa.

Again?

A book full of dictation, and she must go home; what can she tell her employer? One more girl who hasn't heard of Midol. In misery at least one day of every month, and a tiny tablet now banishes such pain in five to seven minutes! Not a narcotic, mind; nothing that has the slightest effect on the natural process. Midol acts directly on the organs themselves, and avoids the painful part—the part that is not natural. You may have tried other things for relief at such a time, but ask about Midol; purse-size aluminum case is fifty cents.

*Midol's comfort is not confined to any certain days or age. It relieves at any time of life. Its ease is felt immediately in cases of nervous headache, backache, cramping, hot flashes and all febrile pain peculiar to women.
