

Local Pin Gossip

BY LEFTY LEE

Entry blanks for the "Pot of Gold" tournament to be held at the Elk Club drives Dec. 15, 16, 22 and 23, can be secured at any of the local alleys. Last season this meet had an entry list of 141 teams and with the added time available for the event this year the entry is expected to reach the full limit of 192 teams. The rules covering this year's event differ but little over the last meet, the team entering receiving two-thirds between its league average and 1,000, which is scratch, thus a team with an average of 800 will start with a gift of 400 pins for their three games. Based on last season's prize list the team winning this event will have some real Christmas money as first place is expected to pay more than $400.

Clarence Myers, president of the Indiana State Bowling Association, is the chairman of the committee on "Pot of Gold" arrangements. Other members of the committee are Bert Seeling, secretary; Charles Gray, Harry Grant, Charles Bailey, Harry Pierce, Frank Widner, Carl Bruch, Charles Fink, John Fox, Fred McNeely, Henry Peachey and Harry Sargent. Any team entering this event not a member of the City Bowling Association must join before the event is accepted. Eddie Hofstetter, secretary of the City Bowling Association, will be the tournament manager. Leonard Wiseman, the alley manager at the Elk Club, will have the drives in tip top shape for the boys.

The Lilacs and Violets won three games from the Danies and Snappers in the Flower League at the Fountain Square alleys.

All of the Thursday night league cancelled their scheduled games to allow their members the joy of an unmoistened Hoosier Thanksgiving dinner.

Paul Kramer and the writer again renewed their argument as to which was the better left-handed bowler. After many games the argument was still open, with John Martin being the only winner.

The DeLoe-Remy plant at Anderson thinks well of Pete Miller as a bowler and will back him this winter in a state in a home-and-home match for a purse.

Eddie Hornberger finally hit his stride and great things are expected of him in the coming city meet.

Bert McCarthy and his Watkins' Rehabilitation team had narrow escapes with their entry for the city tourney, but they forgot to mail the check for this club until the scheduled entry deadline. Their entry costed the entry total to 163.

Bob Wuenesch started slow in the Uptown loop Wednesday night, but when the three games were finished his usual "egg" total was in.

An interesting sweepstakes for some alley owner to put on would be a husband and wife meet. The prize for the winner of this kind would be Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson.

The Indiana alleys are putting up a carton of Old Gold cigarettes for first and second high scores each week.

At the Capitol alleys the Florheim Shoe Company has set up a pair of Florheim shoes for the high league game each month. At present P. Schmidt of H. H. Schmitt Insurance team is high with a score of 267.

Brooklyn Boxer to Face Lenard at Legion Show

Charley Goodman of Brooklyn, N. Y., will meet Henry Lenard of Chicago in the feature scrap at the Armory Tuesday night. It was the matchmaker's original intention to pit Lenard against the winner of last Tuesday night's Garcia-Ruth fight, but the poor performance staged by these two served to put a damper on the plan.

The Legion has instructed Matchmaker Greene to get the limit in bringing in high-class performers in the future, so it may be expected that several well-known pugilists from the Atlantic seaboard will be seen at the Armory.

Lenard showed his wares here against Babe Ruth several weeks ago and the scrap was considered one of the best of the season. Goodman's manager has sent the Legion his record, and a number of important wins are claimed for the Brooklynite. It is said he knocked out Carl Tremaine in seven rounds, and beat Mike Ballerino, Ray Miller, Johnny Farr, California Joe Lynch, Jimmie Mendo and Johnny Datto.

Badger Five Looks Great for Hot Race

Coach Meanwell Has Squad of Veterans; to Open With Franklin.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 30.—Dr. Walter E. Meanwell, nationally known coach of Wisconsin basketball teams, can present a battle front of five veterans this season, if he so desires. The first game is scheduled for Madison on Dec. 10 with Franklin furnishing the opposition. Hopes are high for the Big Ten title.

The letter men who are working out daily are the co-captains, Elmer Tenhopen and Johnny Doyle; Harold (Bud) Foster, Ray Ellerman, Hank Kowalczyk and Lylean Miller. The stature of these men will surprise many Badger followers. Kowalczyk and Tenhopen tower 6 feet 4 inches; Foster is two inches shorter, Miller stands 6 feet 1 inch and Doyle is just a shade beneath the six foot mark.

Reserves from last season's squad include Mathews and Chmielewski. Two sophomore football players who have just started to work out with the squad are: Sammy Behr, brother of Capt. Louis Behr of the 1927-28 team, and Milt Gantenbein, former all-state high school guard, who hails from La Crosse.

The schedule includes seventeen games, with an intersectional battle with the University of Pittsburgh as one of the bright spots. Every conference team that finished in the first division last season is on the Badger list. The season's slate follows:

Dec. 10—Franklin at Madison.
Dec. 15—Pittsburgh at Milwaukee.
Dec. 20—Lombard at Madison.
Jan. 1—Carleton at Madison.
Jan. 7—Minnesota at Minneapolis.
Jan. 7—Michigan at Madison.
Jan. 12—Chicago at Chicago.
Jan. 14—Indiana at Lafayette.
Jan. 19—Minnesota at Madison.
Jan. 21—Purdue at Madison.
Feb. 12—Bradley at Madison.
Feb. 16—Indiana at Bloomington.
Feb. 18—Northwestern at Madison.
Feb. 23—Northwestern at Evanston.
Feb. 25—Purdue at Madison.
March 4—Michigan at Ann Arbor.
March 9—Chicago at Madison.

BUTLER FRESHIES LOSE

Culver Boys Pile Up 26 to 0 Score on Yearlings.

CULVER, Ind., Nov. 30.—Defeats suffered two years in succession at the hands of the Butler freshmen football team were avenged here Thursday when the Culver Military Academy trounced the Bulldogs yearlings, 26 to 0. The Cadets were unable to get their offense going in the opening half and scored but six points, but in the last half they produced a driving off-tackle play that put their backs into the open, where they were able to dash off long gains.

Hoosier Irish to Perform Against Trojans With 80,000 Fans Present.

TEAMS FINISH DRILLS

Rockne's Men Depart From Camp in Arizona.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 30.—After three days of leisurely practice at Tucson, Ariz., Notre Dame's rambling football team was to arrive here today for its game with University of Southern California Saturday.

The Irish come to play before 80,000 persons in the coliseum, sold out weeks in advance and with tickets practically inaccessible at this date even at scalpers' prices.

Trojans Favorites

While betting for the most part continued at even money, a heavy trend toward the Trojans developed here today. The Trojans have fewer men on the sick list than for the past several games. Marshal Duffield, a quarter back, out with an injured shoulder, will be the only one not ready to play. Don Williams probably will start at his regular back field post, but if his recent illness makes it impossible for him to stand the pace, Russ Saunders will replace him. Coach Jones has been working him at the position at every chance since Duffield was declared out.

Light Work at Tucson

Reports from Tucson were that Knute Rockne's men, with the exception of Chevigney, all were in excellent shape and had done only the lightest work on the Arizona gridiron.

The Irish took good care to keep their plays under cover in all their workouts and Rockne seemed content with short sessions devoted to a very little scrimmage, some drills and plenty of limbering up.

KNUTE SPREADS GLOOM

"Only Hope to Keep Score Down," Veteran Coach Says.

TUCSON, Ariz., Nov. 30.—The outwardly pessimistic Knute Rockne and his Notre Dame football team left by train today for Los Angeles, where the Irish play the University of Southern California in an intersectional grid game Saturday. "It's going to be only a question of how much we can keep the score down," he declared to gloomily. "We've played only in and out football this season and U. S. C. is one of the country's best teams," Rockne said.

Now Stanford Players Think They Are Due to Trounce Army Eleven

Old Pop Warner Rather Pessimistic, However, Over Outlook Saturday; Colds Bother Coast Gridders.

BY WILLIAM J. DUNN, United Press Staff Correspondent
RYE, N. Y., Nov. 30.—Pop Warner, veteran coach of the Leland Stanford football squad, is not picking a winner in the Saturday game with Army.

Warner sat in the reception room at the Westchester Baltimore Club here Thursday night and discussed the game in a rather non-committal manner.

"Looks as though they have a better team than we have," he observed. "At least their record is more impressive."

Some one suggested that Army had a better record than Notre Dame before their game several weeks ago. A slow smile crossed Warner's face, but he said nothing. After a pause he spoke again: "Who can tell what will happen? Modern football is an uncertain game. I haven't an Ernie Nevers in my lineup this year, but the whole bunch look pretty good sometimes. We'll give a good account of ourselves."

Warner admitted a little worry concerning slight colds several members of the squad contracted before they left the Pacific coast after last Saturday's game with California. Aside from that the entire squad is ready for action now, he said.

Team members believe they will win but, like Warner, they are reluctant to discuss the game. "I think we can stop them," Captain "Biff" Hoffman, sturdy full-

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—The close race for the championship of the Western Conference this season is reflected in the "all Big Ten" football team for 1928, named today by the United Press upon the recommendation of twenty coaches of the middle west who watched these players in action.

Eight of the ten teams in the conference are represented on the United Press team, Minnesota, despite two defeats, placing three men on the mythical eleven. Indiana, although low in the race, placed two men—Randolph and Bennett.

The "all Big Ten" team for 1928 is declared by the coaches and officials who contributed their opinions to be a worthy successor to those named in the past.

Only two Big Ten teams failed to land men on the United Press mythical eleven. Purdue has Pest Welch, a great back, who ranked right up with those selected, but Chicago had no one this year, the Maroons losing every conference game they played.

Other great backs of the conference were Luby of Wisconsin, Chief McLain of Iowa, and Cuisinier, the clever Wisconsin quarter back, one of the brainiest field generals in the Midwest. Barratt of Ohio and Conroy of Wisconsin were great centers who were just nosed out by Randolph of Indiana.

Team championship and silver loving cup went to Ohio State, which had five men finishing in the first ten places, Detroit Y. M. C. A. was second.

Sayers Easy for Wiggins in Main Go

Detroit Heavy Flattened in Sixth Round; Wild Action in Prelims.

Having trained off some of his excess poundage, Chuck Wiggins, Hoosier heavyweight, disposed of Tom Sayers, Detroit giant, in the sixth round of the main fistie bout at Cade tabernacle, Thursday night. Sayers was battered into submission more than knocked out. In other words it seemed he didn't care for any more.

Sayers had a punch, but little science, and Chuck had him on the floor twice in the fourth round. It was in this canto, however, and after getting off the floor, that the visitor scored his best work by cracking Wiggins twice on the jaw to send him back on his heels.

But Chuck was careful after that surprise and threw too many gloves for Tom, who is young and strong, but lacking the ability to "take it."

The Cade prelim card was a corker with results, according to The Times, as follows:

Eddie Walsh, Chicago, shaded Ehrman Clark, Indianapolis, in eight rounds. Frankie Jones outpointed K. O. Brown in four rounds. Jones is now fighting as Frankie Furlong.

Roy Rodgers outpointed Frankie Clark in four rounds.

Ray Hurt, knocked out Walter Smith in the fourth round.

Scotty Scorer outpointed Young Woods in four rounds.

Hurt and Smith, Negro boys, staged the wildest scrap of the night and had the crowd in an uproar. Both fighters hit with everything they possessed. Hurt was floored for nine in the first round, recovered and later flattened his opponent.

Puts Opponent Over Ropes as Ring Bout Ends

BY UNITED PRESS

BUFFALO, Nov. 30.—Apparently badly outpointed, Young Jack Thompson, San Francisco Negro, who holds a two-round knockout over Joe Dundee, welterweight champion, came back to knock out Sam Bruce, Buffalo Negro, in the tenth round here Thursday.

Thompson knocked Bruce over the top rope in the last round with only thirty-two seconds to go. Bruce was unable to get back. Weights: Thompson, 141½; Bruce, 143½.

Tommy Paul, Buffalo, 118½, knocked out Phil O'Dowd, Columbus, Ohio, 119, in the first round.

Other great backs of the conference were Luby of Wisconsin, Chief McLain of Iowa, and Cuisinier, the clever Wisconsin quarter back, one of the brainiest field generals in the Midwest. Barratt of Ohio and Conroy of Wisconsin were great centers who were just nosed out by Randolph of Indiana.
