

STATE BONUS PROPOSED FOR WAR VETERANS

Bill Provides Payment of $15 for Each Month of Service.

Another attempt to obtain a bonus for soldiers, sailors, marines and nurses who left Indiana for service during the World war is being made in the Indiana legislature. A bill providing that these veterans be granted a bonus of $15 for each month of service, with a minimum of two months and a maximum of twenty months has been introduced by Representatives William C. Babcock Jr., Rensselaer, and James B. Brewster, Corydon.

The bonus fund is to be obtained through a special levy and part of the regular levy. Qualified heirs of the veterans will be eligible to collect the bonus, the bill provides. The bonus is to be decided by popular vote in November, 1930, according to the measure, which has been turned over to the ways and means committee.

Seek Highway Money

An attempt to obtain an additional $5,000,000 revenue for the state highway commission is made in a bill introduced by Representative Lewis C. Carter, Salem, providing for an increase in the state gasoline tax from 3 to 4 1/2 cents.

All of the receipts from the tax increase are to be used for highway construction, the bill provides.

Increase of pay for township assessors and their deputies is proposed in a bill sponsored by Representative Charles Worley, Alexandria, which provides that assessors in townships of less than 5,000 population will receive $5 a day, an increase of $1; and their deputies will also be increased $1 to $4.

Assessors in townships having a population of more than 5,000 and less than 20,000 will be paid $300 a year and $40 for each additional 1,000 population or fraction thereof. The salaries now in force are $300 a year and $30 for each additional 1,000.

Pension for Mothers

Relief of dependent mothers through a pension is provided in a bill introduced by Representative Thomas A. E. Cantwell, Terre Haute. Counties with population in excess of 300,000 will pay the mother not more than $20 a month for herself and one child, and a son not to exceed $15 for each additional child. Mothers residing in counties of less than 300,000 population will receive a maximum of $15 a month for themselves and one child, and not more than $10 a month for each child. The circuit court judge and the board of children's guardians in each county will determine the state of dependency. Counties are authorized to designate a special levy to carry out the provisions of this act.

Fishing, Hunting Bill

A universal hunting and fishing law measure sponsored by Representative H. H. Evans, Newcastle, provides that fishermen as well as hunters must obtain combination licenses to hunt, fish and trap in any county of the state, including the one in which the sportsman resides. Only persons exempt are the owners of the land upon which the fishing place is located, their children and tenants and honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, and persons under eighteen.

The claim of Nettie J. Hughes, Connersville, for reimbursement by the Fayette county court of $3,500 for bonds declared forfeited by the circuit court judge in 1923, has again been presented to the house. This time by Representative William Dentinger, Connersville. The claim was passed by both houses in 1927 and given the pocket veto by former Governor Ed Jackson.

O. K. Refreshment Stand

The bonds were forfeited while the defendant, Myron Aldridge, was present in the courtroom and had filed affidavit to change of venue in a liquor case. The forfeited money reverted to the common school fund and although the Governor and state pardon board remitted in 1924, it can be recovered only through an act of legislature. James A. Makin, operator of Broad Ripple park, was given exclusive permission to install a refreshment stand in the corridors of the house by a resolution adopted by voice vote. The resolution was introduced by Representative John E. King, Indianapolis, who presented a similar resolution last week, but was informed that the house had no authority to delegate such establishment. King checked upon and learned that the house does possess such authority.

JUDGE BILL DRAFTED

All Could Be of One Party in City Court Under Plan.

Appointment of the four municipal court judges in Indianapolis from only one of the two political parties would be possible under a bill introduced late Monday by State Representative Frank E. Wright of Indianapolis.

The present law calls for the appointment of two Democrats and two Republicans in the courts. Wright's bill, however, drops the proviso that no more than two of said judges shall be appointed (by the Governor) from any one political party.

ONSLAUGHT ON CRIME IS BEGUN BY HOUSE BILLS

Measures Introduced to Speed Up Work of Justice.

The legislative onslaught on crime has been started in the house of representatives with the introduction of five bills dealing with various phases of crime: a court procedure dealing with its punishment. A measure providing for increasing the appellate court from six to nine members, with jurisdiction in criminal case appeals, also was introduced.

In order to make more strict the statutes covering use of weapons in bank robbery or holdups, Representative Thos. S. Adams, Danville, Monday introduced a bill providing a penalty of life imprisonment or death shall be mandatory upon conviction of bank banditry or robbery if firearms were used or threatened in perpetration of the crime. This measure was submitted to the committee on criminal code.

A law aimed at the automobile thief who aliases and changes automobile identification marks, the purchaser and seller, was introduced by Frank E. Wright of Indianapolis.

Hit at Hung Juries

Wright's bill would make this a felony punishable by from one to fourteen years imprisonment. This measure also was submitted to the committee on the criminal code.

An effort to prevent hung juries is made in two measures introduced. The one submitted by Representative Adams provides that in criminal cases where the death penalty or life imprisonment may be imposed, eleven jurors may return a verdict of acquittal or conviction; and that in other cases ten jurors may return the verdict. The measure also provides that in civil cases the verdict may be returned by nine jurors. This bill, however, was withdrawn today.

Another bill regarding jury practice was introduced by Representatives John W. Chamberlain, Terre Haute; Lloyd D. Claycomb, Indianapolis; and Delph L. McKesson, Plymouth. This measure provides for verdicts in civil cases by five-sixths of a jury. Both of the jury bills have been submitted to the judiciary B committee.

Speed Up Courts

In order to speed up criminal cases now before the Marion county criminal court a bill was introduced by John L. Benedict, Indianapolis for the creation of a second Marion county criminal court. Under his plan superior court 5 would have concurrent jurisdiction and perform all of the duties of the criminal court.

Half of the cases pending before the criminal court are to be assigned to the new court upon passage of the bill, the measure says. This measure was referred to the organization of courts committee. The bill increasing the membership of the appellate court by three was introduced by Representative Robert B. Stewart, Brazil. The Governor is authorized to appoint three new judges for a period ending Dec. 31, 1932.

The appellate court instead of sitting in two divisions will sit in three divisions. If the three judges cannot agree, the case under consideration shall be submitted to the three divisions sitting together in which event five judges must concur for a decision.

All criminal cases now on the supreme court docket may be transferred to the appellate docket, except in cases of murder, treason and involving questions of constitutionality. The bill was submitted to the committee on organization of courts.

Have you all of your own teeth?

Unless you take preventive measures now, the day is coming when you may know, to your sorrow, that the true meaning of the phrase "artificial denture" is often the extravagant price of self-neglect—false teeth. Here's the reason and the way to help safeguard health against the coming of this day.

Teeth are only as healthy as the gums. And gums, undernourished and under-exercised, soon surrender to dread diseases that ravage health and often destroy teeth. To prevent this, avail yourself of the best care that modern dentistry offers. Place yourself in the hands of your dentist at least twice a year. And brush your gums when you brush your teeth, every morning and night.

But for this purpose—use Forhan's for the Gums... the dentifrice designed to help firm gums and keep them sound, thus protecting them from the attack of disease.

Use Forhan's regularly. You'll be delighted with the way it makes your gums look and feel. In addition, you'll notice that it effectively and safely cleans teeth and helps to protect them from decay. Get a tube of Forhan's today!

'GETS HIS MAN' AFTER SEARCH IN TWO STATES

Fugitive Arrested Here in Cop's Home Calling on Daughter.

John G. Willis, criminal court investigator, today is considering requests of friends that he forward his application for a post in the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police.

For Willis, by his own methods, tracked and "got his man."

Last October the investigator was sent to Iroon, Tex., to return Robert C. Hamilton, Indianapolis, who had departed from here a few weeks before. Hamilton took a rented auto with him.

Willis, armed with a warrant charging vehicle taking, skidded to a stop in the Texas town a day or so later after riding trains, stage coaches, autos and walking. He became the law's guardian over Hamilton and they started back to Indiana by auto.

When they reached Forest City, Ark., Hamilton walked into the wash room of a filling station while Willis casually smoked a cigaret outside the door.

Later Willis learned that Hamilton had squeezed through a ventilation opening in the side of the building and escaped.

Several weeks later Willis learned of Hamilton's presence in Lynchburg, Va. Again he was too late.

A few weeks ago Willis received information that Hamilton was returning to Indianapolis.

Sunday morning the hunted man showed up at a young woman's house. He promptly was arrested. He had the bad luck of choosing a girl whose father is a policeman.

"We know our Luckies That's how we stay slender"

EVERY woman who fears overweight finds keen interest in new-day and common-sense ways to keep a slender, fashionable figure. Overweight must be avoided. "Better to light a Lucky whenever you crave fattening sweets."

Toasting does it. Toasting develops and improves the flavor of the world's finest tobaccos. Lucky Strike satisfies the longing for things that make you fat, without interfering with a normal appetite for healthful foods. That's why Luckies are good to smoke. Toasting makes Lucky Strike the healthy cigarette for you to smoke.

Many men who carefully watch their health discovered this years ago. They know that Luckies steady their nerves and do not slow up their physical vigor—prominent athletes have gone on record that this is so. They know that 20,679 physicians have stated that Luckies are less irritating to the throat than other cigarettes.

A reasonable proportion of sugar in the diet is recommended, but the authorities are overwhelming that too many fattening sweets are harmful and that too many such are eaten by the American people. So, for moderation's sake we say:—

INSTEAD OF A SWEET."
