

SETTLE TWO ALLISON SUITS OUT OF COURT

'Large Sum of Money' Is Involved in Deal, Say Attorneys.

Two suits involving the estate of the late James A. Allison, Indianapolis capitalist, were marked off county and federal court records today after settlements were reached out of court late Thursday.

The suits, which were settled, according to Attorneys Eph Inman and Frank B. Ross, representing Mrs. Sara Allison, Mr. Allison's first wife, for a "large sum of money" were:

The federal court alienation of affections suit in which the first Mrs. Allison sought $2,000,000 from Mrs. Lucille Musset Allison, the second wife; and the suit brought by the first Mrs. Allison against Mr. Allison's mother, Mrs. Myra J. Allison, in probate court, in which the plaintiff sought to have the mother produce and probate Mr. Allison's will.

Mr. Allison's estates here and in Florida were reputed to be valued at about $4,000,000. The suits were filed shortly after his death.

The suit by the first Mrs. Allison seeking to have the will probated alleged that Mr. Allison left a will but that this had been revoked because the signature on the codicil was torn off in an effort to destroy the document. By the terms of this will the bulk of the estate would have gone to the first wife.

Had the will been filed for probate in Florida, as attorneys for the mother contended it should, the property would have gone to Mrs. Myra Allison, according to the Florida laws:

The alienation of affections suit charged the second wife with "deliberately and systematically" trying to win Mr. Allison's affections while she was the former capitalist's secretary.

Mr. Allison married his former secretary in July, 1928, and died in Indianapolis five days after the wedding. Mrs. Sara Allison had obtained a divorce in Florida in 1928.

HOUSE KILLS BOXING BILL

Act to Create Commission Dies Swift Death.

Representative William A. Fisher, of Anderson, did not play smart politics today on so his pet measure, the bill creating a boxing commission and giving the state 10 per cent of the gate receipts after a test.

The torch which set off the explosion was thrown by Fisher himself, when he attempted to kill an amendment which would eliminate Marion county from the provisions of the bill, which was upon second reading.

The amendment had been introduced several days ago by Representative Lloyd Claycombe, of Indianapolis, who explained that if the bill passed the American Legion, which is now sponsoring bouts at Armory would lose, because the bouts during the past few months barely paid expenses.

The bill would probably have passed with the amendment, but when Fisher sought to kill the amendment the moral conscience of the house of representatives as embodied in Representative Frank E. Wright, Indianapolis, known as the moral floor leader, rose to attack the bill because it "undermined morals of the youth."

Full pardon for former Governor Warren T. McCray was asked of President Coolidge, Thursday, in a telegram sent him by Governor Harry G. Leslie, Lieutenant-Governor Edgar D. Bush and James M. Knapp, speaker of the house of representatives.

McCray has been under jurisdiction of prison authorities since his release from the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., more than a year ago.
