

MOB OF BILLS AWAIT ACTION IN LAST WEEK

Steering Committee to Select Major Drafts; Rest Will Die.

"There will be no omnibus bill this session if I can prevent it," Lieutenant-Governor Edgar D. Bush warned members of the senate as they entered their final week of lawmaking today.

Bush was irate Saturday when scarcely more than a quorum appeared for the afternoon session. The failure to appear he termed "a disgrace," despite the fact the senators really had voted not to hold an afternoon session, but Bush had ruled against them.

544 Bills Wait Action

He announced today that he will name a steering committee to select a few necessary bills for passage and let the remainder die. Although it is expected that night sessions will be necessary this week, Bush asserted that he did not favor holding them to discuss minor matters.

Of the 794 bills introduced in both houses 544 await action. Only 25 have been acted upon finally thus far. Forty-two have been sent to the Governor for signature. The remaining 208 were withdrawn or killed.

Following the history of other sessions, the bulk of the bills will be passed this week and descend on the Governor in an avalanche.

Two concurrent resolutions passed by the senate Saturday await acceptance or rejection by the house.

Resolutions Pend

One of Senator Alonzo H. Lindley, Kingman, calls for a joint committee to study revenue raising. It is expected either not to function at all or without result, it was predicted today. The committee, if the resolution is passed by the house, will consist of three members of each house and the presiding officer.

Bush appointed Lindley, Arthur B. Stoner, Goshen, and Robert L. Moorhead, Indianapolis, to represent the upper body.

The other resolution was introduced by Senator C. Oliver Holmes, Gary, and empowers the Governor to call a conference of state law enforcement and law administrative officials to explain the new criminal code.

Collins today.

They are: Perry L. Adams, Thirty-seventh and Temple streets, former head of the sales company, who also pleaded not guilty to an embezzlement allegation; Emory Knight, 2937 Schenck avenue; Earl P. O'Donoghue, 41 North Colorado street, and Leonard Harnes, 6272 Central avenue.

POST BOOSTER SIGNS

General Outdoors Advertising Company has posted about fifty posters boosting Indianapolis as a compliment to Mayor L. Ert Slack.

The signs have been placed on outdoor advertising boards in all sections of the city. Many of the posters are thanking them for the "fine co-operative spirit" shown in the civic posters.

"Loyalty to our city costs nothing and yields big returns. Think about it, Mayor L. Ert Slack," is the message on the posters.

IF RHEUMATIC BEGIN ON SALTS

Says We Must Keep Feet Dry, Avoid Exposure, Eat No Sweets.

Staff off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat no sweets of any kind for a while, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of Jad Salts occasionally to help keep down uric and toxic acids.

Rheumatism is caused by poison toxins, called acids, which are generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work; they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this poison, which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles, causing stiffness, soreness and pain, called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is helpful to neutralize acidity, remove body waste also to stimulate the kidneys, thus helping to rid the blood of these rheumatic poisons.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism.—Advertisement.

OFFICER SHOT; CAPTURE BANDIT

Sergeant Cummings Is Wounded Making Arrest.

A pistol battle in which Sergeant Dan Cummings, leader of a squad of police night riders, was shot through the right hand, early this morning climaxed the search for a bandit who held up the W. S. Kerch drug store, 1402 West Washington street, and escaped in a stolen car.

The confessed bandit, who gave his name as James Coltrin, 20, of Seattle, Wash., was captured after the exchange of shots in which Cummings was wounded.

Police arrested by members of the police squad in the 3400 block on West Washington street, the bandit drew a pistol and ordered the police to "stick 'em up." As Cummings attempted to wrest the gun from his hand, the youth fired three shots.

Patrolman Strickler directed three bullets at the youth, but all missed and Cummings made the arrest.

Coltrin is held under $10,000 bond on charges of robbery, shooting with intent to kill, resisting an officer, vehicle and vagrancy.

Coltrin is alleged to have held up Kerch, proprietor of the store, and Lloyd Pfister, 237 North Richland street, a customer, and robbed three cash registers in the store of $80 and Pfister of his automobile.

REVOLT CUTS HOLIDAY SHORT FOR LINDBERGH

Flier and Fiancee Return With Ambassador Morrow to Mexico City.

By United Press

CUERNAYACA, State of Morelos, Mexico, March 4.—The week-end holiday of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his fiancee came to an abrupt and premature end today.

The Mexican revolt which broke Sunday apparently caused Dwight W. Morrow, United States ambassador, to alter his plans and leave here Sunday, more than twenty-four hours earlier than first intended.

Mrs. Morrow, Colonel Lindbergh, Lindbergh's fiancée, Miss Anne Morrow, and the ambassador's other daughters, accompanied him.

The Morrises and Colonel Lindbergh spent a harassed week-end at the ambassador's "country home" here. Tourists, newspaper men and photographers kept an unceasing watch all Sunday before the unresponsive house, and once a group of eager tourists ventured to the door and rang the bell. They left unanswered.

Lindbergh's plane crash last week with Miss Morrow appeared to have added to their importance in Mexican eyes. Many wealthy Mexicans braved the bandit-endangered motor trip from Mexico City, hoping to see them and Cuernavaca was filled with foreigners and curious visitors from other parts of Mexico.

The ambassador, his family and his future son-in-law came here Saturday along roads guarded by troops.

The guards were stationed after a train was robbed and burned between here and Mexico City Thursday.

Al Smith Supporter Wins Job From G. O. P.

Even at the hour that Herbert Hoover was inaugurated President of the United States the "brown derby" sentiments of Al Smith lobbied a job out of the Indiana senate.

The pro-Smithite is Orville Gardner, 22, 420 North Delaware street, newsboy, who went to work today as a Democrat page in a Republican senate.

Gardner, who has been selling papers at the corner of Market street and Capitol avenue, decided the surety of $3 a day as page was better for a week than the hit-and-miss income of a newsboy. Lobbying he got the patronage of Senators Winfield Miller and J. Clyde Hoffman, both of Indianapolis. With their backing Senator Alonzo A. Lindley, Kingman, director of pages, acceded to Gardner's request for a job.

VETO BILL TO RAISE SALARIES OF OFFICIALS

Increase for La Porte Denied; Senate Passes Act to Abolish Fees.

Governor Harry G. Leslie unfurled the economy standard in the senate today by returning a bill providing for salary raises for La Porte officials with his veto.

A short time later thirty-two senators enrolled under the same banner by passing the Holmes bill abolishing the fee system in Lake county which will turn many thousands of dollars into the treasury. This money now goes into politicians' pockets and for support of the G. O. P. organization.

In returning the vetoed salary bill John J. Brown, Governor's secretary, read a message from Leslie in which he pointed out that while the general average of city tax rates of 2.501 on each $100 worth of taxable property it is already $3.76 at La Porte. Salary raises are out of order at this time, he pointed out.

Sponsors Bill

The vetoed bill had been introduced by Senator Earl Rowley, La Porte.

Senator C. Oliver Holmes, Gary, author of the fee abolition bill, pointed out that many good men could be secured as candidates with Lake county offices paying the same salary as those in Marion county. Such is the provision of the bill.

He cited net sums now going to the various officials annually as follows:

Tells Salaries of Officers

County clerk, $25,000, plus fees from 20,000 licenses; recorder, $24,228; treasurer, $26,314, plus delinquent demands of more than $5,000; sheriff, $10,824, plus $20,000 for transportation and $53,000 for feeding prisoners. The prosecutor's office he placed at the low estimate of $50,000 net.

The Gray bill providing for tax board appeals to local courts failed of a constitutional majority.

NURSE TO FIGHT LIFE SENTENCE

Convicted of Murder in 'Love Mania' Trial.

By United Press

DENVER, Colo., March 4.—An appeal from her conviction of first degree murder will be sought by attorneys for Farice King, who shot and killed her former sweetheart because he jilted her.

A jury Sunday decided the nurse was sane at the time she killed Robert Evans as he lay on a hospital cot. They found her guilty in the first degree, which carries a penalty of life imprisonment.

Attorneys for the nurse denounced "jurors who would sanction seduction," in filing notice of appeal.

They declared Miss King was insane at the time of the killing; that her mind was unbalanced through her great love. The term "love mania" was used to describe her mental condition.

Judge Frank McDonough granted twenty days in which the appeal brief may be prepared.

Judge McDonough received the jurors' decision in the absence of Judge Henry Sackman, who heard the case and who became ill Saturday.

FACE TROUBLE PICKING JURY

225 Talesmen for Murder Trial Called; 8 Chosen.

With eight jurors tentatively accepted by the state, selection of a jury for the trial of Rupert McDonald for the murder two years ago of Wilkerson Haag, Indianapolis druggist, seemed slightly nearer after this morning's session of criminal court. Jury selection began last Tuesday.

Twenty-five more talesmen, making a total of 225 which have been drawn, reported this afternoon an examination of five of the first 200 continued.

The state has used only one of its peremptory challenges. Eph Inman, defense attorney, today used the thirtieth of the twenty he is allowed.
