

Council to Convene in Huntington

Plans for the convention of May Wright Sewall, Indiana Council of Women, to be held at Huntington April 18 and 19, at the Hotel LaFontaine and the First Presbyterian church, are almost complete.

Among the speakers who will address delegates are Carl Endicott, Huntington, who will speak on "Who is Living Your Life?" at 3:30 Thursday afternoon. At the banquet meeting at 7 o'clock Thursday night, Professor Hugh Willis of the law school of Indiana university will talk on "Citizenship and the Constitution."

At this time J. K. Kissinger, hero of the yellow fever tests following the war with Spain, will be the guest of honor. Mr. Kissinger will be introduced by Dr. Charles Good. Mrs. T. J. Louden, second vice-president of the National Council of Women, will bring greetings from that organization.

State President to Speak.

Mrs. Charles H. Smith, Indianapolis, state president of the organization of Camp Fire Girls, will speak on "The Camp Fire Girl Movement" at the Friday afternoon session. Following the afternoon meeting Thursday, a special entertainment feature will be provided by the Huntington Council. A swimming exhibition will be given at the Elysian pool of the Hotel Lafontaine.

Mrs. Samuel R. Artman, Indianapolis, first state president, will preside over the president's luncheon Thursday. Mrs. W. A. Denny, Anderson, state president, will give her message. Other speakers of member organizations will include Mrs. M. E. Robbins, Indianapolis Council of Women; Mrs. Lulu Hartzog, Indianapolis, Federated Patriotic Societies of the G. A. R.; Mrs. Newton J. McGuire, Indianapolis, Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, U. S. A.; Mrs. Edward Niles, Indianapolis, Women's Organization of the National Association of Retail Druggists, Chapter 20; Mrs. Allen T. Fleming, Indianapolis, Auxiliary of the Thirty-eighth Division of Indiana.

Chairmen Will Talk.

During the sessions, the following chairmen will speak on the work of their respective committees: Mrs. Edna Bailey, Mrs. Bloomfield Moore, Mrs. David Ross, Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Catherine McBride, Hostess, Mrs. Frank Gregor, Miss Merica Hoagland, all of Indianapolis; Mrs. Florence Riddick, Boys, Plymouth; Mrs. J. H. Huntington, Mrs. T. J. Louden, Mrs. Edna Hatfield, Edmondson, Bloomington; Mrs. Oswald Ryan, Anderson; and Mrs. Emmett King, Huntington.

Huntington local council will be hostess council for the convention.

City Members Attend Chicago Y.W.C.A. Parley

Members of the Indianapolis Y. W. C. A. who left today to attend the three-day Y. W. C. A. regional conference in Chicago are Mrs. Samuel Ashby, Mrs. W. H. Gibson, Mrs. R. E. Adkins, Mrs. A. W. Bowen, Mrs. C. M. Starr, Mrs. George Hayes, Mrs. Evelyn Waters, Mrs. E. D. Moten, Miss Mary Cowger, Miss Ruth S. Milligan, Miss Bessie Hopkins, Miss May Belcher and Miss Gertrude Gamblin.

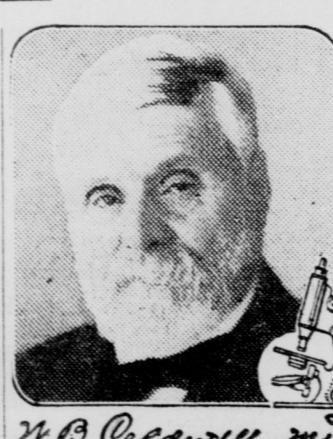

Indianapolis delegates who will take active part in the conference program will be Miss Elsa Jacobsen, recording secretary, Mrs. Donald D. Hoover and Miss Jenna Birks, ushers.

Announce February Wedding
Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Frances Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Webb, 5611 Guilford avenue, to W. Edgar Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stevenson, 523 East North street, which took place in Martinsville, Feb. 27. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson are at home in Indianapolis.

Miss Coffin to Entertain
Oscar Mills Watkins auxiliary, American Legion, will hold its monthly meeting at the home of Miss Dean Coffin, 3305 North Meridian street, at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Roy D. Young will be a guest speaker. Mrs. Young was a teacher in China for five years and will talk on subjects of interest concerning China.

So-Fra to Meet
Members of Gamma chapter, So-Fra Club, Inc., will meet at the home of Miss Lucile Field, 25 East Palmer street, at 8:30 tonight.

Dr. Caldwell's 3 Rules Keep You Healthy

Dr. Caldwell watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time regardless of how much one tries to avoid it. Of next importance, then, is how to treat when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the most delicate system and is not a habit forming preparation. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it. It does not gripe. Thousands of mothers have written us to that effect.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for human beings to put into their systems. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when a medicine like Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly, more cleanly and gently, without gripe and harm to the system.

Keep free from constipation! It robs your strength, hardens your arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by.

Annual Guest Meeting Held by City University Women

Annual guest meeting of the American Association of University Women was held Tuesday at the home of Miss Katherine Kautz, 4050 North Pennsylvania street.

During the business meeting officers were elected for the coming year as follows: First vice-president of the club, Miss Dale Waterbury; second vice-president, Mrs. W. M. Loudon; treasurer, Mrs. Walter P. Morton; directors, one-year term, Mrs. John R. Carr and Mrs. T. Victor Keene.

Following the election, MacCready Huston, South Bend, Indiana author and humorist, read his story, "Mrs. Arnold's Smile" and spoke informally about its genesis and execution.

The tea table was decorated beautifully with spring flowers and lighted with tall tapers.

Junior section held an organization meeting at the Hoosier Athletic Club at 6 o'clock Tuesday night, with Miss Marie Sangermeier, chairman, in charge.

BY MRS. WALTER FERGUSON

Dr. Brooks, president of the University of Missouri, will speak on a certain class of wiseacres because he forbade further distribution of a sex questionnaire on the campus. But he may comfort himself with the thought that the common folk, those who pay the taxes, are with him.

For several years we have been harassed with such incidents. Millions of these fool things have been distributed, and to what good purpose? Oh, says the sociologist, the answers throw a regular spotlight upon the inner man. Nonsense! Nobody lays bare his soul in a questionnaire and nobody ever will.

The professor responsible doubtless was honest in his endeavors to find out some great truths. But his kind are likely to run amuck now and then in spite of their higher intelligence. Their energy gets the best of their common sense.

Sex, as everybody admits, is the greatest force in life. The students have been apprised of that fact for some time now. If it has not yet gotten over with them, then they are far more stupid than we give them credit for being, and stone blind to boot.

For the power of sex, the allurement of sex, the importance of sex, continually broadcast. The fellow who secretly thought it a secondary matter would not dare pipe up amid all the hullabaloo. The psychologists have us intimidated.

And agreeing that sex is the world's grandest and most thrilling fact, still it's nothing new. We'll admit it and just let things go at that. One needs no questionnaires to bring it to our attention.

And imagine, if you can, the illuminating answers that the Missouri youth must have given to these stupendous queries: "Do you intend to marry? At what age? If you marry, do you hope to have children? How many? Are you in favor of family limitation by means of birth control?"

But the prize question is this one addressed to the co-eds: "Would you quit associating with a man, married or unmarried, on learning that at some time he had engaged in moral irregularities?"

Doesn't the sociology professor know that the Don Juans of the world never have had any trouble accumulating sweethearts?

Cosmopolitan Club to Hold International Night Program

Annual International Night program of the Indianapolis Intercollegiate Cosmopolitan Club will be given Thursday at the Y. W. C. A., as follows:

"Nocturne" — The Axline Trio, "The Axline Trio," "Rumanian Children, Rumanian Love, Serenade," "Croatian Love, Serenade," Vocal Solo — "Old Plantation" (sung by Frances Lee Wong); "Piano Hull Medley," "Alona Ode," "Hawaiian Moonlight," "The Crown of Italy," Butler University Chorus Italiano, Soprano Saxophone, "Hawaiian Tunes," "In an Alpine Hut," "Axline Trio," Accordion Sons, "Russian Melodies," Selected Mexican Songs, "Robert Vlampo and Alberto Andador, Play the Marriage Game," Butler University Chorus Players, Schubert Serenade, "Franz Schubert," "The Axline Trio."

Tickets will be on sale Tuesday night at the Y. W. C. A. and at Butler University in the Y. W. C. A. room every day this week; also at Hollenbeck hall in the Central Y. W. C. A. Thursday night.

Benefit Party Slated

Center council No. 1336, Security Benefit Association, will give a benefit euchre and bunco party at 8:30 tonight, at 118½ East Maryland street, fourth floor.

Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Adams, 1058 North Holmes avenue, were guests of honor at a surprise dinner party Sunday, given by a number of friends and relatives in honor of their nineteenth wedding anniversary.

Hold Initiation Service

Miss Ruth Waechter, Miss Helen Geiger, Miss Margaret Branson, Miss Ruth Lewis and Miss Ruth Waldebeis were initiated into Theta Rho Sigma sorority at a meeting Monday night at the home of Miss Ruth Voorhis, 5019 Park avenue.

Sorority Has Luncheon

Members of Alpha chapter, Alpha Omicron Alpha sorority, were guests at a 1 o'clock luncheon given today by Mrs. Ray Wyatt at her home, 523 Grant street.

Holds Spring Party

Miss Mildred Kennedy, 4456 Central avenue, entertained Monday night with a spring party for members and guests of Delta chapter, Psi Iota Xi sorority, at her home.

Announce Wedding Date

Miss Opal Rogers, Anderson, will become the bride of Carl Hoover, Kokomo, at the home of his parents, Anderson, Sunday. The couple will make their home in Kokomo.

Legion Auxiliary to Meet

Robert E. Kennington auxiliary of the American Legion will hold a business and social meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. John J. Roxford, 2226 North Meridian street. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:30.

Entertains Mothers' Club

Mrs. E. M. Haggard, 2916 Washington boulevard, entertained with a 12:30 luncheon today at her home, for members of Delta chapter, Psi Iota Xi sorority.

without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to a drugstore and get one of the generous bottles of Syrup Pepsin. Take the proper dose that night and by morning you will feel like a different person.

Get a bottle today at any drugstore and observe these three rules of health. Keep the head cool, the feet warm, the bowels open.—Ad.

Entertains Mothers' Club

Mrs. E. M. Haggard, 2916 Washington boulevard, entertained with a 12:30 luncheon today at her home, for members of Delta chapter, Psi Iota Xi sorority.

Keep free from constipation! It robs your strength, hardens your arteries and brings on premature old age. Do not let a day go by.

THE INDIANAPOLIS TIMES

The Way of a 'Climber' Is Thorny

BY MARTHA LEE

If there is anything more distressing, more grouch-providing, more conducive to the growth of the inferiority complex than being in a group which feels and acts superior, I do not know what it is.

It is hard enough for an older person to talk herself out of feeling "down" after spending an evening with such a crowd. A mature mind has acquired a certain balance, a sense of surety in itself, a habit of comparing philosophy that pulls it out of a great many ruts.

But it is almost too much to ask of a younger person. To be thrown constantly with other children who ridicule and sneer and laugh and whisper is too much. It is unfair to the child and may have serious effects in his character and self opinion later on.

Children Are Ruthless.

There is not so much class distinction among older folk as there is among children. Children can be so ruthless, so needlessly cruel, to other children. Of course they borrow their standards of values from their parents.

But as a general rule even the parents do not make their value of money and social position iron bound. But when they set out to pass their ideas on to their children, they may be sure those ideas will be accepted "as is," with little elasticity.

I have a letter from a young girl who has suffered the humiliating experience of being out of her class, on another level, not among her own people or however you want to put it.

She has been made to feel as welcome as a pheasant at a garden party. She has been made to feel as tolerated as a poor relative. No parent has a right to make his child go through such an experience.

Dear Miss Lee — I am 17 years old. I have no sisters or brothers, and I can not go to my mother, because she is the one who has been indirectly responsible for my trouble, if I may call it that.

We have been people of moderate means until within the last few years, when my father acquired quite a bit of money. I have been well raised and educated and my parents are lovely people, but the money rather has gone to mother's head.

Mother is Climber.

She immediately wanted me to "get in" with boys and girls whose parents had the same amount of wealth we now do. My mother did not realize, as I did, that they are not my kind of people. I liked the friends I already had. But mother insisted that I go to those others, entitling me to go with those other people.

She gave me parties and invited this other group of boys and girls. And they came, but just laughed up their sleeves at our attempt to "crash" their set. I was invited in return to their parties, but I am not one of them and have suffered humiliation and misery at those affairs, by being a wallflower and spending a great share of my time trying to make myself agree with them. There, with these other girls, who seemed so gay and joyous, but so distant, so hard to know, so almost unkempt to a stranger.

Now I have refused to go any more and mother is furious. She insists that it is my duty to go. I think it is foolishness and will not expose myself to be so completely hurt again. What do you think?

CINDERELLA.

I think you are supersensitive, for one thing, Cinderella. But since you are, and have no ambitions along the lines of climbing, I think your mother is very foolish to force you to climb.

Going Through Initiation.

You are going through a sort of initiation, right now. You must be passed upon, the same as when you join an organization. You are passing through a period of probation, a sort of internship.

If it doesn't seem worth it to you, why not tell your mother about it? It seems to me to be much better for you to sit back and wait to be taken up than to try to push your way in more effective, more lasting, and less humiliating.

CLUB MEETINGS WEDNESDAY

New Century Club members will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Curtis Hodges, 1512 North Meridian street. Mrs. Melville Moon, Mrs. P. T. Herrick and Mrs. E. H. Souff will talk.

Reciprocity meeting of the Zeta chapter will be at the home of Mrs. C. H. Cook, 411 East Fifty-first street. The program will be presented by members of the Amica Club.

Members of the Wednesday Afternoon Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Eric Sudoff, 2944 Park avenue.

Mrs. O. P. Renchen, 3930 Winthrop avenue, will be hostess for the meeting of the Readers' Club. Mrs. E. B. Figman will be assisting hostess.

Members of Mu Phi Epsilon, national honorary musical sorority, will meet at 7:30 at the north school of the Metropolitan School of Music.

The Alumnae Club of Mu Phi Epsilon will meet at 12:30 luncheon at the home of Mrs. Munday Dardet, 3338 Kenwood avenue. Miss Ruby Keiffer has arranged the program.

Mrs. H. J. McDarthy, 764 East Forty-second street, will entertain members of Beta Alpha chapter, Alpha Omicron Alpha sorority, at the meeting at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Dorothy Eakin, 523 Grant street.

Regular business meeting of Cinderella Club will be held at the Hotel Sevierin.

Miss Irene Stuart, 2325 Ashland avenue, will entertain members of the Owl Club.

Pledges will entertain members of Beta chapter, Delta Tau Omega sorority, at the meeting at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Dorothy Eakin, 1204 North Gale street.

Lessons will be given by members of Phi Omega Epsilon sorority. Dinner will be served at 6:30. Cover will be laid for sixteen.

Kappa Kappa Sigma sorority will meet at the home of Mrs. Clarissa Robertson, 5050 East New York street.

Mrs. Bud Kimmel, 3778 Salem street, apartment, will be hostess for the meeting of Alpha chapter, Chi Delta Chi sorority.

Members of Phi Gamma Tau sorority will meet at the home of Miss Peggy Gezemanden.

Patterns PATTERN ORDER BLANK

Pattern Department, Indianapolis Times, Indianapolis, Ind.

Enclosed find 15 cents, for which send Pattern No. 2754

Size

Street

City