

I. U. MILITARY HONORS GIVEN AFTER REVIEW

Indianapolis Student Wins Cup as Best Cadet Officer.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., May 11.—Awards in recognition of student proficiency in the reserve officers' training corps at Indiana university were presented by Colonel O. F. Robinson, commandant, following the annual spring regimental review.

O. K. McKittick, Indianapolis, cadet colonel of the University R. O. T. C., was awarded the silver cup for the best cadet officer.

Leonard J. Hotopp, Shelbyville, cadet major of the first battalion, was designated as honor graduate of the military department for the year.

Commission Announced

The following cadet officers received commission in the R. O. T. C. regiment at the hands of John W. Cravens, representing President William Lowe Bryan of the university and Colonel Robinson:

Colonel, O. F. McKittick, Indianapolis; lieutenant colonel, G. M. Hutto, Kokomo; captain and supply officer, T. J. Dyer, Indianapolis; captain and training officer, H. H. Crabb, Bloomington; assistant supply officer and captain, C. B. Kleindorfer, Bloomington.

First Battalion—Major, L. J. Hotopp, Indianapolis; captain and adjutant, H. N. Young, Indianapolis.

Second Battalion—Major, A. B. Barks, Bloomington; captain and adjutant, O. D. Hume, Evans.

Third Battalion—Major, W. O'Rourke, Kokomo; captain and adjutant, H. Betman, Macon.

Company A—Captains, L. G. Milten, Gary, and C. L. Starr, Boston; second lieutenant, J. P. Cook, Indianapolis; cadets, N. O. Sprunger, Ft. Wayne, and C. S. Bart, Louisville.

Company B—Captains, O. F. Hiler, Mankato; first lieutenant, J. W. Unger, West Point, Miss.; second lieutenant, A. J. Saylor, Chicago, and G. G. Kins, Indianapolis; cadets, A. E. Carrer, Indianapolis.

Company C—Captains, H. B. Miller, Muncie; first lieutenant, C. O. Robb, Ossian; second lieutenant, P. S. Talbot, Bloomington; cadets, M. D. Davis, Indianapolis, and F. M. Gault, Bloomington.

Company D—Captains, W. L. Lucas, Winchester; first lieutenant, F. E. Dolan, Coalmont; second lieutenant, L. F. Gault, Bloomington; cadets, E. P. Baker, Columbus City, and C. H. Hoague, Bloomington.

Company E—Captains, R. D. Stump, Bloomington; first lieutenant, M. G. Galt, Grandview; second lieutenant, M. M. Noll, Brookston; cadets, F. Alberson, Valtonia.

Company F—Captains, O. A. Landreth, Gas City; first lieutenant, A. Phillips, Columbus; second lieutenant, J. L. Elbright, Kokomo; cadets, J. F. Viadot, Indianapolis, and T. O. Singer, Hammond.

Company G—Captains, L. H. Spool, Lafayette; first lieutenant, W. N. Landrum, Columbus; second lieutenant, L. E. Lyons, Brookville, and F. W. Alexander, Columbia City; cadets, F. J. Schneider, Anderson, and W. H. Barr, Jansville.

Company H—Captains, E. J. Finn, Bloomington; first lieutenant, R. Huncilman, Bloomington; second lieutenant, J. A. Smith, Vincennes; cadets, J. A. Cressy, Auburn; R. H. Knapp, Indianapolis; Lee Kramer, Madoe, and A. B. Streicher, Louisville, Ky.

Company I—Captains, L. D. Johnson, Springfield; first lieutenant, J. E. Flora, Catter; second lieutenant, F. T. Hill, Indianapolis; cadets, H. F. S. Landrum, Ellettsburg, Indiana; D. L. Cox, Portland, and A. R. Vancie, Tammis.

Band—Captains, P. R. Weaver, Bloomington, and F. W. Elly, Portland.

Watches were presented to C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago, Company G, as the best drilled non-commissioned officer; H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington, Company A, as the best drilled sophomore who is not a non-commissioned officer, and F. A. Nash, Garrett, Company B as the best drilled freshman.

To the following twenty-four men, each of whom was selected by the cadet officers as the best drilled man of his class in their respective companies a copy of the order designating them as such was presented:

Non-commissioned officers—Company A, J. T. Holsen, Elkhart; Company B, C. E. R. Sherrill, Shelbyville; Company C, E. E. Eaves, Oriele; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Sophomores—Company A, H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington; Company B, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company C, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Freshmen—Company A, H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington; Company B, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company C, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Women Awarded Honors

Sweaters bearing the crossed rifles super-imposed upon the Indiana block "I" were presented to the following members of the girls first rifle team:

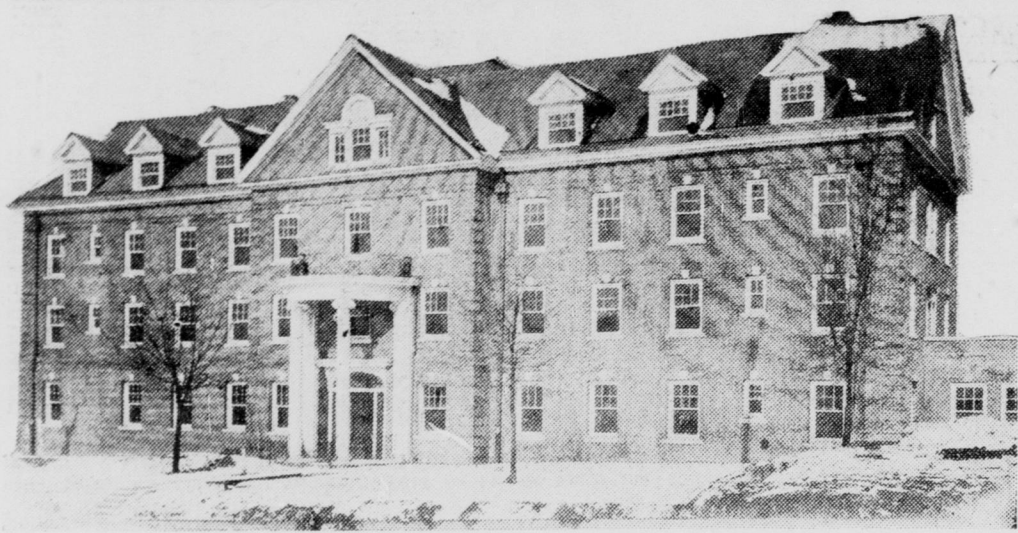

Mrs. Harold H. Crabb, Bloomington; Mrs. Heshel Baker, Oriele; H. Elly, Kurestiner, Bloomington; Gale Robinson, Bloomington; Virginia Crabb, Monroe; Charlotte Hodel, Ft. Wayne; Mary Landis, Napanere; Alice Fix, Bloomington; Elizabeth Buzzard, Logansport; Virginia Freed, Wakarusa; Ethel Wise, Bristol; Leslie Mansfield, Indiana Harbor.

Medals were presented to the following members of the second team: Margaret Markle, Elkhart; Dorothy Eberick, Ft. Wayne; May Shanks, Salem; Thelma Avery, South Bend; Evelyn Mayfield, Bristol; Charlotte Van Tichine, Ft. Wayne; Ethel Tyler, Indianapolis; Helen Bader, Tell City; Frances Miller, Summerville, and Andrew Trucked, Seymour.

Sweaters with the letter "I" and super-imposed crossed rifles were awarded to the R. O. T. C. rifle team. The team fired forty matches against various colleges of the country and during one week defeated Virginia Military Institute by a score of 3,671 to 2,645 out of a possible 4,000 points. The team won fifth place in the Fifth Corps Area R. O. T. C. matches in competition with twenty-two other schools.

James Lesh, Indianapolis, was awarded the gold stripe of team

Hospital to Be Dedicated Sunday

ARREST ENDS SPEEDY CHASE

Autos Make 68 Miles an Hour Near Columbus.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., May 11.—After a sixty-eight-mile-an-hour chase which led through Washington street here and to the North Washington street road, north of here, Joss Acton, married, was arrested by Sheriff Wynn Thompson and placed in the county jail here on charge of contributory to the delinquency of a 17-year-old girl.

Earlier in the evening Acton had been arrested a dance at Elizabeth town, south of here, but escaped and returned to the girl's home here. Later when he saw the officers approaching he dashed away in a six-cylinder car and was able to distance in the lead of the officers. The officers gave chase and Acton was caught about four miles north of here. When the sheriff and his deputy drew up alongside of the Acton car the speedometer in the officers car showed a speed of sixty-eight miles an hour.

Acton was one of five persons arrested at the dance, the others being the girl whom he took there, Loward Jewell, William Chandler and Miss Anna Sanlin, all of this city. The latter three were charged with liquor law violation.

Company E—Captains, L. D. Johnson, Springfield; first lieutenant, J. E. Flora, Catter; second lieutenant, F. T. Hill, Indianapolis; cadets, H. F. S. Landrum, Ellettsburg, Indiana; D. L. Cox, Portland, and A. R. Vancie, Tammis.

Band—Captains, P. R. Weaver, Bloomington, and F. W. Elly, Portland.

Watches were presented to C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago, Company G, as the best drilled non-commissioned officer; H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington, Company A, as the best drilled sophomore who is not a non-commissioned officer, and F. A. Nash, Garrett, Company B as the best drilled freshman.

To the following twenty-four men, each of whom was selected by the cadet officers as the best drilled man of his class in their respective companies a copy of the order designating them as such was presented:

Non-commissioned officers—Company A, J. T. Holsen, Elkhart; Company B, C. E. R. Sherrill, Shelbyville; Company C, E. E. Eaves, Oriele; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Sophomores—Company A, H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington; Company B, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company C, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Freshmen—Company A, H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington; Company B, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company C, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Women Awarded Honors

Sweaters bearing the crossed rifles super-imposed upon the Indiana block "I" were presented to the following members of the girls first rifle team:

Mrs. Harold H. Crabb, Bloomington; Mrs. Heshel Baker, Oriele; H. Elly, Kurestiner, Bloomington; Gale Robinson, Bloomington; Virginia Crabb, Monroe; Charlotte Hodel, Ft. Wayne; Mary Landis, Napanere; Alice Fix, Bloomington; Elizabeth Buzzard, Logansport; Virginia Freed, Wakarusa; Ethel Wise, Bristol; Leslie Mansfield, Indiana Harbor.

Medals were presented to the following members of the second team: Margaret Markle, Elkhart; Dorothy Eberick, Ft. Wayne; May Shanks, Salem; Thelma Avery, South Bend; Evelyn Mayfield, Bristol; Charlotte Van Tichine, Ft. Wayne; Ethel Tyler, Indianapolis; Helen Bader, Tell City; Frances Miller, Summerville, and Andrew Trucked, Seymour.

Sweaters with the letter "I" and super-imposed crossed rifles were awarded to the R. O. T. C. rifle team. The team fired forty matches against various colleges of the country and during one week defeated Virginia Military Institute by a score of 3,671 to 2,645 out of a possible 4,000 points. The team won fifth place in the Fifth Corps Area R. O. T. C. matches in competition with twenty-two other schools.

James Lesh, Indianapolis, was awarded the gold stripe of team

Company E—Captains, L. D. Johnson, Springfield; first lieutenant, J. E. Flora, Catter; second lieutenant, F. T. Hill, Indianapolis; cadets, H. F. S. Landrum, Ellettsburg, Indiana; D. L. Cox, Portland, and A. R. Vancie, Tammis.

Band—Captains, P. R. Weaver, Bloomington, and F. W. Elly, Portland.

Watches were presented to C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago, Company G, as the best drilled non-commissioned officer; H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington, Company A, as the best drilled sophomore who is not a non-commissioned officer, and F. A. Nash, Garrett, Company B as the best drilled freshman.

To the following twenty-four men, each of whom was selected by the cadet officers as the best drilled man of his class in their respective companies a copy of the order designating them as such was presented:

Non-commissioned officers—Company A, J. T. Holsen, Elkhart; Company B, C. E. R. Sherrill, Shelbyville; Company C, E. E. Eaves, Oriele; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Sophomores—Company A, H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington; Company B, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company C, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Freshmen—Company A, H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington; Company B, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company C, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Women Awarded Honors

Sweaters bearing the crossed rifles super-imposed upon the Indiana block "I" were presented to the following members of the girls first rifle team:

Mrs. Harold H. Crabb, Bloomington; Mrs. Heshel Baker, Oriele; H. Elly, Kurestiner, Bloomington; Gale Robinson, Bloomington; Virginia Crabb, Monroe; Charlotte Hodel, Ft. Wayne; Mary Landis, Napanere; Alice Fix, Bloomington; Elizabeth Buzzard, Logansport; Virginia Freed, Wakarusa; Ethel Wise, Bristol; Leslie Mansfield, Indiana Harbor.

Medals were presented to the following members of the second team: Margaret Markle, Elkhart; Dorothy Eberick, Ft. Wayne; May Shanks, Salem; Thelma Avery, South Bend; Evelyn Mayfield, Bristol; Charlotte Van Tichine, Ft. Wayne; Ethel Tyler, Indianapolis; Helen Bader, Tell City; Frances Miller, Summerville, and Andrew Trucked, Seymour.

Sweaters with the letter "I" and super-imposed crossed rifles were awarded to the R. O. T. C. rifle team. The team fired forty matches against various colleges of the country and during one week defeated Virginia Military Institute by a score of 3,671 to 2,645 out of a possible 4,000 points. The team won fifth place in the Fifth Corps Area R. O. T. C. matches in competition with twenty-two other schools.

James Lesh, Indianapolis, was awarded the gold stripe of team

Company E—Captains, L. D. Johnson, Springfield; first lieutenant, J. E. Flora, Catter; second lieutenant, F. T. Hill, Indianapolis; cadets, H. F. S. Landrum, Ellettsburg, Indiana; D. L. Cox, Portland, and A. R. Vancie, Tammis.

Band—Captains, P. R. Weaver, Bloomington, and F. W. Elly, Portland.

Watches were presented to C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago, Company G, as the best drilled non-commissioned officer; H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington, Company A, as the best drilled sophomore who is not a non-commissioned officer, and F. A. Nash, Garrett, Company B as the best drilled freshman.

To the following twenty-four men, each of whom was selected by the cadet officers as the best drilled man of his class in their respective companies a copy of the order designating them as such was presented:

Non-commissioned officers—Company A, J. T. Holsen, Elkhart; Company B, C. E. R. Sherrill, Shelbyville; Company C, E. E. Eaves, Oriele; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Sophomores—Company A, H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington; Company B, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company C, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Freshmen—Company A, H. G. Reidsperger, Huntington; Company B, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company C, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company D, E. C. Cummings, Bloomington; Company E, W. T. Hornaday, Richmond; Company F, W. A. Deans, Danville, Ill.; Company G, C. L. Biedinger, East Chicago; Company H, C. Schwabert, Dillabore; Company I, R. K. Headley, Bloomington.

Women Awarded Honors

Sweaters bearing the crossed rifles super-imposed upon the Indiana block "I" were presented to the following members of the girls first rifle team:

Mrs. Harold H. Crabb, Bloomington; Mrs. Heshel Baker, Oriele; H. Elly, Kurestiner, Bloomington; Gale Robinson, Bloomington; Virginia Crabb, Monroe; Charlotte Hodel, Ft. Wayne; Mary Landis, Napanere; Alice Fix, Bloomington; Elizabeth Buzzard, Logansport; Virginia Freed, Wakarusa; Ethel Wise, Bristol; Leslie Mansfield, Indiana Harbor.

Medals were presented to the following members of the second team: Margaret Markle, Elkhart; Dorothy Eberick, Ft. Wayne; May Shanks, Salem; Thelma Avery, South Bend; Evelyn Mayfield, Bristol; Charlotte Van Tichine, Ft. Wayne; Ethel Tyler, Indianapolis; Helen Bader, Tell City; Frances Miller, Summerville, and Andrew Trucked, Seymour.

Sweaters with the letter "I" and super-imposed crossed rifles were awarded to the R. O. T. C. rifle team. The team fired forty matches against various colleges of the country and during one week defeated Virginia Military Institute by a score of 3,671 to 2,645 out of a possible 4,000 points. The team won fifth place in the Fifth Corps Area R. O. T. C. matches in competition with twenty-two other schools.

James Lesh, Indianapolis, was awarded the gold stripe of team

FOUR IN ONE CASKET

Funeral Held for Victims of Home Fire.

SILVER LAKE, Ind., May 11.—All that remains of the bodies of Lloyd Flitcraft and his three children, victims of a fire at their home near Rosam Wednesday, rest in one casket today in the cemetery of the South Pleasant church, near here.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

The bodies were so badly burned that none of the victims were recognizable. The wife and mother, suffering from severe burns and shock, was unable to attend the funeral services.

ACTION NEAR ON $55,000 ISSUE

Bloomington Park Decision Thursday.

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., May 11.—A $55,000 bond issue proposed for purchase of additional city park grounds was quickly squashed at the postponed meeting, will be considered at a special meeting of the city council Thursday night. Members of the council will meet with the park board members and settle the issue.

The council has awarded contracts for improvement of two streets. The contract for improvement of East Third street was awarded to Buskirk & Dodd lowest of four bidders, at $26,775.

Awarding of a contract for improvement of West Third street was made to Kerr & Murphy on a bid of $23,597.

Two plans of lots approved by the city plan commission have been accepted by the council. One is Mylie plat with seventeen lots. And the other the Duncan subdivision including thirty lots.

The council has awarded contracts for improvement of two streets. The contract for improvement of East Third street was awarded to Buskirk & Dodd lowest of four bidders, at $26,775.

Awarding of a contract for improvement of West Third street was made to Kerr & Murphy on a bid of $23,597.

Two plans of lots approved by the city plan commission have been accepted by the council. One is Mylie plat with seventeen lots. And the other the Duncan subdivision including thirty lots.

The council has awarded contracts for improvement of two streets. The contract for improvement of East Third street was awarded to Buskirk & Dodd lowest of four bidders, at $26,775.

Awarding of a contract for improvement of West Third street was made to Kerr & Murphy on a bid of $23,597.

Two plans of lots approved by the city plan commission have been accepted by the council. One is Mylie plat with seventeen lots. And the other the Duncan subdivision including thirty lots.

The council has awarded contracts for improvement of two streets. The contract for improvement of East Third street was awarded to Buskirk & Dodd lowest of four bidders, at $26,775.

Awarding of a contract for improvement of West Third street was made to Kerr & Murphy on a bid of $23,597.

Two plans of lots approved by the city plan commission have been accepted by the council. One is Mylie plat with seventeen lots. And the other the Duncan subdivision including thirty lots.

The council has awarded contracts for improvement of two streets. The contract for improvement of East Third street was awarded to Buskirk & Dodd lowest of four bidders, at $26,775.

Awarding of a contract for improvement of West Third street was made to Kerr & Murphy on a bid of $23,597.

Two plans of lots approved by the city plan commission have been accepted by the council. One is Mylie plat with seventeen lots. And the other the Duncan subdivision including thirty lots.

The council has awarded contracts for improvement of two streets. The contract for improvement of East Third street was awarded to Buskirk & Dodd lowest of four bidders, at $26,775.

Awarding of a contract for improvement of West Third street was made to Kerr & Murphy on a bid of $23,597.

Two plans of