

SENATOR ASKS PROBE IN GIANT FOOD COMBINE

Baking Powder Merger Is Declared Menace to Farmers.

BY GEORGE SANFORD HOLMES
Times Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, June 25.—Pending the return of congress, when he plans to bring the matter to the attention of the senate, Senator William H. King (Dem. Utah), has asked the attorney-general for an opinion on the legality of the proposed J. P. Morgan & Co. merger of food interests.

Published reports were to the effect that the combination of nationally known firms engaged in handling food products would include the Fleischman Company, the Royal Baking Powder Company and E. W. Gillett Company, Ltd., of Canada.

"This may be a combination in restraint of trade," said Senator King, "and I am asking Attorney-General Mitchell for a legal opinion on its validity. I have not forgotten that an attempt was made not so long ago to organize a bread trust. Here is a deal involving half a billion dollars and huge concerns engaged in handling food products."

"I am not at all sure that advantage can not be taken of the terms of the new farm relief bill, with its half billion fund for the stabilization of agriculture, particularly as that fund affects wheat. Mergers of this great size, dealing in food necessities, arouse natural suspicion, and it seems to me are inimical to free competition and the interests of the public."

"Congress now being in session, I am making formal request for the department of justice to investigate every phase of the proposed combine and render an official opinion on its validity, especially as related to the Sherman anti-trust act."

Not So Much Rheumatic Agony in U. S. A. Now

So Hook Drug Co. Claims

"If you keep on selling your wonderful medicine for rheumatic pains and swellings in our town, there won't be any sufferers left," said a druggist the other day.

That's the good news that came to the Allenru Laboratories the other day and there's a whole lot of truth in it.

Yet in spite of the fact that Allenru is a supremely good remedy for rheumatic fever and inflammation there are still millions of people, crippled and suffering untold agony who continue to fool around with makeshifts and relievers just because no one ever told them about swift acting Allenru.

So if you who happen to be reading this notice right now, will clip it out and send it to some rheumatic sufferer today you will be doing him a real favor.

Irvington's 'Sea Shore' Brings Joy

Irvington, farthest from water of any Indianapolis suburb, has been put "right on the seashore" by the park board with the opening this week of the new $40,000 Ellenberger park pool, pictured here. The photos show not only the architectural beauty of the pool but also the modern equipment.

MURDER CASE TO JURY

Charge Against Bloomington Man Being Weighed at Spencer.

By United Press
SPENCER, Ind., June 25.—After deliberating twelve hours a jury in the murder trial of Dewey Boshears, Bloomington, was locked up for the night and continued its work today.

Boshears is charged with killing Ralph Pogue, Bloomington special policeman, when the latter and other officers raided his home in a search for liquor.

The accused man was tried here once before, a jury failing to reach a verdict.

JAILBIRDS WITH MONEY THROG FRENCH PRISONS

Gendarmes Are Kept Busy Sending Millionaires to Cells.

BY RICHARD D. MILLAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

PARIS, June 25.—The United States may have its Sinclair case, but France has been busily occupied during the past few months in jailing many of her millionaires.

The affair started in the ranks of bankers. There was an epidemic of suspicious failures in business, and investigations led to many interesting disclosures regarding the transactions of many notable men in the world of finance, and likewise led to prison for the individuals concerned.

The latest recruit among the moneyed jailbirds is painted as a much more sinister figure than any of the others, however, since his financial transactions are alleged to have involved the violent deaths of at least two people.

The man, declared to be the most remarkable character to have appeared in a French criminal trial since the days of Landru, is 33-year-old Charles Barataud, being tried at the Assizes at Limoges, in southwestern France.

Every day when he is conveyed from jail to the courthouse he is surrounded by a squadron of cavalry to beat back the angry mob, clamoring for the head of the youthful millionaire.

Barataud is accused of having

HOW ANYONE CAN REMOVE A CORN IN 3 MINUTES

It's so easy now to remove old, sore corns and callouses. Anyone can do it in a few minutes—easily, painlessly and without the slightest fear of irritation. No 3-day treatments or foot-soaking.

Just get a bottle of the amazing new corn remedy called Shur-Off and wet your corn with it. Pain and soreness stop instantly. Keep it wet 2 minutes. Now you can start peeling it off—root and all—without the least trace of pain.

Complete, easy-to-follow directions in every package.

Why suffer with corns when Shur-Off costs only 50-cents at Hook's Drug Stores or at any other good drug store and satisfaction or money back is guaranteed? Why go another day without relief?—Advertisement.

BALLOON HERO CITED

Receives Flying Cross for Battling Flames.

By United Press

WASHINGTON, June 25.—An act of heroism performed more than a year ago today won for Lieutenant Uzal G. Ent of the army air corps the distinguished flying cross.

The act was performed during last year's national balloon race. The citation describes the flight in which Ent was an aid to Lieutenant Paul Everett.

Their balloon was struck by lightning during a severe electrical storm at an altitude of approximately 12,000 feet, instantly killing Everett.

Although the balloon was burning, Lieutenant Ent so maneuvered it as to land safely without injury to private property. Disregarding his own personal safety and with great devotion to duty, Lieutenant Ent stayed with the balloon at the risk of his life instead of landing with his parachute.

DRIVES AT AGE OF 90

Aged Man Motors from Illinois to Fremont, Neb.

By United Press

FREMONT, Neb., June 25.—At the age of 90, A. W. Sawyer of Sycamore, Ill., drove his automobile here to visit friends. He drove the entire distance, although accompanied by his 70-year-old nephew. They drove 400 miles the first day of the trip.

murdered the driver of a taxicab for the sake of his money and to have later shot dead a youthful friend who knew Barataud's secret.

It is alleged also that he planned the murder of two other persons who, however, suspected his intentions and were able to overcome him when they kept the rendezvous he had made with them in the woods near Limoges.

The weak point in the prosecution's case is to show cause why Barataud, the son of a millionaire and himself ranking as having a like amount of wealth, should kill a taxidriver, unless he had been overcome by mania.

All kinds of legends have been woven around Barataud by the local people. He was credited with the declaration that he would never be brought to trial.

Twice he was found in his cell with knife wounds; and nearly died both times.

Another time a warden found a $50 bill carefully rolled inside a packet of cigars which had been brought him.

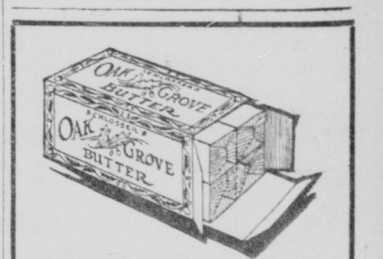

This case recalls that of another millionaire and aristocrat, the Comte de Rojac, who a few months ago received sentence of seven years imprisonment for the murder of his son born to the family servant girl.

There was an outcry then because it was claimed that the family's money had saved the noble youth's head from the guillotine.

Try Quaker CRACKELS

The first really all-new cereal food in years

Has 3 distinct advantages over present ready-to-serve cereals

1. Crisp—and stays crisp—in cream or on pantry shelf.
2. Combines the 3 great energy grains—Wheat, Corn and Oats.
3. Introduces an enticing new flavor unknown to cereals before.

Madam—you have been asked to try many so-called new cereals. Some with reasons—some without.

Now the Quaker Oats Company asks you to try the first all-new cereal in years. A cereal that has 3 distinct advantages over any prepared cereal known.

It is called QUAKER CRACKELS. Over 17 years' experience and one million dollars were spent to perfect it.

This is the first ready-to-serve cereal to our knowledge that retains its crispness indefinitely. This is due to a special oven process that took months to perfect. In cream—Crackels stay crisp to the last crunchy spoonful. In the package—they're always crisp and fresh without bother of oven-heating.

In Crackels—you get the nutritive elements of the 3 great energy grains—wheat, oats and corn. Never in any cereal—have all three been blended before.

Here are new food values in a prepared cereal—hitherto not to be found in any one breakfast food.

New Flavor—New Form
Taste Quaker Crackels! They're enticingly different—rich—mellow—full textured. They crunch like crisp toast—only they're sweeter. Examine them: Dainty golden brown pillows—the color of wind-blown wheat. Try Crackels, Madam. In nine out of ten homes—children demand them for steady breakfast diet. That's the test of a cereal's goodness. Your grocer has Crackels. Get a package today.
