

8 AMERICANS PRESENTED AT BRITISH COURT

Charles G. Dawes Appears in Evening Clothes With Long Trousers.

LONDON, June 27.—Queen Mary presided over a British royal court alone for the third time Wednesday night, acknowledging the curtsies of eight American women among the several hundred presented to her.

The Americans presented Wednesday night made a total of twenty-eight, who have been presented at the three royal courts this season.

Eight others, besides several ladies of the American diplomatic corps, will be presented tonight.

The Americans last night were: Miss Frances Barclay, Warrenton, Va.; Miss Rosemary Bauer, Chicago; Miss Dorothy Chase, Waterbury, Conn.; Miss Natalie Coe, New York City; Miss Pauline Fenno, Boston; Mrs. Edward P. Hutton, New York City; Miss Usaymar Johnson, New York City; and Miss Lillian Sanger, Sangerville, N. Y.

An unusual touch was given last night's court by Ambassador Charles G. Dawes' presence in evening clothes with long trousers.

So far as known the first American ambassador to appear at a royal court in any but the prescribed knee breeches, made of cloth similar to the evening coat.

The ambassador was granted special permission to wear the long trousers, an embassy official said.

King George still was not considered able to endure the ordeal of the court, and Queen Mary again acknowledged curtsies alone.

Tree Blamed for Perry Crash

James A. Perry

Trying to keep the nose of his monoplane in the air to land safely in an open field scarcely a hundred yards away, after his motor failed, James A. Perry stalled the ship one hundred feet above a wooded ravine a half-mile west of Ft. Benjamin Harrison and it smashed into the ground and nosed over, killing its pilot, late Wednesday.

Photographs above show the plane after its shattered fuselage was turned over to permit rescuers to extricate Perry's body from the twisted steel that was the cockpit and motor.

ship tipped a tall tree less than fifty feet from the spot where it crashed, and spun to the ground.

Perry took off from Schoen field, Ft. Harrison, and flew toward Indianapolis. His course lay over a thick woods, and as he neared their end his motor sputtered and stopped. As the plane nosed down he shut off the gas, ostensibly to prevent a fire after the crash.

JACK DALTON AND BRIDE ARE ON HONEYMOON

Ex-Bandit Chief and His First Sweetheart Wed
in Airplane.

By United Press
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., June 27.—Somewhere in the arid deserts of New Mexico, Jack Dalton, one-time bad man and his sweetheart of frontier days, "Cattle Annie" Burke, were on their belated honeymoon today.

To show they had lost none of the dare-devilry of their youth, Jack and Annie were married in an airplane here Wednesday.

The romance of Jack Dalton, once a member of the famous Dalton gang of outlaws, and "Cattle Annie," who, as a girl, earned her nickname by being one of the few women cattle raisers in the southwest, dates back thirty-two years.

At the time Jack and his four nephews were fleeing from the vigilantes after a daring train hold-up.

Knowing capture meant death, they hid in the Oklahoma hills.

Weak After Operation

"About five months ago, following an operation for appendicitis I did not gain strength enough to be up and about. My mother and sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken five bottles and it has helped me to get strong so I can do my own housework now. I have recommended it to several friends who have been weak and run-down."—Mrs. Oscar Ottum, Box 474, Thief River Falls, Minn.

Soon starvation stared them in the face.

It was then that Cattle Annie, known along the frontier as Jack Dalton's girl, came to the rescue. Evading the posses encircling the outlaws' retreat, she crawled through the underbrush bringing food, water and information which enabled them to escape.

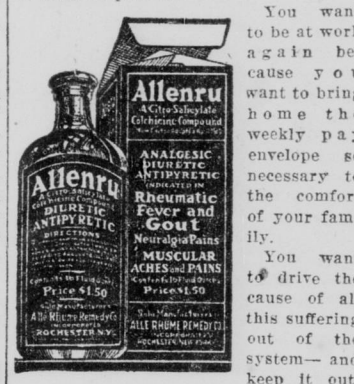

In the words of her sweetheart, "it was the bravest thing a woman ever did."

Had Eczema Very Badly on Face, Head, Limbs. Healed by Cuticura.

"When I was a baby I had eczema very badly. It broke out in sore eruptions on my face, head and limbs. Later it formed blisters that itched and burned, and was so severe that I could not sleep at night. The trouble lasted a long time.

They used several preparations but did not get any results. They then tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using three cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Mattie M. Sales, 3140 Giles Ave., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 18, 1928.
