

ANDERSON ASKS TO BE RETIRED AS U. S. JUDGE

Famous Indiana Jurist, 72.
Requests President to Name Successor.

Federal Judge Albert B. Anderson, the most famous and colorful jurist in the history of Indiana, plans to leave the bench this fall, according to a United Press dispatch from Washington today.

The judge has written a request to President Herbert Hoover that he be retired. The retirement will be effective when his successor as a judge of the circuit court of appeals at Chicago is appointed by the President.

Judge Anderson, who is 72, has served the retirement age a year ago and is eligible to retirement on his present salary, $12,000 a year, for the remainder of his life. The United States Senators James E. Watson and Arthur R. Robinson are expected to recommend an Indiana jurist to replace Anderson, since the post logically belongs to Indiana, the other two judges on the circuit bench being from Illinois and Wisconsin, the other two states in the circuit.

If precedent is followed the appointment may go to Judge Robert C. Baltzell, since he is the senior of the two district federal judges in Indiana. Judge Baltzell is taking no personal cognizance of the situation and so far his friends have not become active.

Judge Anderson was promoted to the circuit bench Jan. 3, 1925, after twenty-one years as a district judge in Indiana.

His passion for exact justice in criminal cases, regardless of a defendant's wealth or political power, and his brilliance in deciding difficult civil cases without reversal by higher courts, made him an outstanding figure early in his career in Indiana.

He followed his motto, "I will not make fish of one and fowl of another," with almost religious zeal. He had a habit of following a cold, sometimes harsh, judgment with an act of mercy which startled courtroom attendees.

Sleep for Beauty, Advises Anita Page

ANITA PAGE

This is one of a series of "closeups" of film stars in which Anita Page tells of the importance of sleep to skin beauty.

BY MABEL DUKE
For NEA Service and The Times

SLEEP is nature's restorer, and nowhere is it recognized as so important to health and beauty as in Hollywood. The movie colony is often called a 9 o'clock town.

Facials, diets and tissue cream will avail nothing if one hasn't a foundation of health and vitality to stand on," Anita Page explains. "Youth and beauty soon forsake those who burn the midnight oil. That is why we moving picture players have to follow an early retiring schedule. Therefore, if you are in earnest in your beauty campaign, do not neglect your beauty sleep!

"I allow myself one night a week for dancing or parties later than 11 p. m. While I'm working on a picture I always retire immediately after a light supper and sleep until 7 a. m. Between pictures, 11 o'clock is my bedtime.

"A warm bath, I find, is a great sleep inducer. Cold baths are not good because, although they tone up the body, they harden the skin and, to retain the silky smoothness of the skin, it is best not to take them."

"The 'cat and dog' method is much better than the alarm clock for waking. Miss Page advises. As you awake, yawn and stretch slowly and long until every muscle of the body is aroused.

Setting-up exercises she finds beneficial. "Touch the hands to the floor without bending the

25 WILL TAKE EDISON TESTS HERE ON FRIDAY

State Winner to Be Picked
After Personal Interview
Saturday.

The twenty-five winners of preliminary tests in the Thomas A. Edison scholarship contest will be given examinations for the final selection of Indiana's representative Friday and Saturday at the state department of public instruction in the statehouse.

Following the series of tests to be given Friday, about six of the preliminary winners will be selected to appear before the high school committee of the state board of education Saturday morning when the final selection will be made by personal interview.

The state high school committee is composed of President W. L. Bryan, Indiana university, chairman; H. B. Longden, De Pauw university; Miss Martha Whitacre, Richmond; George P. Reitzel, county superintendent of schools, Danville; and President L. A. Pittenger, Ball Teachers' college, Muncie.

The Indiana state winner, with other state candidates, will be given a trip at Edison's expense to the Edison laboratory at Orange, N. J., about Aug. 1.

There they will meet Edison and the final winner will be selected by such tests as he may devise. The final winner will receive from Edison a four years' scholarship in the technical school of the student's selection. Each of the state representatives will be awarded an Edison radio-phonograph combination.

Survivors of the district contests, who will be eligible for the final state examination, are: Marilyn Compton and Harold Sinton, La Porte; Albert Greiner, Melvin Hemmer and Richard Becker, Evansville; John Kirkpatrick, Greensburg; Richard Moss, Boston; William Winter, Elbert Marlowe and Gordon Ward, Indianapolis; John Cleveland, Anderson; Bernard Sturgis, Butler; Turrell Uleman, South Bend; William Price and Andrew Wylie, Bloomington; Loren Shrader, Kitchell; Francis Holloway, Greentfield; Cecil Willis, Sullivan; Fred Snyder, Connersville; Marion Huntington, Liberty; Byron Woertz, Georgetown; Donald Youse, Ft. Wayne; Ralph Townsley, Elmsion; Robert Malcolm, Shoals; Robert Reveal, Terre Haute; Bernard Ryneason, North Madison.

New Million Dollar Breakfast Food Discovery

Quaker Oats Company scientists create unique ready-to-eat breakfast food with new flavor, lasting crispness. Food value of three cereals in one.

NOW you can have for breakfast, all that's best in America's three supreme grain foods: wheat, oats and corn, in one delicious cereal, called Quaker Crackels.

Quaker Oats scientists spent some 17 years of research to discover them. Countless experiments were performed. New machinery was designed. Close on to one million dollars was spent.

Finally the new "blended" cereal was perfected, with finer flavor, crispier texture, than any single cereal has ever had.

Never before have these three grains been successfully blended. Never before the protein and carbohydrate of oatmeal, the splendid energy of wheat—the rich nourishment of corn in one cereal! Oven blending gives this new breakfast delight lasting crispness. No oven heating, no re-crisping before serving. Stays crisp to the last spoonful, in spite of milk and cream. If you're tired of the same old round of breakfast cereals, try Quaker Crackels tomorrow morning. Your grocer has them.

Drink Kink!

Drinking Fine Floods
'Downspout' on Head of Liquor Informer.

OSCAR Hurley, 35, of 3321 Sunset avenue, thought he knew where he bought seven drinks of liquor that made him drunk until Wednesday afternoon when he ran into a "downspout" alibi with the result that a $10 fine was poured on his head by Judge Clifton R. Cameron of the municipal court.

For Hurley entered Judge Cameron's court and boldly pointed out George Grach, 25 South West street, as the man who sold him seven drinks last Thursday and caused his arrest on a drunk charge.

"I did not. I was working for a contractor fixing a downspout," declared Grach to the charge of operating a blind tiger, "at the time he says he bought the drinks."

Grach's testimony was borne out by the contractor. "I think Hurley's telling the truth," interposed Charles Karabell, assistant prosecutor. "Why, Judge, he wouldn't inform on some one he hadn't purchased liquor from."

"I think he was dreaming. Do you want me to sentence a man on a drunk's dream?" queried Judge Cameron.

"You're discharged Grach—and you, Hurley—you ought to be filed on for perjury. Ten dollars and costs for you," ordered the judge.

And as they led him away Hurley mumbled something that sounded like, "It's my story and I'll stick to it."
