

WIFE, PARTED 3 DAYS, SLAIN BY IRATE MATE

'Reconciliation' Party Is Shooting Scene: Wounded Husband Held.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 28.—Arthur Weatherwax, 28, was charged today with the first degree murder of his wife, Alice, 26, at what was to have been a gay reconciliation party.

Police are searching for Harold Saunders, a silverware salesman of Buffalo, who is said by Weatherwax to have been the reason for a quarrel between him and his wife. The young couple had been separated only three days.

Friends arranged a party Thursday night at which they were to be reconciled. Eight persons gathered in the apartment of another married couple.

After some card playing, four of the eight went to the kitchen to prepare refreshments.

Before the other two had noticed anything wrong, Weatherwax drew a pistol, shot his wife dead, and wounded himself slightly.

PONDERS UNION BAN

Judge Hay Takes Injunction
Under Advisement.

Petition of Edwin D. Logsdon, receiver for the Knox Consolidated Coal Company, for a temporary injunction against the United Mine Workers of America was taken under advisement today by Superior Judge Linn D. Hay, who some time ago granted a restraining order against the union.

The injunction sought would prevent the mine workers from holding meetings or attempting to organize miners in the Bicknell (Ind.) region for the purpose of inducing non-union men not to work in the company's mines.

Attorneys for the receiver presented affidavits alleging that attempts were being made by the union to organize the miners and keep them from work.

Counsel for the mine workers and for Logsdon will file briefs.

QUITS 'LITTLE BROWN CHURCH'

Pastor Who Married 1,000
Resigns Famous Post.

NASHUA, Ia., June 28.—J. L. McCorsion Jr., 29-year-old pastor of the "Little Brown Church in the Vale," made famous in hymn and story, announced his resignation today effective Sept. 1, to accept a pastorate of the First Congregational church of Haverhill, Mass. He also will study at Harvard, where he has been awarded a scholarship.

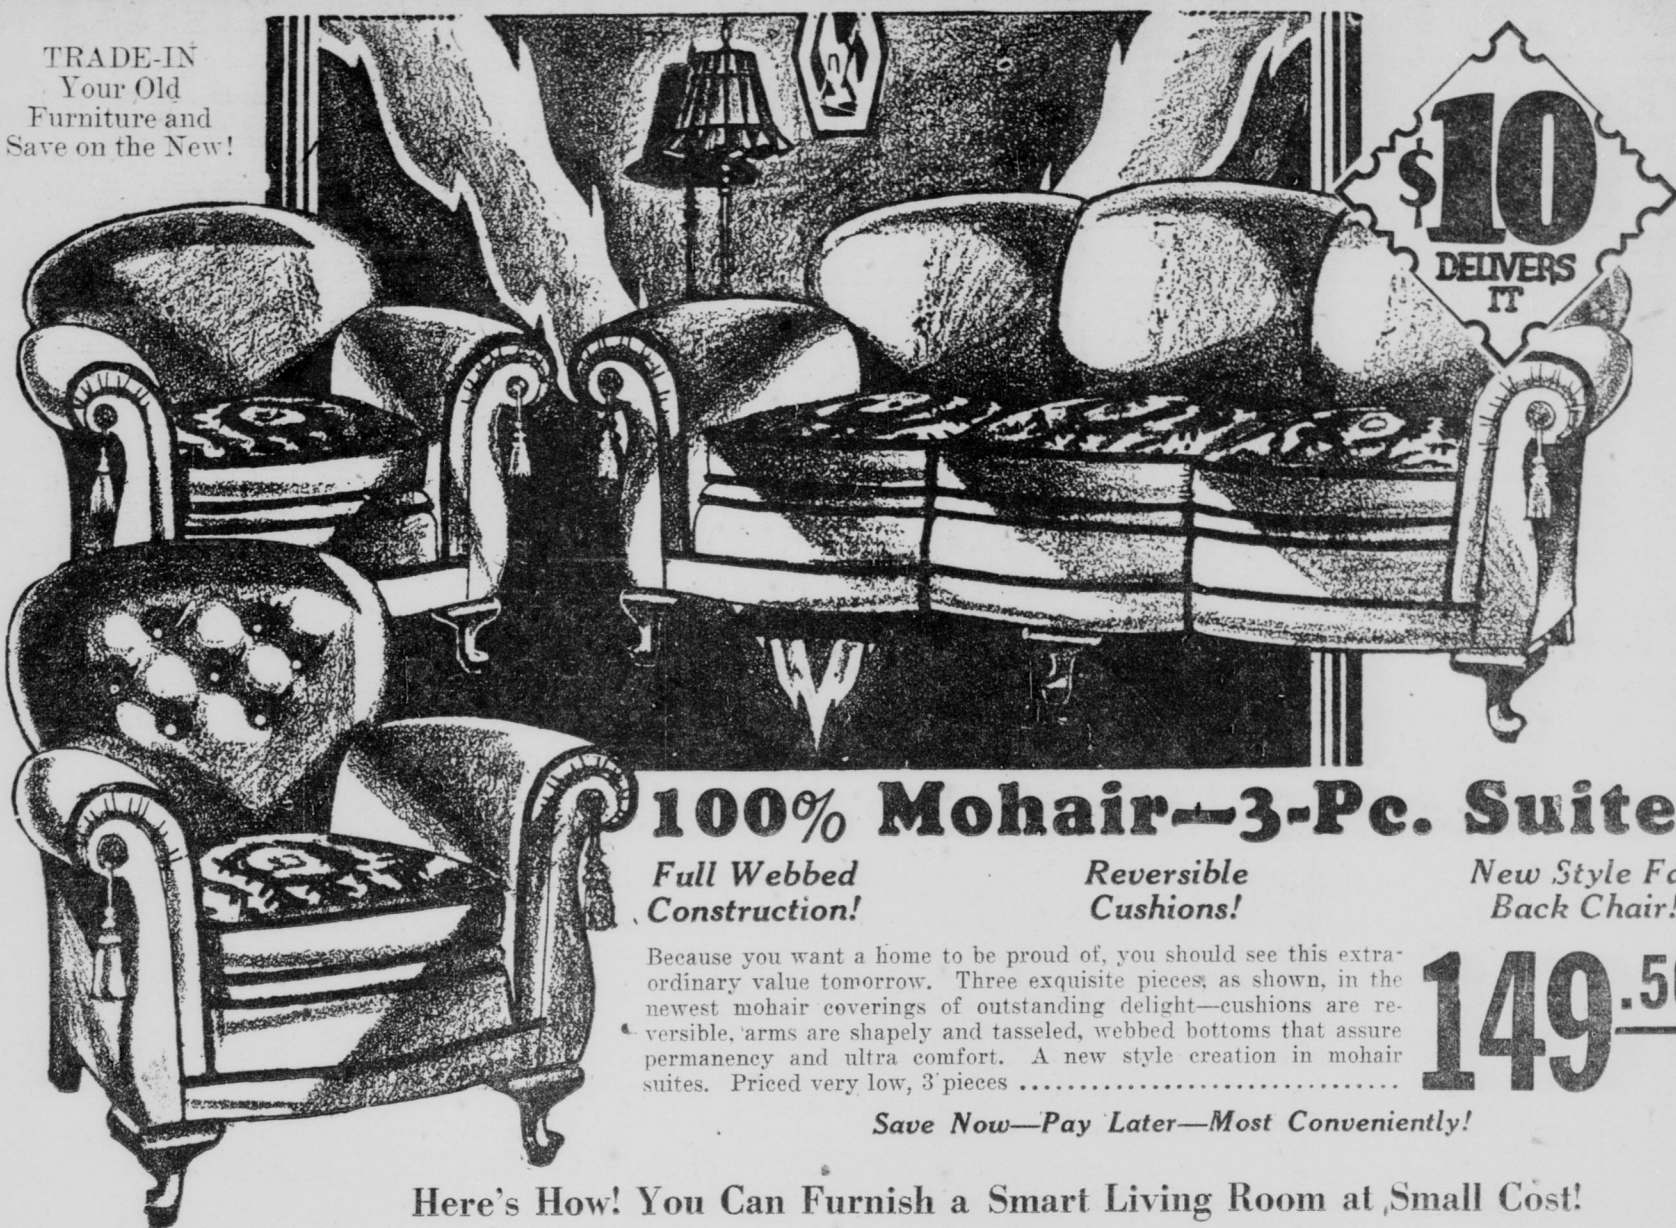

In the three years the Rev. Mr. McCorsion has been pastor of the "Little Brown Church" he has performed more than 1,000 wedding ceremonies.

Lovers from every state in the Union and seven foreign countries have journeyed to the little shrine during that time in order to be married in the internationally known frame structure, located in the valley just outside of this city.

In announcing his resignation the Rev. Mr. McCorsion said he never heard of a single couple he had joined while pastor of the church obtaining a divorce.
