

ELKS ORATORY CONTEST TO BE HELD TONIGHT

Winners From Six States Will Compete at Walker Casino.

George Smith, Crispus Attucks high school student, will represent Indianapolis in the Elks' regional oratorical contest here tonight.

The contest is to be held at the Walker casino. Contestants competing here already have been winners in their respective states.

"The Constitution" is to be the subject of debate. The winner of tonight's contest will receive a scholarship prize of $1,000 and is to compete in the finals at Atlantic City in August.

Besides Smith other contestants are Miss E. Wileman, Detroit (Mich.) representative; Herbert McConnell, Chicago, Illinois, with representatives of Kentucky, Ohio and Wisconsin yet to be announced.

A large number of visitors from over the region are expected to attend, according to Charles E. Hardwick, Evansville, regional director.

The exhibit of oil paintings by John Hardwick, which has been for two weeks in the Pettit store art gallery, is to be extended two weeks more, according to store officials.

Hardwick, who has been on a trip to Ioway, Michigan, with John A. Fatten will personally greet visitors from 10 to 12 each day.

Club Leaders Meet

Representatives of clubs in Indiana, Tuesday evening, will meet at the Walker Casino, Mrs. George Martin at her home in Boulevard Place to lend assistance to the Ladies' Auxiliaries of the Indianapolis Better Business League.

The league is sponsoring a whist tournament July 12 at the Walker casino, as an advance activity of the National Negro Business League meeting here Aug. 14-16.

The names of clubs and their representatives include: Mrs. Eddie Lee, Mrs. Alene Williams, Club Pilgrim Club, Mrs. Hazel Johnson, Ladies' Auxiliary of the Indianapolis Better Business League.

Commissioner Sunday

Sunday morning the Rev. C. H. Bell will preach at the Mt. Paran Baptist church. Communion will be given at 3 p.m. In the evening a program of music will be presented by the senior choir.

This show is replete with talent and specialties as will be noted in Brown and Brown, an enjoyable pair of Apache dancers; James and Johnson, dancers de luxe; Mrs. Bell, a girl of charming personality; Boyd and Boyd, acrobats and contortionists; and the famous team of Martin and Martin, singers and dancers.

On the screen four days beginning Sunday will be Douglas McLean in "The Carpetbag Kid."

The last half of the week Antonio Moreno will be seen in a thriller, "Midnight Taxi" in which the kisses of a beautiful woman provide a new taste to a bootleg king and force him to "go straight."

FARMER SLAIN BY DRY AGENTS IN GUN BATTLE

Another Wounded Critically; Officer Held After Deathbed Confession.

By United Press

SHAWNEE, Okla., July 5.—Jeff Harris, federal prohibition agent, was held in jail here today, pending completion of an investigation into the shooting Thursday in which James Harris was killed and Oscar Lowry wounded critically.

The two were shot during a gun battle with federal agents who went to Harris' farm near Tecumseh, bordering the Seminole oil field, to search for a still.

Jeff Harris was arrested after a deathbed statement from the farmer, who declared the agent fired after ordering him to throw down a gun.

James Harris said he complied with the order, although he believed the searchers were bandits, since they had shown him no search warrant or had not identified themselves.

Agent Blames Farmer

This statement was denied by Officer Harris, who said the farmer rushed at him, gun in hand. Mrs. Harris, who witnessed the shooting, said she was not sure who fired the first shot, because there was so much confusion attending the sudden appearance of the men with guns drawn.

The raid was led by W. W. Thomason, veteran prohibition agent, who has seen twenty years of service in the secret service and probation departments.

The arrest of the entire raiding party was first ordered by County Attorney Randall Pitman, but Harris was the only one arrested. Pitman explained further investigation was necessary before action, if any, would be taken against the other men. Other members of the raiding party were Tom Little and John D. Williams.

Prohibition Commissioner De Monbrun is in Shawnee investigating the case.

Raiders No Officers

It was reported from Oklahoma City federal headquarters here that Harris was not a federal officer.

De Monbrun, federal prohibition director for the western Oklahoma district, later said that neither Little nor Williams was a prohibition officer and that he had never heard of them before today.

It was learned the Little, Harris and Williams often had accompanied Thomason on raids.

Enforcement officers in Oklahoma are under strict orders against firing at any one unless it is a case of self-defense or unless it is necessary to save the life of a fellow officer," De Monbrun said.

It is likely that the court will decide the case in August or September, although on vacation now.

LEAVE TO ROUND UP BONO MINE RIOTERS

Two Deputy Attorney-Generals Sent to Vermillion County.

Merl N. Wall and George W. Huffman, deputy attorney-generals assigned to aid Prosecutor Homer Ingram in rounding up rioters in the Bono Coal Company mine war, left today for their work in Vermillion county.

Attorney-General James M. Ogan gave them instructions to "get to the bottom of this thing and see that an end is made to mob rule in this state."

The investigation was ordered by Governor Harry G. Leslie, following conferences with assaulted miners the prosecutor and Sheriff Harry Newland of Vermillion county earlier in the week.
