

STATE WARNED OF COUNTERFEIT MONEY FLOOD

Currency 'Artists' Unload
Before New Small Bills
Are Released.

Watch your money closely from now on, for counterfeiters, anxious over placing of the new smaller currency in circulation July 10, are already throwing their entire supply into circulation.

This warning was issued today by local secret service agents.

Ordinarily, said one agent, the counterfeiters permit only a few counterfeit or raised bills to get into circulation at a time in order not to arouse suspicion.

Now, however, with days of the old-style currency limited, he is anxious to unload.

Among its other advantages, the

LONDON SOCIETY RENTS DOGS TO MATCH DRESS

Blacks and White Pets Go With Maggie Two-Piece Costumes.

LONDON, July 5.—The craze for pets to match apparel has resulted in a new business here.

It is now possible to walk into a dog fancier's store in the west-end of London and hire a dog to match the particular dress or suit you are wearing.

Orders are already being booked for large black and white dogs to go with the magpie two-piece costumes that are being designed for Ascot, while at present the brindled-colored dogs that go so well with country clothes are finding themselves most popular.

Some of the temporary owners even go a step further and take the dogs to dress shows where they match patterns against their coats.

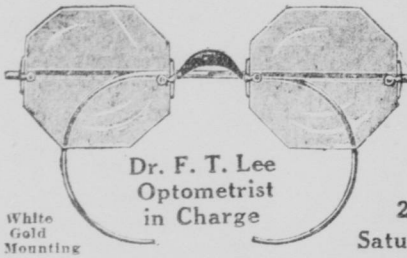

New sized currency almost is impossible to raise because of bills of different denominations having the different pictures on the faces.

The new currency is more than an inch shorter and nearly half inch narrower than the old currency.

Summer Vacation Tours to

Bermuda

Bermuda and winter vacations are to many synonymous. But these isles are, if anything, more delightful in summer than in winter—an ideal summer haven when the mainland is sweltering.

Bermuda is but a two-day voyage from New York—which, in the summer, is a veritable vacation in itself. If you enjoy land and water sports in the midst of a veritable paradise of trees, plants and flowers—if you want a vacation that will return you to your work refreshed and reinvigorated—take a summer trip to Bermuda.

For complete details of a Bermuda tour, communicate with Richard A. Kurtz, Manager Travel Bureau The Leading Travel Bureau of Indianapolis
