

HOOVER SNUBS 'HURT' MELLON; MAY QUIT POST

Treasury Secretary Said to Feel Keenly Slights on Various Questions.

BY RAY TUCKER
Times Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, July 5.—As a result of several snubs administered to Andrew J. Mellon, secretary of treasury by President Herbert Hoover in major matters, reports were current today that Mellon would retire soon after the Senate had ratified that portion of the Young reparations plan which affects the United States. Similar reports from time to time have been denied.

Mellon is said to feel keenly the slights he has suffered since March 4, in questions dealing with tax reduction, payment of the French $400,000,000 debt, prohibition problems and patronage.

Hoover has demonstrated rather pointedly that the holdover secretary of the treasury no longer is the dominant figure he was during the Harding and Coolidge regimes.

Though Mellon has not discussed his relations with the White House, his friends intimate that he recognizes the loss of power and prestige his altered status has brought.

FAMED KONJOLA RECOMMENDED AS A FINE TONIC!

Modern Medicine Scores Another Glorious Victory; Happy Man Pays It Great Compliment.

Konjola's already surpassing record of accomplishments is growing by leaps and bounds every day, as more and more people hear of the powers of this new medicine, and are relieved of their suffering by it. Many people state that they had given up their cases as hopeless, but that this new medicine restored them to health. "What is there about this new medicine, that it is able to succeed after all the others failed?" this and similar questions are being answered by the Konjola Man, who is daily explaining all about it at Hook's Dependable Drug Store, Illinois and Washington streets, this city. Even the most skeptical almost invariably return after they have given this new medicine a trial, to add their words of praise and commendation to its powers. Konjola succeeds after the others failed because it is a different medicine, a modern medicine. Just a short time ago a very interesting experience with this new medicine came to the Konjola Man's attention. Happy in his new found health, Mr. Paul Sipe, Route No. 3, Greenfield, Ind., near Indianapolis, made the following statement:

"Konjola proved to me that it is a medicine of merit, and that it is worthy of all the wonderful praise that it is getting. About two years ago, I took over my father's farm, and the work at first was simply too much for me. I was nervous, and my kidneys, liver and stomach caused me an awful lot of distress. I lost weight and strength, and tired very easily. I didn't sleep well at night. The work was just plain drudgery to me. I grew disgusted and discouraged.

"My wife had used Konjola for some different ailments, and I saw where this new medicine was recommended as a tonic. I decided to see if it might not help me. Well, I was amazed at all that it did for me. It has built me up wonderfully! My nerves are calm, and my whole inner system has been cleansed and regulated. I am rapidly gaining in weight and strength. I rest well at night, and get up in the morning ready for whatever the day has in store for me. My work is no longer drudgery. I really enjoy it. Konjola made me feel like a new man. It proved itself to me, and I am glad to recommend it highly!"

That is how Konjola works, quietly, quickly, thoroughly. It is a modern medicine, a medicine that deals in results, not words and promises. It only needs the chance to prove that it is worthy of all the wonderful praise it is getting.

The Konjola Man is at Hook's Dependable Drug Store, Illinois and Washington streets, this city, and where he is meeting the public daily, introducing and explaining the powers of this modern medicine.

Compiles 'Crime Library'

Mrs. Pauline Byrkit and Her "Crime Library"

"Too much crime news? The more the merrier!" exclaimed Mrs. Pauline Byrkit at police headquarters today.

Literally Mrs. Byrkit cuts up gleefully when a story of a murder, robbery, burglary, fight, or accident appears in a newspaper, for she clips them all and pastes them in scrap books for reference at headquarters.

Already she has filled numerous green books with stories of what has gone on about town since Claude M. Worley became police chief. She is the loose-leaf historian of brave patrolmen, clever detectives, and all those who make Indianapolis a safe, clean city.

OCEAN FLIERS EXHAUSTED BY MANY FETES

Frenzied Welcome for 'Lost' Spaniards and Rescuers Continues.

BY JOHN DEGANDT
United Press Staff Correspondent
MADRID, July 5.—The frenzied rejoicing at the safe return of the four Spanish fliers, who arrived here accompanied by the officers of the British ship that rescued them from the Atlantic, continued at the same tumultuous pitch today, with the government and the populace seeking new ways of honoring them.

From every city and town in Spain new invitations came imploring the fliers and the officers of H. M. S. Eagle to honor it with a visit.

The British officers were scheduled to leave for Seville today at the invitation of the mayor and the Seville Aero Club. Whether they would be accompanied by Ramon Franco and his three flight companions still was unknown.

The fliers were tired almost to a point of exhaustion, with the ordeal they had gone through on the open sea for seven days and nights and the constant entertainments they have attended since they arrived on land.

Their reception here Thursday morning was unlike anything seen in Spain in years.

They were received by the queen, who congratulated them, and thanked their rescuers not only for saving Spain's favorite fliers, but also for strengthening the relations between that country and Great Britain.

Lieutenant Kilroy, the Britisher who was first to sight the drifting plane near the Azores, and Major Gallarza, one of the four lost fliers, seemed to be the favorites with the seariders, who gave their kisses with remarkable frequency.

Gallarza and Kilroy have received so many of these favors that they have grown weary of them, for the excellent reason, in Gallarza's words that "they are not all pretty."

"What I know about nice women"

Listen to a doctor whose practice includes hundreds of the better class. "It is simply unbelievable," he says, "how many women—supposedly nice, fastidious women—are suffering from halitosis and utterly ignorant of the fact. No wonder their husbands no longer kiss them, or that women friends avoid them."

Don't fool yourself

Be the first to suspect yourself of having halitosis (bad breath). So many everyday conditions cause it that it is folly for any one to assume complete freedom from it. Defective teeth for example. Fermenting food particles. Pyorrhea. Germ infections of the mouth. Keep yourself on the popular side by gargling with full strength Listerine morning and night, and before meeting others. Listerine instantly ends halitosis.

Destroys odors—kills germs

Being a safe germicide so active it kills even Staphylococcus Aureus (pus) and Bacillus Typhosus (typhoid) germs in 15 seconds, it naturally combats germ conditions which cause odors. Then, being a powerful deodorant, it destroys the odors themselves. Send for our free Book of Etiquette, Dept. H 6, Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A.

CAUTION
Occasionally you may be offered a product "Just as good" and "Just as safe" as LISTERINE. We hope you won't be fooled. There's nothing like LISTERINE.

Halitosis is a daily threat..end it with THE SAFE ANTISEPTIC Listerine
