

HAUGHVILLE IS HARD HIT BY WIND AND RAIN

Cooler Weather Follows
Downpour Which Ends
12-Day Drouth.

Cool weather and cloudiness prevailed today after an electrical storm Thursday night that brought to an end a twelve-day drouth and did slight property damage in the city.

Several persons were injured in auto accidents as a result of wet streets and the blinding rainfall. Haughville residents suffered most from the storm. Trees and branches were blown down and basements were flooded after gutters overflowed. Automobiles were stalled on many streets for more than an hour.

Wire Damages Slight

Indianapolis Power and Light Company officials said the damage to light lines was slight. Indiana Bell Telephone Company officials said the company's lines had not been affected seriously.

Evening visitors at the state fair wandered around in darkness for forty-five minutes when fairground light fuses were blown out.

Lightning Hits Barn

When lightning struck a barn on the farm of Jesse Koleyke, 4800 East Raymond street, the structure was destroyed by fire. Thirty-eight head of cattle were saved by Koleyke, but several tons of hay were destroyed. The loss was estimated at $5,000.

Three automobiles were slightly damaged when they ran into a damaged pavement section in the alley between Illinois and Meridian streets, near St. Clair street. Thursday night's rain amounted to .92 of an inch, the first measurable precipitation since Aug. 23, weather bureau officials said.

SUNNYSIDE WILL HOLD ANNUAL HOMECOMING

All Former Patients Urged to Attend
Sept. 16.

Seventh annual homecoming for former patients of the Sunnyside sanatorium will be held Sunday afternoon, Sept. 16, between 3 and 6. A program of music, readings and other entertainment will feature the homecoming.

The tuberculosis sanatorium has discharged approximately 2,500 patients. Sanatorium officials urge all former patients to attend.

At the present time the sanatorium is caring for 250 men, women and children. Dr. Stephen A. Douglas is superintendent.

RELIGIOUS CONFERENCE PLANNED BY Y. M. C. A.

Annual Event Will Be Held at Turkey Run, Nov. 5-6.

Arrangements for the annual Y. M. C. A. religious conference at Turkey Run, Nov. 5 and 6, were made today at the closing session of a two-day conference of employed officers of the organization at Indiana Central college.

A conference committee for 1930 was named. Among speakers were Dean J. Q. Ames of the Y. M. C. A. college at Chicago, and A. H. Goddard, general secretary of the Indianapolis branch.

NEW POOL APPROVED

Park Board Confirms Garfield Park Resolution.

Plans for the $40,000 swimming pool for Garfield Park were advanced today with confirmation of a resolution by the park board Thursday. The board accepted plans of Frank Hunter, architect, last week.

A resolution to issue $23,000 bonds for extending North Meridian street was adopted.

BALL POOL IS RAIDED

Earl Sears Arrested Fifth Time on Gaming Charge.

Earl Sears, who, with Arthur Deer, is proprietor of a poolroom at 208 Indiana avenue, today awaited hearing in municipal court on gaming charges for the fifth time since Jan. 1.

He was arrested in a raid Thursday night in which police say they confiscated baseball pool tickets valued at $100. They were hidden in a cigaret vending machine, according to police.

TWO HELD AFTER CRASH

Driver of Car Is Charged With Intoxication.

Arthur Benson, 33, of 1655 Holliday street, arrested following an automobile accident near city hospital on Indiana avenue Thursday, today was charged with drunken driving. Charged Alexander, 48, Negro, 1619 Holliday street, riding with him, was charged with drunkenness.

Jail Break Prevented

By Times Special
TERRY HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 6.—

Plans of two prisoners in the Vigo county jail here to effect a break were frustrated by officers when they found three saws over a door casing. Authorities believe the saws were delivered to the men by means of a string through a prison window. The prisoner, Fred Vanderhoff and Arthur Taylor, denied the alleged break attempt.

$7 Auto Spurred

By Times Special
MARION, Ind., Sept. 6.—Ray Clayton, who was fined $1 and costs a total of $11, when he pleaded guilty in city court to a charge of driving his car without proper license plates, was committed to jail when court officials refused to accept his 1915 model car as security for the fine. Police Chief Lindemuth said the car was valued at $7.

Win Prizes at State Fair

Here are two groups of prize-winning cattle exhibited at the state fair.

CRIMINAL COURT JURY CALENDAR BREAKS RECORD

Full Schedule Faces State
With 23 Cases Carded,
Starting Monday.

Prosecutors today prepared for a heavy jury trial season after Criminal Judge James A. Collins announced the largest jury calendar in the criminal court's history. Twenty-three jury cases were listed on the calendar for trials beginning and continuing until Dec. 9. Included in the schedule are the following cases: Maxie Hannah, manslaughter, Sept. 19; Garnell Clemmens, manslaughter, Nov. 11; and Carl Cox on the same charge, Nov. 14.

Max Kos, 243 West Thirtieth street, will be tried a second time for manslaughter, Dec. 9. Kos was the driver of the car which fatally injured two Indianapolis Street Railway Company workmen last New Year's eve. When he was tried in June, a jury failed to reach a verdict.

Christine Owens, Negro, charged with first degree murder, will go on trial Monday. She is alleged to have shot her husband, Christian Owens, in December. A special venire of fifty has been ordered for possible service on the trial jury.

Maxie Epstein, alleged accomplice of Tony Phillips, pugilist in the robbery of the King Outfitting Company store in February, also will be tried. Phillips received one to ten years' prison sentence from a criminal court jury in June.

TALK SUPERVISION Teachers Study Methods at Close of Institute.

Group meetings, in which school supervision methods were to be discussed, were scheduled for the closing sessions of the Indianapolis teachers' institute at Shortridge high school today.

Dr. G. Bromley Oxnam, president of De Pauw university, was the principal speaker at general sessions Thursday. In the afternoon he addressed the assembly on the modern spirit in social service.

Charles F. Miller, city schools superintendent, gave a report of his recent trip to Europe, as a delegate to the International Educational conference.
