President's Day Luncheons Will Launch Club Seasons

As is the custom, most of the Indianapolis clubs will open the 1929-1930 season with a president's day luncheon when a number of the organizations install new officers.

Several clubs will observe president's day during the coming week. Members of the Irvington Catholic Women's Study Club will hold their president's day luncheon Thursday, when installation of officers will take place. The luncheon will be given at Whispering Winds on the Brookville road.

Officers to be installed are: President, Mrs. J. S. Bray; vice-president, Mrs. Charles D. Mitchell; secretary, Mrs. George A. Duffy, and treasurer, Mrs. Adam Kiefer.

Professor Arthur J. Beriault of the Beriault School of Expression, will be the principal speaker. Members of the social and program committees are in charge.

Another club to observe the opening meeting of the year with president's day is the Irvington Quest Club. The meeting will be held at Maple Inn, Layman avenue, in Irvington. Mrs. Walter G. Gingery is toastmistress for the affair. Mrs. Sylvester Moore will talk on "Our Founders." Mrs. W. A. Shoults will have as her subject "Then," and Mrs. C. E. Hadley, "Now." Mrs. E. M. Hughes, the new president will talk on "This Year."

Members of the Independent Social Club will meet at the home of Mrs. C. W. Abraham, 1121 Central avenue, Tuesday. This will be the first meeting of the year.

Clubs which will have their first meetings in September are the Culture Club, the Inter Nos Club, the Zetaheta Club and the Thursday Lyceum Club. These clubs have issued their year-books.

Lovely Fall Wedding to Be Tonight

One of the lovely early fall weddings will take place at Carrollton Avenue Reformed church at 8:30 tonight, when Miss Frances McGee will become the bride of F. Harold Naegele.

Miss McGee is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGee, 4715 Carrollton avenue, and Mr. Naegele is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Naegele, 327 East Merrill street.

The service will be read by the Rev. Elmer Homrighausen, pastor, before an altar with a background of palms and ferns, lighted with two five-branch candelabra. Baskets of white gladioli will flank either side of the aisle at the foot of the altar. The family pews will be marked with sprays of white gladioli, tied with bows of white tulle. Bows of blue and white tulle will mark the pews, for members of the Altrusa Club, of which the bride is a member.

Mrs. Olga Porter, organist, will play a program of bridal airs while the guests are being seated by the ushers, Hubert T. Vitz, James M. McGee, brother of the bride; Henry Baumgartner, South Bend, and William Keene.

Violinist to Play

Carl Schmid, violinist, will play "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," Ruth Sterling Devin will sing "At Dawning," "Sigma Phi Sigma Love Song," and "I Love You Truly." During the ceremony, Mrs. Porter will play "To A Wild Rose," "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

Miss McGee's attendants will enter singly. Mrs. Harry Schroeder, sister of the bride, will be matron of honor. She will wear a gown of flame point d'esprit over pink, rose and flame taffeta, made with a fitted bodice and long full skirt, with a huge bustle bow of rose and flame in the back, with streamers to the floor. She will wear flame slippers.

Miss Lucy M. Branch, maid of honor, will wear rose point d'esprit over pink, green and yellow taffeta with a yellow and green bow and rose slippers. Miss Gertrude Melkie and Miss Magdalene Eberhardt also will wear pink point d'esprit over orchid, green and pink taffeta with a bow of orchid and green and pink slippers.

The attendants all will carry cascade bouquets of roses in shades of pink, and baby's breath, tied with pink tulle streamers. They will wear rose crystal chokers, the gifts of the bride.

Reception to Be Held

Betty Ann Schroeder, niece of the bride, will be flower girl. She will wear a pink georgette frock and carry a French basket of rose petals. Willard E. Fraser, Chicago, will be best man.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear an ivory satin gown, made princess style, with a fitted bodice, beaded at the neckline with pearls. The skirt will have a three-tier cascade of lace in the front, with a gored satin skirt, falling to the floor in the back.

The low waist line will be marked with a swathed girdle, fastened with a pearl ornament in front. She will wear ivory satin slippers and a tulle veil with a cap of princess lace, with an ornament of pearls across the back. She will carry a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, tied with lace tulle.

An informal reception will be held in the north of the church. Mrs. Porter and Mr. Schmid will play during the receiving hours.

Will Leave For East

The couple will leave on a motor trip to New York and Canada, the bride traveling in a Monet blue crepe ensemble with egg-shell satin blouse, blue hat, shoes and bag and egg-shell gloves. They will be at home after Dec. 1 at 5265 North New Jersey street.

Mr. Naegele was graduated from the University of Illinois, where he was a member of Sigma Phi Sigma fraternity.

Among out-of-town guests will be Mr. and Mrs. John McGee, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Meyer, Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Heaton, Mr. and Mrs. Hannah Mariatt, Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baumgartner, South Bend; and Mrs. Charles Malpas, Baltimore.
