

WOMEN HELD IN PANTAGES' BRIBE CHARGE

Offer of $25,000 in Note to
Assault Witness,
Is Alleged.

By United Press
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 9.—Two young women accused of attempting to influence state's witnesses in the pending trial of Alexander Pantages on a charge of attacking 17-year-old Eunice Pringle, were held in $25,000 bail each today.

Helen Lee, 25, sculptress, and Janice Hill, stenographer, were the two held. District Attorney Burton Pitts charged they took up residence in a Hollywood rooming house recently to be near two state's witnesses and proceeded to attempt friendship.

When Pitts and police officers appeared, Miss Hill assertedly hurled a bottle of absinthe through a window and Miss Lee was accused of attempting to attack the landlady, one of the state's witnesses, with a knife. As a result the two women also are charged with suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon and possession of liquor.

Pitts said the girls are half sisters and that, after taking rooms in the house, they repeatedly asked the landlady and a male roomer, the two witnesses, to drink absinthe with them. They met persistent refusal.

Pitts said that the man roomer found a note under his door Saturday telling him that "if you will testify that the girl bribed herself there might be $25,000 in it for you."

Both women denied they had any interest in the Pantages case. Pitts said Miss Lee's handwriting was identical with that in the note.

Goes on Trial

Mrs. Alexander Pantages, wife of the millionaire Pacific coast vaudeville operator, is shown above in a Los Angeles courtroom as her trial on a charge of murder, arising from the death of a Japanese after her automobile had struck him, began.

The state contended Mrs. Pantages was drunk when the accident happened. She also was charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated.

ARAB OUTBREAK AROUSSES FEARS

Stabbings of Jews Cause
New Vigilance.

By United Press
JERUSALEM, Sept. 9.—Many quarters of Jerusalem were in a high state of nervousness today as the result of another stabbing near the walling wall. A Jew, on his way to the wall to pray, was stabbed by an Arab and seriously wounded. He had to be removed to a hospital.

A similar occurrence took place on the Jaffa road. A trooper fired on the Arab assailant, and both the Arab and the Jew whom he had stabbed were taken to the hospital.

Zionists Stand Pat

By United Press
LONDON, Sept. 9.—The Daily Mail today printed a reassuring interview given to its Jerusalem correspondent by Colonel F. H. Kisch, acting chairman of the Palestine Zionist executive committee.

In the interview, Colonel Kisch declared the Zionists would not forsake their aims and ideals because of the recent troubles nor did he believe the British people would renounce the Balfour promise to maintain a Jewish homeland in Palestine.
