

PEACE PARLEYS 'MOST HOPEFUL,' HOOVER SAYS

President Devotes Radio Address to World Arms Limitation.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Negotiations with other powers looking toward further disarmament, were described as "most hopeful" by President Hoover, in a radio speech from his White House studio Wednesday night, in connection with the dedication of the Columbia Broadcasting Company's new studio, WABC, in New York.

The President said he receives daily "evidences of almost universal prayer" that the negotiations will succeed.

The proposals involved, Hoover said, "would preserve our national defenses, and yet would relieve the backs of those who toil from gigantic expenditures and the world from the hate and fear which flows from the rivalry in building warships."

The President recalled that Presidents from John Adams down had sat in the room from which he made his address.

"In this room," Hoover said, "have been taken those reluctant steps which have led our nation to war and those willing steps which again have led to peace. Never has there been a President who did not pray that his administration might be one of peace, and that peace should be more assured for his successor. Yet these men never have hesitated when war became the duty of the nation."

"Always in these years the thought of our Presidents has been adequate preparedness for defense as one of the assurances of peace. But that preparedness must not exceed the barest necessity for defense or it becomes a threat of aggression against others and thus a cause of fear and animosity of the world."

My Favorite Bible Passage

Today's Choice by Dr. W. J. Mayo Famous Surgeon The Twenty-Third Psalm

THE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want: He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

SPECIAL PROGRAM IS FEATURE OF MEETING

WKBF Broadcasts Entertainment for Freed Radio Convention.

One of the features of the Freed radio dealers' meeting at the Sevin today was the broadcasting of a special program from WKBF at noon. New type Freed receivers were used to provide the representatives with music while at their luncheon.

Several hundred Indiana dealers are expected to attend the convention which has been called to explain the sales and advertising campaign to be staged by the Freed company during the coming season.

The Freed company has secured license to build two television transmitting stations, representatives said today.

The orchestra naming contest, now being conducted by the Crescent Paper Company will be explained at the meeting.

FOUR TICKETS WILL VIE FOR GOTHAM VOTE

G. O. P. Drys to Contest La Guardia's Election at Polls.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Having won his first skirmish—the primary victory over William M. Bennett—Representative Fiorella H. La Guardia, Republican mayoralty candidate, resumed today, with renewed vigor, his war on Mayor James J. Walker and his Tammany administration.

Although La Guardia, an avowed wet, disposed of Bennett, the anti-speakeasy candidate, by a majority of 45,285 votes in the primary elections, he still faced the prospect of opposition from dry Republicans.

Mrs. Beatrice Beckerman, defeated candidate for the Republican nomination for president of the board of aldermen, and her husband, Simeon J. Beckerman, Bennett's chief backer, announced they intended to put up an independent candidate for mayor and for district attorney of New York county.

Another development, which affected both Mayor Walker and Congressman La Guardia, was the nomination of Richard E. Enright, former police commissioner, for mayor on a "square deal" ticket.

In accepting the nomination at town hall Wednesday night, Enright said he intended to call for a "vigorous program of law enforcement for the elimination of graft, vice and the suppression of crime."

VANDALS DAMAGE AUTO

Holes Are Cut in Top and Windshield Is Broken.

J. P. Murray, 910 North Bosart avenue, reported today to police vandals damaged his sedan Wednesday night, while it was parked in front of his home. Three holes were cut in the top and a brick was thrown through the windshield.
