NINE DAYS OF PRAYER OBSERVED
A Novena—or nine days of prayer—in honor of Saint Therese, the so-called "Little Flower" of Jesus, began at the Church of the Little Flower, Fourteenth street and Bostart avenue, Wednesday night. These devotions will be held each evening at 8 o'clock and will close on the feast of Saint Therese, Thursday night, Oct. 3.

There will also be special devotions each afternoon at 3 o'clock for children and those unable to attend the evening services. This is the third annual affair of this kind to be held at the Little Flower church and will be under the direction of the Rev. Charles Duffey, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. John J. Doyle and a number of the local clergy. Masses will be said each morning during this period at 6:30 and 8 o'clock.

Marie Françoise Therese Martin, usually known as the Little Flower of Jesus, was born at Alencon, France, on Jan. 2, 1873. At the age of 15 she entered the Carmelite convent at Lisieux, where she spent nine years and a half. She distinguished herself in the practice of every virtue, particularly her trust in God.

She died on Sept. 30, 1897, at the age of 24. She worked no miracles and never was in the public eye; and there was nothing remarkable about her life except that towards the end of it she began to say things that attracted attention.

She began to utter her famous prophecies: "I will spend my Heaven in doing good upon earth." "I will let fall from heaven a shower of roses." These prophecies she repeated constantly and confidently. Since her death her prophetic words seem to be fulfilled from the many and sometimes wonderful favors ascribed to her intercession. She was canonized May 17, 1925.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE ANNOUNCED
"Reality" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, Sept. 29.

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness, for they shall be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God" (Matt. 5: 3-8).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "One's aim, a point beyond faith, should be to find the footsteps of truth, the way to health and holiness. We should strive to reach the Horeb height where God is revealed, and the cornerstone of all spiritual building is purity" (page 241). "Chastity is the cement of civilization and progress. Without it there is no stability in society, and without it one can not attain the science of life."

SIDENER TO GIVE TALK
At the Christian Men Builders' class, Merle Sidener will talk on the subject, "Joseph, the Slave Who Ruled." This is the second of a series of related talks. Last Sunday was home-coming day and more than 600 men were in class.

Special guests tomorrow will be employees of Fuller's Friendly Barber shops. Wilbur Fuller, owner and manager, was a member of the class cabinet last year. Special music will be provided by the C. M. B. Glee Club, under the direction of Harry Lowe. They will sing, "Still, Still, With Thee," and "That Wonderful Mother of Mine."

The entire program will be broadcast over WFBM, Indianapolis Power and Light Company radio station. TO CELEBRATE HOLY COMMUNION
The Rev. Floyd Van Keuren, rector of Christ Episcopal church, Monument circle, will have a celebration of the holy communion at 8 o'clock Sunday. Church school and Bible classes will be at 9:30, and at 10:45 there will be church-hour kindergarten. Morning prayer will be at 10:45 and the rector will be the preacher. The boy choir, directed by Chester L. Heath, will sing the anthem: "From Egypt's Bondage Come," by Arthur Page. There will be no evening service.

SERIES OF LECTURES GIVEN
A series of prophetic lectures is being given by the Rev. E. W. Davis on Sunday nights at the Christian and Missionary Alliance church. Quite an interest was created last week as the question of "Is Revelation a Sealed Book" was discussed, and this study promises to be one of the most interesting features of the religious life of the city.

This week the second lecture will be given under the heading, "God and Democracy in Religious and National Life." Many phases of Places We Long to Visit

Who hasn't felt a longing to see and know the shores of the Mediterranean... that cradle of the civilization we enjoy today. Land so ancient that the builders of monuments that still stand and the great men and important events they were erected to commemorate are completely lost in the mists of antiquity. Plan now to satisfy that long-felt desire to view these interesting countries this winter.

If you will intrust us with the duty of making all arrangements for your trip, we promise you, in return, a cruise free from all irksome details, leaving you nothing to do except enjoy it to the fullest extent.

HOOVER LIKELY TO TALK OVER SOVIET POLICY

British-Russian Agreement May Be Discussed With MacDonald.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—President Hoover will be able to tap a vast fund of personal experience with Soviet Russia and her representatives when Premier MacDonald becomes a White House guest. London dispatches announcing Great Britain and Soviet Russia have agreed to exchange diplomats, after a lapse of several years, arrived here on the eve of MacDonald's departure for the United States.

There is no indication, however, of any alteration of the Russian policy, originated by Charles Evans Hughes and reiterated by his successor at the state department, Frank B. Kellogg.

State department officials, directly concerned with the problem, are unmoved from their contention that to recognize Soviet Russia under existing circumstances would be a mistake. Hughes and Kellogg both challenged alleged Soviet propaganda in the United States.

Hoover and Secretary of State Stimson have not disclosed their opinions. That either would be interested in MacDonald's personal estimation of the Russian situation seems probable.

Parents Should Determine the Course of Their Children

Principle is shaped early in life. Development of integrity in children is the responsibility of the parents. The importance of spiritual training for the children can not be denied. When Parents make it their business to see their children receive training in the Sunday School, then we will develop a better manhood and womanhood. Parents should not show either indifference or ignorance so far as the benefit of spiritual training is concerned.
