PORTLAND IS GOAL

Fliers on Ford Tour Hop Off From Montreal.

MONTREAL, Oct. 7.—A flight of 220 miles to Portland, Me., faced contestants in the fifth annual Ford reliability tour today. The twenty-nine planes in the tour flew here Sunday from Ottawa, with John Livingstone, in a Waco plane, the first to arrive.

Mrs. Keith Miller, finishing tenth, was the first of the women to arrive. May Hazlip of Kansas City was injured slightly in landing at Ottawa. Either a part of the engine or a clod of dirt struck her hand, breaking a small bone. She was adjusting her goggles at the time and perhaps unwittingly saved herself from a serious facial injury.

A crowd of more than 125,000 jammed the area about the Montreal airport.

EIGHT LOSE LIVES IN AIRPLANE ACCIDENTS

Youth Killed at Altoona When Parachute Fails to Open.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7.—Aerial accidents claimed eight lives in widely separated parts of the country Sunday.

UNION PRINTERS LAUNCH BATTLE IN MAYOR RACE

Committee Is Named and $500 Appropriated to Fight Glossbrenner.

Declaring that Alfred M. Glossbrenner, Republican candidate for mayor, is an open and avowed enemy of organized labor in general and the International Typographical Union in particular, a resolution adopted Sunday by the Indianapolis union calls upon all members to oppose his election.

The local appointed a committee of six, all Republicans, to head the union's campaign against Glossbrenner and appropriated $500 for preliminary work.

The printers union is the sixth labor group to signify opposition to Glossbrenner.

Resolutions of opposition have been adopted by the Central Labor Union, the Electrical Workers Union, the Bricklayers, Masons and Allied Crafts Union, the Brotherhood of Railway and Steamfitters' Clerks, Freight Handlers, Express and Station Employees, and the Carpenters District Council.

In the resolution prepared by the Burford Printing Company chapel and adopted by the Typographical union, is the declaration:

"Whereas, every member of this chapel, and of the union, has obligated himself not to give aid and succor to the enemies of the International Typographical Union, therefore be it

"Resolved, That it is the belief of the chapel that any member who in any way advocates the nomination or election of Glossbrenner is guilty technically of violating his obligation."

Members of the campaign committee are Guy S. McCoy, chairman; L. O. Royer, Leslie Andrews, Thomas Chamberlain, Glen Mitchell and Willis Hawthorn.

ZEP IS ENDANGERED

Spectators Aid Landing of Dirigible in Storm.

FRIDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, Oct. 7.—The dirigible Graf Zeppelin, returning from a day's cruise over Switzerland, made a most difficult landing in a storm here late Sunday.

Tripled ground crews were unable to hold the craft and disaster was averted only when spectators at the harbor volunteered to help land the Zeppelin.

YOUTH WOUNDED BY BANDIT DIES

John Ebert, 19, Refused to Identify Gunman.

With their only source of information sealed, police today admitted the mystery of the fatal shooting of John Ebert, 19, of 330 Roena avenue, may never be solved.

Ebert, upon whom they relied for an effective statement, died Sunday in city hospital without making any further revelation concerning the shooting than that his assailant was a bandit who ordered him to "stick 'em up!" and then fired twice without warning. The shooting occurred on Taft street, a few blocks from the youth's home, Thursday night, a bullet piercing Ebert's chest.

He ran to Harvest and Taft streets, where he fell unconscious. Guy West, 21, of 1127 South Denison street, with whom Ebert left home earlier, saw him lying on the sidewalk, picked him up, and took him home.

West was questioned by deputy sheriffs and later released after he accounted for his movements from the time he left Ebert until he found him on the sidewalk. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

A used car for every purse and purpose is advertised on The Times want ad page today.

Dies of Wound

John Ebert, 19, of 330 Roena avenue, who died Sunday in city hospital with a bullet in his lung. Although aware he could not live, the youth averred his assailant Friday night was an unidentified bandit.

BRITAIN SENDS INVITATIONS TO NAVAL PARLEY

Five Nations Receive Bids to Conference on Parity.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—Invitations to a five-power naval conference were sent by Foreign Secretary Arthur Henderson this afternoon to the United States, Japan, France and Italy. They were handed to the embassies of those countries here.

The invitations, the wording of which had been agreed to by the British dominions and presumably by United States Ambassador Charles G. Dawes, were signed by Henderson.

It had been planned originally to issue them at the time Premier Ramsay MacDonald sailed for the United States, but later it was decided to delay issuance until after MacDonald and President Hoover had reached an understanding regarding Anglo-American parity as a basis for the five-power conference.

Facts Worth Knowing

Just as there is only one Hot Springs, Ark., America's famous health resort and dear to the heart and memory of thousands who have gone there for relief from pains and suffering—so there is only one Mountain Valley natural mineral water. While there are other waters carrying SOME of its minerals, none carry them in the same subtle atomic relation, which is very important when it is considered that one atom of chlorine when added to calcium makes corrosive sublimate. The best is none too good for you when it involves your health. If suffering from Diabetes, Bright's Disease or Kidney trouble, phone for particulars about
