Luncheon to Open Year for Club

A program of travel talks and music will be given Monday at the Columbia Club when members of the Monday Club open the year's activities with a President's day luncheon at 12:30.

Mrs. M. D. Didway, music chairman, is in charge of the program. Mrs. Frank McCaslin and chorus will sing a song composed by Mrs. Didway, entitled "To the Monday Club."

Mrs. T. William Engle and Mrs. W. R. Seiber will sing a duet, "Sing, Sing, Bird on the Wing," by Nutting. Mrs. O. T. Behymer will present "Who Is Sylvia?" by Schubert, and "It Was a Lover and His Lass," by Morley. Mrs. Noble C. Hillenberg will sing "Berceuse," from "Jocelyn," with violin obligato by Miss Bernice Reagan. Mrs. George W. Warmouth, retiring president, and Miss Lucille Stewart, who spent the summer abroad, will give travel talks.

The luncheon tables will be decorated with vases of pink roses and lighted with pink tapers in crystal holders. Hostesses for the affair include Mrs. Charles Kistner, chairman of the social committee, assisted by Mrs. J. W. Coffey, Mrs. C. W. Turner, Mrs. Mary B. Hedges, Mrs. Frank Wampler and Mrs. W. H. Kinnear.

Mrs. J. F. Edwards, now president, will be presented by Mrs. Warmouth. Other new officers who will be presented are: First vice-president, Mrs. E. V. Clark; second vice-president, Mrs. W. A. Pierson; recording secretary, Mrs. Edward E. Files; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Martin H. Wallick; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Pyle, and parliamentarian, Mrs. John Downing Johnson.

City Chapter of Hadassah to Open Year

Indianapolis chapter of Hadassah will hold its first meeting of the season at 2:15 Wednesday afternoon at the Kirschbaum community center.

Dr. Milton Steinberg, rabbi of Beth El Zedek, will talk on his visit to Palestine. Other features of the program will be a group of Palestinian songs, sung by Cantor Myro Glass, accompanied by Miss Jeanette Arnold. Mrs. Samuel A. Frommer, president, will give an address.

The local chapter of Hadassah is part of the national organization, which maintains an extensive system of medical social service for all Palestinians, regardless of religion.

During the past few weeks Hadassah chapters throughout the country have been collecting linens, bedding and clothing to meet the needs of the homeless in Palestine, caused by the attacks of the Arabs. Headquarters for the receipt of articles and cash donations is the Kirschbaum center, 2314 North Meridian street. Packages will be called for by telephoning Mrs. David Cohen, Cherry 0459, or Mrs. Harry Cohen, Washington 2791.

Fashion Review Is Feature of Sorority Party

Mrs. R. Hartley Sherwood, 2847 North Meridian street, was hostess for a luncheon today at her home, celebrating the fifty-ninth anniversary of the founding of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. The party was given by members of the Indianapolis Alumnae Association.

A fashion review, depicting styles since the founding, was presented by seven models. Mrs. Frank L. Nussbaum sang songs representative of each period. Mrs. Everett M. Schofield represented the girl of 1870; Mrs. Herman B. Gray, 1880; Mrs. A. E. McNeely, 1890; Mrs. DeForest O'Dell, 1900; Mrs. George H. Losey, 1910; Miss Irma Ulrich, 1920, and Mrs. Walter J. Hubbard, 1930. Guests, who were seated at small tables, joined in the singing of Kappa songs.

Mrs. L. Willis Bugbee Jr. presided at the initiation of members who have just been graduated from college or who are now residents in Indianapolis. These candidates were Mrs. Royer K. Brown, Mrs. Bruce L. Savage, Mrs. Robert Shehan, Mrs. Louis Lowe, Mrs. H. E. Elliott, Mrs. John Hillman, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. D. S. Byrnes, Miss Helen Kemmer, Miss Charlotte Canaday and Miss Betty Johnson.

The Indianapolis Alumnae Association has a membership of 150. The next meeting will be an oriental tea at the Spink Arms hotel, Nov. 9, with Mrs. George Losey and the students' air committee in charge.

ASSUMPTION SOCIAL CLUB ENTERTAINS

Assumption Social Club will entertain Sunday afternoon, at 2:30, and Sunday night, at 8:15, at the hall, 1105 Elaine avenue. Euchre, bumbo, 1-2-3, bridge and five hundred will be played.

Supper will be served between 5 and 7 o'clock. Mrs. Mary Brown is in charge of arrangements, assisted by a committee of twenty-five.

Necklines
For the moire, satin or velvet gown, it is extremely smart to have the neckline cut square, rounded, V-shaped or whatever one likes, rather than to have it cut chemise fashion, with shoulder straps. Tulle, lace, chiffon and finer fabrics are inclined to use shoulder straps, often jeweled.
