

SULLIVAN PARTY TALKS POSSIBLE APPOINTMENTS

'Shakeup' Rumored at City Hall When Jobs Are Handed Out.

BY BEN STERN

Times Staff Correspondent
CORYDON, Ind., Nov. 11.—Political speculation occupied members of the post-election vacation party of Mayor-elect Reginald H. Sullivan here today. It was the first time any discussion of probable municipal appointments has come up in the group during Sullivan's Indiana-Kentucky tour which began last week.

Sullivan continued his policy of non-discussion and made no comment on appointments. The discussions were confined to his friends and newspapermen who are accompanying him.

Armistice day exercises here was to go to French Lick, where it was believed he would be met by Indianapolis Democratic leaders. Sullivan purposely altered his itinerary plans so that he did not arrive in French Lick over the week-end.

During the latter part of last week Police Chief Claude M. Worley and Mayor L. E. Slack were at French Lick, but they returned over the week-end.

As Sullivan and his party left here it was reported reliably there will be a number of changes in city hall departments that will border on a "shake-up."

Return of the mayor-elect to Indiana followed visits to scenic and historic spots in Kentucky.

THE activity of our nation is suspended for a moment today in remembrance of the lull that suddenly fell over the crimson chaos of France eleven years ago. Surrounded by the sweet joys of home, the memory of the devotion to duty that swept away youth's right to live and broke the hearts of old age. May we humbly justify that devotion by a reverence for the ideals in which it originated.

EVERSON FLIES TO MAKE TALKS

National Guard Head Will Visit Two Cities.

After a lashing verbal attack on pacifists Sunday at the Y. M. C. A. Big Meeting in the English theater, Major-General William G. Everson, chief of the United States militia bureau, left here today by plane to keep Armistice day engagements in two Indiana cities.

General Everson was scheduled to review the Purdue university R. O. T. C. this noon, followed by an Armistice address at Anderson this afternoon.

Army Douglas planes constituted the escort for the general to the two Indiana cities.

At the "Y" meeting Sunday he said: "It is out of place to throw stones at the man who wears the uniform. Never has a war been started by a soldier. A soldier hates to see a war start."

He compared the soldier's job to that of a policeman and declared communities could not live without police and fire protection.

CITY MAN TO ATTEND FIRE LOSS DISCUSSION

Water Company Secretary to Preside at Washington Meeting.

Curtailment of fire losses in agricultural and industrial circles will be discussed in a joint conference of the United States department of agriculture and the National Fire Protection Association Thursday and Friday in Washington.

Frank C. Jordan, secretary of the Indianapolis Water Company and president of the fire protection association, will preside at the meeting.

A feature of the conference will be radio addresses by Jordan and Dr. H. G. Knight, chief of the bureau of chemistry and soils of the agricultural department, to be broadcast at 1:30 Thursday afternoon.

BEER BARON'S ASSETS FOUND IN POOR SHAPE

Dwindle Almost to Nothing When Uncle Sam Calls Back Taxes.

Urge Large Hospital

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 11.—Terry Drugan's fairy godmother has played a trick on him, he told Mrs. Myrtle Tanner Blackidge and her staff of United States revenue collectors.

Terry neglected paying $300,000 in back taxes on the income he collected a few years ago when he was the leading beer baron.

But Terry was sure he could "produce." There was his palatial farm home. There were fifty-one head of blooded Guernsey cattle, to say nothing of his race horses and pigs and Leghorn hens. It would be an easy matter, he said, to pay Uncle Sam $300,000.

But the clock must have struck 12, for as Mrs. Blackidge checked over Terry's assets she found they had suffered a metamorphosis.

The cows now. They had dwindled from fifty-one to fifteen and were becoming decidedly mangy. Moreover, they had gone dry.

The brewery? No longer the center of Chicago's bootlegging industry, it had become a haven for bats, worth, at the most, $10,000.

The race horses? A reward has been offered for their return. Evidently some one left a gate open.

Only the chickens remain unchanged.

The farmhouse and the farm also look the same as ever, but they are in Mrs. Drugan's name.

Determined to snatch something from the debacle, Mrs. Blackidge has announced she will sell the brewery at auction within a few days before it vanishes into thin air.
