IMPROVE YOUR BRIDGE

through

The Indianapolis Times WFBM

RADIO BRIDGE GAMES

to be broadcast from Station WFBM of the Indianapolis Power & Light Co., Starting Nov. 19th, every Tuesday, at 5 P. M.

Play with the leading experts of the United States and Canada. Hear Milton C. Work's comments on each game. Study with him the possibilities of each hand, for Contract as well as Auction.

WE invite you to sit at Bridge with the greatest Bridge players of the times. Through special arrangement, this paper has obtained for its readers a local tie-up with one of radio's greatest attractions. As each game is played, Milton C. Work will give his comments both on bidding and play, analyzing the possibilities of each bid for Contract and Auction.

Aside from its absorbing interest, this series of Hear Mr. Work's analysis of this hand in Contract and Auction. Learn the difference between the two. Let Mr. Work teach you better Bridge.

broadcasts will be of immeasurable value to advanced players and beginners alike, presenting clearly and authentically the modern strategies of Auction and Contract.

Arrange for at least one table every week during the series. Advance announcements of each hand will appear in this paper. Play the hand your way before the broadcast; then compare your methods with those of the experts.

This paper will report the games in detail every week, day after the broadcast

Ours is the only newspaper in this community authorized to print the Radio Games as broadcast and offers the only way to obtain them in printed form. Cut out the games. Paste them in a scrap book. Then you will have the world's most valuable reference book on Bridge, a book that you cannot buy at any price.
