

ALLEGED KILLER CAUGHT AFTER WEEK'S HUNT

Women's Clothes Are Found in Home of Suspect After Search.

By United Press
DUESSELDORF, Germany, Nov. 22.—A 29-year-old man was arrested today by police searching for the maniac-murderer who has attacked nineteen persons in the vicinity of Dusseldorf in recent months. The name of the man was withheld pending further investigation.

After following the suspect's mysterious movements, police searched his home and found feminine apparel concealed there, as well as other objects, which they said partly confirmed their suspicions.

The "ripper" murderer, who has been sought for weeks by local and Berlin police, is believed to have been guilty of eight murders and eleven other attacks since last April 2. His last victim was a young girl, whose body was found in the suburb of Unterrath.

One of the peculiar clews, which connect various crimes with the work of the "ripper," was the fact that most of his victims had been strangled, as though a lasso had been thrown about the neck and drawn tight.

Officials have been inclined to agree that one man was responsible for the crimes, but they said other crimes which obviously were committed by various persons had been blamed on him, thus creating greater fears than warranted.

STUDENTS GET LOANS

French Government Takes "Word" of 400 Needy Pupils.

By United Press
PARIS, Nov. 22.—The French government has made honor loans to 400 students, this winter, averaging from 1,000 to 7,000 francs and bringing the total such loans on the state's books to 12,000,000 francs.

The government fund is to help needy students the money being loaned upon a pledge that it will be repaid as soon as possible within ten years after the student leaves the university. That is the only security taken.

COMPANIONATE WEDDING

Bride and Groom, 74 and 72, Marry to Escape Loneliness.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—They didn't like to be lonely, did Thomas Bates and Sarah Foster, so they were wed at Conisbrough. Both had been married three times before. The groom was 72 and the bride 74.

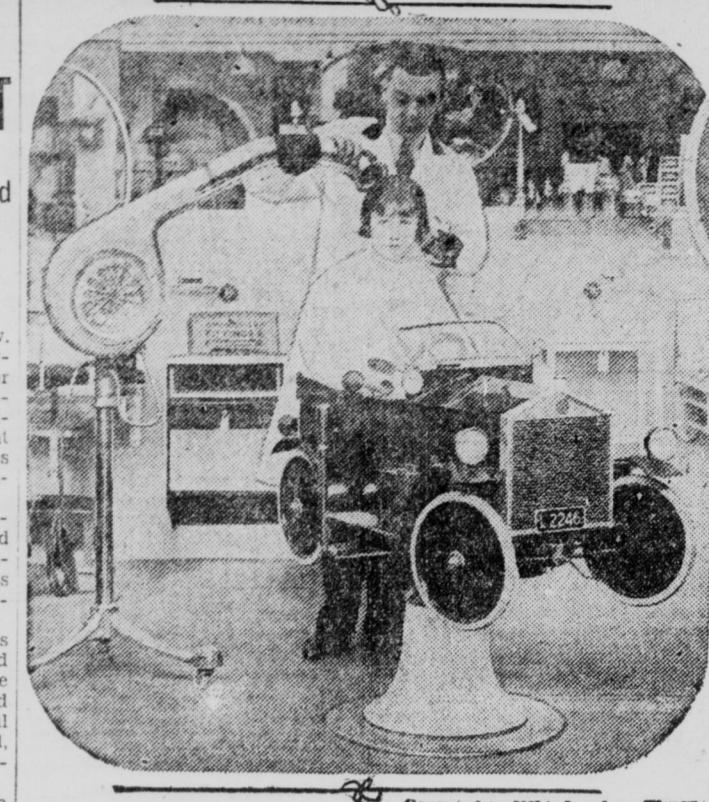

Both were deaf to some extent and, owing to that, the vicar had to repeat some parts of the ceremony several times.

PUTS OUT RUNNING FIRE

Clashes Burning Auto in Order to Extinguish Flames.

By United Press
ADRIAN, Mich., Nov. 22.—Glancing up from his newspaper, John Hawley, a member of the Adrian fire department, saw a blazing automobile pass the engine house. Hawley pursued the machine in a small fire truck. He overtook it and extinguished the fire before the driver was fully conscious of his predicament.

Riding to a Haircut

Copyright, NEA-London Times

Getting a haircut in a certain London barber shop now is plenty of fun for children. And why shouldn't it be, if one sits in a toy motor car and imagines oneself out riding while the barber is at work? Pictured above is a youngster getting her hair dried with a new mechanical device as she sits in the motor car, and she seems to like it.

BRITAIN EUROPE'S MINT

Royal Mint Makes Money for Many Smaller Nations.

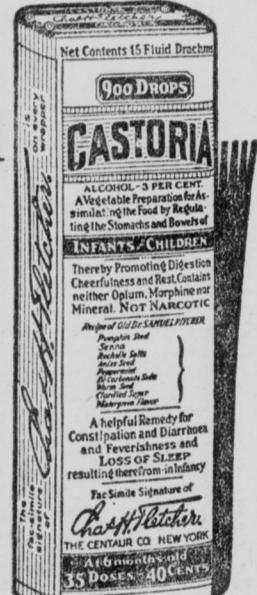

By United Press
LONDON, Nov. 22.—Making money for other countries is a regular business of the British government.

Not only the British colonies, but Rumania, Estonia, Czecho-Slovakia, Finland and even Soviet Russia have their currency made in England. The Royal mint also gives many countries advice on coinage.

What is claimed to be the deepest electric furnace in the world has been put into operation in a South American mine. This furnace, which is being worked at a depth of 6,000 feet, has been installed for the heating of carbon drill steel.

Children Cry for it

Children hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. And this pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and harmless as the recipe reads. (The wrapper tells you just what Castoria contains.)

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria has him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, use it to keep the system from clogging. Your doctor will tell you Castoria bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.

deserves a place in the family medicine cabinet until your child is grown. He knows it is safe for the tiniest baby; effective for a boy in his teens. With this special children's remedy handy, you need never risk giving a boy or girl medicine meant for grown-ups.

Castoria is sold in every drug store; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.

HUSBAND, VICTIM OF PLOT, DIES; TWO ARE HELD

Widow, Lover Face Murder Charges for Fatal Shooting.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The death of William J. O'Brien, 27-year-old conductor-clerk, who worked night and day, while his wife and her lover plotted his death, had rounded out another Snyder-Gray case.

O'Brien died in Holy Cross hospital Thursday night of bullet wounds inflicted by Samuel Dorr, landlord of the duplex apartment, in which the Dorr and O'Briens lived, and the insurance agent who sold O'Brien a $5,000 policy lately and had urged him to take out another for $15,000.

Dorr admitted Thursday that he fired the shots as O'Brien stepped out of a bathroom in his own apartment early Wednesday. The landlord had been in the basement of Mrs. Genevieve O'Brien, 26, an expectant mother.

Murder charges probably will be filed against Dorr and Mrs. O'Brien today. Police expressed the belief that the plot Mrs. O'Brien, who at first sought to shield her lover by claiming she shot her husband because he abused her, and then finally confessed, was prompted by a desire to get O'Brien out of the way and collect his insurance.

Before O'Brien died, the insurance salesman and Mrs. O'Brien went to the south side apartment and re-enacted the shooting.

Dorr's wife, who had left their two children in the lower apartment, looked on.

CROWDS FLOCK TO SHRINE IN STORM

Report Two Cures: Woman Goes Barefoot to Show Gratitude.

By United Press
MALDEN, Mass., Nov. 22.—Despite a heavy snow storm, the first of the year, more than 10,000 persons visited the grave of the Rev. Patrick J. Power in Holy Cross cemetery here in the past twenty-four hours.

Until late hours of last night hundreds of persons continued a vigil seeking relief for their afflictions through faith and prayer.

Mrs. James M. Curley, wife of Boston's mayor-elect, made her second pilgrimage to the shrine from which many supposedly miraculous cures have been reported during the past three weeks.

Two partial cures were claimed after a group of twenty-two persons from Lisbon Falls, Me., came to the young priest's tomb for the third day.

Mrs. Lena Thompson of Tanton was reported as having walked from the grave in her bare feet, to show gratitude for a claimed cure from rheumatism. Several other supposed cures were reported.

"Perfect Butler" Kills Self

SHACKLEFORD, England, Nov. 22.—Walter Bond, called "the perfect butler" by his employers, killed himself rather than answer a court summons that rose on his master's land, but technically involved Bond in trespassing before the game was bagged.

TRIALS ARE ORDERED

East Chicago Mayor Loses Fight to Escape.

By Times Special

HAMMOND, Nov. 22.—Mayor Raleigh P. Hale of East Chicago and other city officials have lost their fight to escape trial on charges of conspiracy to violate the federal prohibition law.

Judge Thomas W. Slick in federal court here has denied pleas in abatement defense counsel sought and ordered the accused to appear for arraignment Saturday morning.

Following the ruling, attorneys indicated they would not avail themselves of one more weapon, a demurrer to the indictment, but will permit the arraignment to proceed.

Elephants ordinarily sleep while standing. They have been known to remain standing even after death.
