

AIMEE'S TEMPLE MANAGER SUES TO GET SALARY

Woman Evangelist's Auto
and Bank Account
Are Attached.

By United Press
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22.—Aimee Semple McPherson's automobile and bank account were attached early today, but she hoped to have the legal restrictions removed before night.

Frank Timpson, whom she discharged as office manager at Angelus temple, late Thursday complicated the woman evangelist's latest legal difficulties by filing a suit in which he claimed $7,600 future salary and obtained the attachment.

Timpson set forth that the amount would have been paid him in the remaining eighteen months of a two-year contract. George Acret, attorney for Mrs. McPherson, said, however, that the evangelist did not know of the existence of the contract, which was made by her former attorney, Cromwell Ormsby.

Mrs. McPherson discharged Timpson and his brother, Lawrence, shortly after Ormsby brought a $324,500 breach of contract suit against her.

FORD BUYS OLD GOLD MINE FOR MACHINERY

Auto Maker May Establish Camp
Near Hoover's Outing Place.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Henry Ford has added an old Virginia gold mine, located twenty miles from President Hoover's Rapidan camp, his far-flung properties. News of the transaction reached the capital today, following a visit by Ford to the 100-year-old Vancluse mine, in Orange county, eighty miles southwest of Washington.

Two hundred acres have been taken over by Ford and an option obtained on an additional tract, which he plans to convert into a game preserve. The mine was purchased for the antiquated mining machinery, which Ford has ordered shipped to his early American museum at Dearborn, Mich.

There is a possibility that the automobile manufacturer will establish a camp on the property. He is a close friend of the President and several times has expressed a desire for a camp such as the President enjoys.
