

FACES CHARGES OF BIGAMY AND CHECK FRAUDS

St. Louis Business Man Held on Complaint of Second Wife.

By United Press
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 22.—Thomas C. Jones, electric sign company president, was emmeshed in a tangle today that included police investigation into his private and business life.

He was held on complaint of a Columbus, O., attorney, who claimed Jones married the former Mrs. Margaret Brenholtz of Columbus, while still married to his first wife. He faced a charge also of obtaining money under false pretenses, through issuance of allegedly worthless salary checks.

Mrs. Rytia Travis, Kansas City, who at first told police "I am his wife," but later said she was "his secretary" was detained for questioning.

Jones said he believed he had been divorced from his first wife, seven years ago, and married Mrs. Brenholtz at Knoxville, Tenn., last February.

The worthless check charge concerned payment of thirteen embezzled money under false pretenses, through issuance of allegedly worthless salary checks.

Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS—To our dear friends and neighbors who so kindly and sympathetically showed up during the sudden illness and death of our beloved husband and father, Edward H. Ashbrook, extend this acknowledgment of our thanks and appreciation.

Especially do we appreciate the beauty and sentiment of the flowers and music so generously and lovingly given.

While our loss cannot be replaced nor our sorrow alleviated, the sincere attentions have made our grief easier to bear.

Minnie A. Lashbrook,
Earl D. Lashbrook, and Family.
