BY FRANK GETTY, United Press Sports Editor (Copyright, 1929, by United Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Selection of an all-eastern football team for 1929 was unusually difficult because of the high standard of play upon eastern gridirons this fall.
With the assistance of a score of coaches, football officials and critics, the United Press succeeded in cutting down the field of applicants. The University of Pittsburgh, with an eleven which glands head and shoulders above all others in the east, places three men upon the first eleven.
Yale was the only other team to place more than one man upon the United Press all-eastern eleven, while Bucknell, Cornell, Harvard, Dartmouth, Washington and Jefferson and Western Maryland are represented.
As for the wing-men, Joe Donchess of Pitt stood out above every end in the east. Bates of Western Maryland, a rangy six-footer, would be ranked with the greatest of all time had he been on a nationally recognized team.
Jap Doud, of Washington and Jefferson, all-America tackle of 1928, was still the best linesman in the east this season. Captain Sam Wakeman of Cornell was another of the mighty tackles of the current season.
Montgomery of Pittsburgh was the greatest guard seen in the east.

Yost Likes Old Gridders Best
By N.E.A. Service
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 27.—Fleiding H. Yost, who has coached perhaps as many great football players as any man in the business, indicates that the boys of other years were better all-round gridders than those of the present.
"If I were called upon to select the five greatest all-round players of all time," says Yost, "I would choose Jim Thorpe of Carlisle, Pudge Heffelfinger of Yale, Willie Heston of Michigan, Tack Hardwick of Harvard and Ted Coy of Yale. However, there might be some question about any one of five men that any one might select."

In many a day, Captain (Fip) Greene of Yale was one of those guards whose play could scarcely be improved upon.
The choice of an all-eastern center was difficult, for although Ben Tiknor of Harvard had everything one could require, Captain Siano of Fordham ran him a close second. Tiknor's play in the Yale game earned him the call over the little Fordhamite.
Al Marsters of Dartmouth, whose varsity football career was cut short untimely by a serious injury in the Yale game, was declared unanimously by all who saw him in action this fall to be the best quarter back in the east.
"The greatest natural football player seen at Yale in twenty years," is the description aptly applied to Albie Booth, 144-pound sophomore half back, who scorched a trail across eastern gridirons this fall.
Toby Uansa of Pittsburgh was the high scoring back of an unbeaten machine, a back who could rip his position.
Way ahead against the strongest opposition, Hinkle of Bucknell, would have been the sensation of the year behind one of the better lines.

INJURED 'GRIDDER BETTER
By United Press
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 27.—The condition of Victor Harding of Hubbard Woods, Ill., substitute end on the Harvard football team who suffered an internal injury in Saturday's game with Yale, was described as "good" at Stillman infirmary today.
SIMRALL NAMED PILOT
ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 27.—James Simrall, quarter back, has been elected captain of the 1930 University of Michigan football team.

Golf Amateurs Must Pay Own Tourney Costs
By United Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—The United States Golf Association has refused to alter its rules to allow state and sectional golf associations to pay the expenses of representatives to tournaments.
Acting on the plea of the Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Metropolitan Golf Associations, the U. S. G. A. considered changing the rules at a recent meeting but the final decision, sent out Tuesday to member clubs of the U. S. G. A. read: "The best interests of the game require the strict enforcement of the present amateur rules."

Did You Know That—
EVERY year at West Point on Thanksgiving morning, the Goats play the Engineers. . . . The Goats are the lads who are at the bottom of the scholarship ladder. . . . The Engineers are the guys with the highest marks. . . . Notre Dame used thirty-four men in the first half against Georgia Tech. . . . Al Simmons met Pat Malone in a barnstorming game on the coast. . . . "Hey, Pat," barked Simmons, "you don't have to walk me. This is no world series." . . . It made Pat mad. . . . "I'll show you!" he replied, and shot a fast one down the alley. . . . It went over the outfield wall. . . . Just like that one in the fatal seventh in Philadelphia.

Down the Alleys

Thursday night a handicap singles sweepstakes for bowlers using the Uptown alleys in league play will be rolled. The first squad will take the drives at 6 p. m.
The Illinois alleys announce another 300 scratch singles sweepstakes for Nov. 29, Tuesday afternoon and evening. Squads will take the drives hourly, starting at 1 p. m.
Thursday's feature at the Indiana drives will be a handicap double sweepstakes. A large entry has been received to date, and a real prize list is assured.

Some member of the Automotive League rolling on the Illinois alleys took the wrong ball after their session Tuesday night. A carry-in bag and ball of the same make was found next to the missing outfit. The finder is requested to get in touch with Herb Whiteman of the Indianapolis Times, Riley 5531, at once as he wishes to roll in a special sweepstakes Thursday.
The Losey-Nash and Sinclair Refining teams were the big winners in the Automotive League play, taking all three games from the Almette and Pure Oil boys while the C. H. Waieler, Gibson Company, United Motors and Hoosier Motor Auto Indiana Watkins and Marmon Sales, Banks was the only member of this loop to reach the 600 mark getting a total of 616.
The Kootz Florish team won the odd game from the Rite Jewelry in the only contest played in the Twilight League at the Uptown alleys.
Play in the Speedway League resulted in a two-time win for the Esterline-Angus No. 2, Grande, Esterline-Angus No. 1 and the National Malleable over the Prest-O-Lite No. 1, Allison, Rosner and Stanley Jewelry, while the Enrich Hardware and Thompson Recreation won three from the Speedway Lumber and Prest-O-Lite No. 2. Weigel rolled 601 to turn in the best total in this loop. Roy Doolittle rolled another good series, getting a count of 503 which included a 233 score.
Thomas Shoe Store and the Leader Store will meet in the second match series Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Indiana alleys. The shoe boys won the first of the series last Sunday at Fountain Square alleys.

Marriner Earns Draw Despite Cut and Broken Hand
By United Press
CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Despite a broken hand and a severe cut over his left eye, Les Marriner, former University of Illinois football player, earned a draw with George Hoffman, New York, on Jack Dempsey's Christmas fund program Tuesday night.
The show was a financial failure. Only 3,500 persons attended and the gate receipts amounted to $8,050, hardly enough to pay the fighters.
In the semi-windup, Paul Panatelo, Chicago, knocked out Herman Weiner, Baltimore, in two rounds. They are heavyweights.

Sport Notables Honor Muldoon
By United Press
NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Former champions of the prize ring, including Jack Dempsey, will be heard over the NBC system Friday night from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m. (e. s. l.) when they pay tribute to William Muldoon, veteran New York state athletic commissioner. The date is Muldoon's eighty-fifth birthday.
Mayor James J. Walker, Eilhu Root, James R. Sheffield, former ambassador to Mexico; Joseph Day and Father Francis Duffy also have been announced as participants.

CAMEL
TURKISH & DOMESTIC BLEND CIGARETTES
Camels have always welcomed comparison with any other cigarette because the true test of value is the pleasure to be found in smoking.
The most important thing for smokers to know is that genuine cigarette quality must begin with the selection of tobaccos. Nothing can take the place of quality tobacco. Thus the extraordinary goodness of Camels begins with the choicest tobaccos grown and these are blended with expert skill to achieve the mildness and surpassing fragrance of this great cigarette. It is this genuineness of quality which smokers appreciate when they have passed the experimental stage and know real smoking pleasure.
when they learn the difference they flock to Camels
