

TRAIN COLLISION PROBED TO FIX RESPONSIBILITY

Crash Costing One Life Is Investigated by Coroner.

Investigations were begun today by Coroner C. H. Keever and officials of the Big Four lines in an attempt to fix blame for a wreck late Saturday that cost one life and injured six passengers when a Big Four passenger train crashed into a test locomotive near Acton.

The wreck occurred at Dix tower, one mile east of Acton, where the test engine, which had been idling between the tower and Beech Grove shops, to wear in new parts, was about to leave the main track for a siding, when struck by the Syracuse, Chicago-Cincinnati fast train.

Coroner Keever today called witnesses to attend the inquest for George Kern, 3703 East New York street, passenger engineer, who was crushed between the locomotive and tender.

Among them was J. P. Smith, 52, of 234 South Walcott street, fireman, who escaped with cuts on the head and arms when he leaped to safety before the collision.

"We did not see the red signal blocks because of steam and smoke from the test engine," said Smith. "Suddenly, a few yards from the other locomotive, the smoke cleared and I saw the warning light."

"I shouted 'all red' and jumped. Kern tried to follow, but he was too late."

Of the six passengers injured, only one today was confined to a hospital. She is Sister Edmunda, instructor in the Little Flower school, in St. Vincent's hospital with a fractured nose. The others injured were taken to Chicago Sunday.

Funeral services will be held for Kern at 2 p. m. Tuesday at the home in charge of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. A second service will be held at 3 p. m. at Flanner & Buchanan mortuary, under auspices of Logan lodge, No. 557, P. & A. M. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

SOLDIER ALLIES IN LAST HONORS TO CLEMENCEAU

30,000 Veterans in Parade; Lay Wreaths Gathered on Battlefields.

By United Press
PARIS, Dec. 2.—France paid a final tribute Sunday to Georges Clemenceau as 30,000 French war veterans, carrying war medals and battle flags, their ranks augmented by American and British veterans, paraded past the tomb of France's Unknown Soldier as a salute to the memory of the "Father of Victory."

Two wreaths composed of flowers picked from the battlefields of Verdun and Arras were placed, one at the Unknown Soldier's tomb and the other at the Tiger's briar patch grave in Vendee.

The parade of the veterans, Clemenceau's "boys" of the war, began promptly at 11 a. m. There was no great mass demonstration by the public. The veterans had gathered from all parts of France, twelve of them from Saint Vincent Sur Jard, where they were neighbors of the late Tiger during his summer visits in Vendee. Their battle flag was carried by Clemenceau's war-time aid and chauffeur, Francois Brabant.

President Gaston Doumergue and a majority of the senators and deputies met the veterans at the Arc de Triomphe and led the procession past the tomb. There were no floral offerings other than the two wreaths from the battlefields.

TRAINMAN SPEEDS RELIEF TO HIS OWN COUGH!

MR. F. W. CLIFFORD

Finds REM route fastest way

Mr. F. W. Clifford of 174 Franklin St., Portland, Maine, is a trainman on the Maine Central, and railroading in Maine in the winter is no easy job. One winter while working on a freight train, he caught a very bad cough. He tried first one thing for it, then another—but without any results. Then he dropped in at Holland's Drug Store at Oxford and Mayo St., and asked them to recommend a good cough remedy. The druggist suggested REM and Mr. Clifford reports, "I'm glad to say it relieved my cough in a short time." REM's quick action in relieving a cough has delighted thousands. It is due, in part, to the fact that it clings to your throat and spreads a soothing, healing film, bringing quicker relief. Find that out for yourself!

COUGHS KEPT THE JOHNSONS AWAKE

JACK & JEAN JOHNSON

Till REM brought grateful relief

Jack and "Billy Jean" Johnson of 2705 Wood Ave., Kansas City, used to get bad coughs each winter, and their mother was more or less resigned to losing several nights' sleep whenever a cough arrived. Then she saw a REM ad and bought a bottle at Reynolds' Drug Store at 25th and Garfield. Now she stops her children's coughs before they have a chance to get a good start. "We get more sleep than any winter before," she adds. Restless nights don't do coughs any good, and many a person has REM to thank for a good night's sleep. If REM doesn't relieve your cough quickly, your druggist is authorized to give your money back. The fact that not one in a thousand ever wanted it back tells a story as convincing as Mrs. Johnson's.

MARY'S MOTHER FINALLY FINDS RIGHT THING

MARY MULLINS

Relieves obstinate cough with REM

After Mary Mullins of 176 1/2 S. Pearl St., Albany, N. Y., recovered from whooping cough, she had trouble with bronchial coughs from time to time. Her mother tried various things to relieve her, but didn't get on the right track until she asked a clerk in Claus' Drug Store at Pearl and Westerlo about REM. He said it was good for children as well as grown-ups, and Mrs. Mullins bought a bottle. REM relieved Mary's cough at once and she got a good night's sleep—the first for several nights. Mrs. Mullins is convinced that "REM is a great remedy for coughs"—and that's what it is. REM isn't a "cure-all." It's not good for anything but a cough—but how remarkably good it is for that! Be sure to ask for REM.

SPEAKS FOR FAMILY ON IMPORTANT SUBJECT

MRS. J. M. SULLIVAN

REM unanimous choice for coughs

The first that Mrs. J. M. Sullivan of 8113 Hillcrest Ave., Cleveland, knew about REM was when her brother told her about it. It had ended a bad cough for him and he thought it would do as much for her. It did. And it went even further. As Mrs. Sullivan herself puts it: "My mother, father, husband and myself all get coughs at times during the winter, but the bottle of REM we keep in the house always relieves us and we wouldn't be without it." Simple coughs usually yield to a single bottle, and that is why REM is so economical, despite the fact that it contains a special ingredient too costly for ordinary cough syrups. If REM doesn't relieve you promptly, your druggist is authorized to return your money. What could be fairer than that?

DRUGGIST PICKS REM FOR HIS OWN COUGH

MR. A. MATERA, JR.

Explains why he chooses it

Mr. A. Matera, Jr., is a druggist at 8136 Baxter Ave., Elmhurst, N. Y., and has a whole storeful of various remedies at his disposal. Therefore it is interesting and significant that he chooses REM when he himself has a cough. Mr. Matera says: "REM is a very good expectorant, loosens the phlegm in the throat, soothes the tissues, and promptly checks the coughing." This prompt action of REM is partly due to a special ingredient not found in ordinary cough remedies. Though harmless itself, it helps produce the quick soothing effect so noticeable when REM is swallowed. Then he adds: "It's an easy remedy to give children because they like to take it, and I've noticed that it always does all that is claimed for it."

MOTHER DISCOVERS -- DAUGHTER PROFITS

FLORENCE DRUMMOND

Finds REM brings quick cough relief

The Drummond family of 1322 Watson Ave., St. Paul, Minn., enjoy good health at most times, but coughs do come their way occasionally. Mrs. Drummond, one time, was suffering from a bad cough when a kindly neighbor recommended REM. To Mrs. Drummond's delight, "REM" relieved her almost at once and I've had a good word for it ever since." Later on when little Florence got a cough, what more natural than that her mother should remember her own happy experience with REM. And once again REM "made good" in the Drummond family. So it goes. When a member of a family once tries REM, it usually isn't long before it's the regular cough medicine for the whole household. Try it for yourself!

REM's exclusive formula explains its splendid results. Economical, too!
