

BURGLARS GET JEWELS WORTH $1,100 IN HOME

Operator of Lunch Stand Foils Negro Bandits, Grabbing Gun.

Jewels valued at more than $1,100 were stolen from the home of Mrs. Jewell Williams, 428 North Pine street, by burglars Sunday.

The loot included three diamond rings valued at $250 and another diamond ring, set with garnets, valued at $850. In addition, the burglars got a wrist watch and clothing.

The burglary was the most lucrative of a number over the weekend. Loot totalling more than $1,475 was reported taken in burglaries and holdups.

Grabs Gun

Hildred Howard, lunch stand proprietor at 923 West New York street, foiled a holdup of the lunch stand by grabbing a revolver pointed at him by one of two Negro bandits Sunday night. He was cut on the head when the second bandit, slugged him with a revolver butt.

Howard was robbed of his $2 watch, but the bandits fled without taking any money from the cash register. Howard was sent to city hospital.

Four groceries were entered by burglars who took a wide variety of foodstuffs and merchandise.

Steal Groceries

At the George Hildner grocery, 901 Harrison street, the burglars got ham and bacon valued at $20. A connecting door into the F. H. Pope machine shop, 903 Harrison street, was forced but nothing taken.

Cigarettes valued at $40, shirts and stockings worth $2 and $4 in each comprised the loot at the Harry Linder grocery, 847 West Eleventh street.

At the Lee Cooley grocery, 1553 Cruff street, $25 worth of silk hose and several cartons of cigarettes were taken.

A small quantity of foodstuffs was taken by burglars from the M. M. Dell grocery at 2228 North New Jersey street.

Two Negro bandits held up and robbed Elzie White, 33, of 2231 Wheeler street, conductor on a Columbia-Indiana street car, at Thirteenth and West at 8:30 Sunday night, escaping with $22. A third Negro drove the car in which the two escaped.

Druggist Is Robbed

Glenn Kennedy was robbed of $30 and his wife of $2 by two bandits at his drug store at 4001 Shelby street Saturday night.

Carl Shores of 937 Lexington avenue, operator of a West Indianapolis bus, was held up and robbed by a passenger at Howard and Lam streets. The armed man got $10 and stole the bus.

Two Negroes held up Mrs. Eleanor Kiasing of 1620 Naomi street and Samuel Nose of 1615 Villa avenue in the Kiasing Coal Company office, Bethel avenue and the Belt railway, Saturday night, escaping with $25. A radio valued at $150 and $22 in cash were reported stolen from the home of Theodore Patterson, Negro, of 2261 Indianapolis avenue, Sunday.

Twelve dozen shirts and large quantities of neckties, caps and silks, valued at $225, were stolen from the Harry Denker store, 1112 Prospect street, by burglars Sunday night.

HELD ON CHECK CHARGE

C. T. Bragg, 2602 North Illinois street, is held on charges of vagrancy and will be charged with passing fraudulent checks as a result of private detective work by Lewis Elkowitz, fruit stand proprietor at 1305 North Illinois street.

Elkowitz traced Bragg by his automobile license number after a $5 check Bragg gave for 20 cents' worth of fruit, was returned as worthless.

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

MILLION-DOLLAR SUIT FOR LIBEL IS UNDER WAY

Texas G. O. P. Leader Says Articles on Patronage Damaged Him.

By United Press
BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Dec. 2.—A suit for $1,000,000 against P. F. Collier & Son, publishers of Collier's weekly, filed by R. B. Creager, Republican leader and Texas national committeeman, charging libel in articles carried by the magazine concerning alleged patronage, opened in federal court here today.

Creager objected to an article written by William G. Shepherd, called "Jobs for Jack," and another by Owen P. White, called "High-Handed and Hell-Bent," charging they involved him in asserted political corruption and injured his reputation.

The Republican leader, who was a chief witness before the recent patronage investigation committee of the Senate, asked $500,000 from the publishers and a similar sum from A. P. Collier and Son, a distributing company.

Creager's home is in Cameron county, which was affected by the charges said to have been made in the magazine articles, as was Hidalgo, an adjoining county.

The latter county was referred to the complainant said, as the land of "Grapefruit and Graft," and White was accused of charging Creager and Sheriff A. Y. Baker were in partnership in a political organization which offered an "advanced course in vote switching, jail dodging, plain and fancy grafting."

Alaska Leads in Airports

By United Press
CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—The Alaska gold rush days has been lost in the wash of scores of airplane propellers, and the northernmost possession of the United States stands now in the enviable position of leading the world in the number of airports and landing fields in comparison to its population. With some 60,000 people and sixty-five airports, Alaska has one of the latter for each 908 inhabitants.

LADY, 74, SAYS KONJOLA ENDED STUBBORN ILLS

Further Remarkable Triumph Scored by New and Different Medicine.

No wonder Konjola is so highly praised; no wonder it is a medicine with more than a million friends, when it continues to win amazing victories over stubborn ailments that for years resisted and defeated all other medicines and treatments.

MRS. MARY SULL

—Photo by National Studio Illinois Bldg. tried! Nor is it so very remarkable that Konjola scores such triumphs, for it is, in reality, 32 medicines in one, and of these 32 ingredients, 22 are juices of roots and herbs long known for their medicinal value.

Konjola is made to make good, and it makes good, as it did for Mrs. Sull, 2178 North Rural street, Indianapolis. Would you know all about Konjola, this remarkable medicine? Then talk with the Konjola Man, who is at the Hook Dependable Drug Store, Illinois and Washington streets, this city. He can and gladly will give you the facts about this medicine and cite instances of the remarkable results it is giving in the relief of stomach, liver, kidney and bowel troubles, and of rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness.

Learn of and be guided by such happy experiences as Mrs. Sull had with this medicine. Grateful for her newly-found health, she said to the Konjola Man:

"Konjola is a medicine that is well worthy of my praise. For several years I had a very bad case of stomach trouble. Misery and distress seemed to be my lot at all times. Acid reactions in my stomach caused a world of misery. A hot, sour liquid often came up in my throat after meals producing a burning sensation. Gas formed and I bloated terribly. Smothering spells were common. My liver became disordered and I suffered with dizzy spells. At times black spots floated before my eyes. My tongue was badly coated. I could not sleep well, and was weak, nervous, and badly run-down.

Konjola was recommended to me by friends and as I had read a great deal about this medicine in the newspapers I thought it must have more than ordinary merit. But I was surprised at the merit it actually did have as proved by the results it gave me. I have taken, in all, seven bottles, and although I am 74 years old and had suffered with my trouble for several years, today I do not have a symptom of stomach trouble. I can eat practically anything I wish without the least bit of discomfort. Smothering spells, dizzy spells, spots before the eyes, and all the other troubles are things of the past. My nerves are quiet and I sleep soundly. I am glad to recommend Konjola to all who are afflicted as I was."

After all, what is wiser than to be guided by the experiences of others? Why not let such an experience, as that of Mrs. Sull, point the way for you to new and glorious health?

The Konjola Man is at the Hook Dependable Drug Store, Illinois and Washington streets, Indianapolis, where daily he is meeting the public, introducing and explaining the merits of this new and different medicine—advertising.
