

BUSINESS MEN'S AIR CLASSES TO START AT ONCE

Curtiss-Wright Sponsors
Course of Eight Weeks'
Duration.

A new type of aviation classes for business and professional men will be opened Wednesday by Curtiss-Wright Flying Service of Indiana. General Manager H. Weir Cook announced today.

The course will include two duplicate lectures each week for eight weeks; one, a luncheon on Wednesday at the Columbia Club, and the other Friday at 4:30 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce, together with eight instructive airplane flights.

First lecture will be given by Prof. George W. Haskins, Purdue university, on theory of flight. The remaining lectures will be given by school manager, W. H. Armstrong, meteorologist; N. H. Gilman, Allison Engineering Company vice-president and general manager; C. L. Zechel, attorney; Charles E. Cox Jr., Curtiss assistant manager, and Earl W. Sweeney, Curtiss chief flight instructor.

More than fifty business men have been enrolled.

The course was designed to give business men a general knowledge of aviation in all its various phases, Cook said.

TRAVELERS' AID CLUB RENAMES DIRECTORS

Annual Report Shows 5,543 Were Cared for During Year.

Two directors were re-elected for three years and five new ones named at the annual meeting of the Travelers' Aid Society at its annual dinner Monday night in the Columbia Club. Mrs. Grace Amorosi, executive secretary, outlined the society's work during the year.

The Rev. Charles H. Winders and John C. Millsap were renominated to the directors' board, while Guy K. Jefferies, J. P. Corcoran, George P. Scheer, R. S. Ferguson, C. D. Harding and E. S. Pearce are new directors.

The society cared for 5,543 persons on an appropriation of $6,325 received from the community fund, with a small balance left over, according to the financial report.

AGED WIDOW IS DEAD

Body of Mrs. Mary M. Steel Will Go to Cincinnati for Burial.

Funeral services will be held at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. L. Fellows of 4330 Washington boulevard, for her mother, Mrs. Mary M. Steel, 81, who died Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Steel was the widow of Samuel C. Steel, chief examiner of the railway mail service at Cincinnati for many years. Her first husband, the late Dr. John J. Hight, was editor of the Western Christian Advocate for many years. Burial will be at Cincinnati Thursday.

BRANCH ESTABLISHED TO STUDY NUTRITION

State School of Dentistry Will Test
Effect of Food on Teeth.

Nutrition problems and their relation to dental diseases will be studied by a research foundation organized at the Indiana university's school of dentistry.

Dr. Sherman L. Davis, a member of the faculty, and a recognized authority on questions of nutrition, will be in charge of the foundation. He will be aided by an advisory council of medical men and dentists.

Fellowships in the foundation will be established for students with special qualifications.

It is the hope Dr. F. R. Henshaw, dean of the dental school, that the foundation will attract philanthropic gifts of money to aid the foundation's program.

APARTMENT IS ROBBED

A trade is no robbery.

That may be the defense of a burglar who entered the apartment of Mrs. John Ennis, No. 9, at 108 East St. Clair street, Monday night and stole $80 worth of clothing and jewelry and $5 in cash.

The burglar's loot included an overcoat. He changed overcoats in the apartment, leaving his old ragged garment in exchange.

Don't let SORE THROAT get the best of you...

FIVE minutes after you rub on Musterole your throat should begin to feel less sore! Continue the treatment once every hour for five hours and you'll be astonished at the relief.

Working like the trained hands of a masseur, this famous blend of oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other ingredients brings relief naturally. It penetrates and stimulates blood circulation and helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years, recommended by doctors and nurses. Keep Musterole handy—jars and tubes.

To Mothers—Musterole is also made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Blames Pilot

News that the largest plane he ever built—and the largest land plane in the United States—had crashed and burned only a few hours before, awaited Anthony H. G. Fokker, pictured here, when he returned to New York from Europe.

Besides the loss of the four-motored 32-passenger F-32, Fokker learned his company probably would be sued by owners of homes damaged in the fall of the giant craft. He blamed the carelessness of the pilot, who was a department of commerce inspector.

Every ton of coal burned in a locomotive's fire-grate boils eight tons of water.

FOUR QUEENS IN LONDON FOR BARGAIN HUNTS

English, Norwegian, Spanish and Danish Royalty
Shop for Gifts.

By United Press
LONDON, Dec. 3.—This is the time of year when London shop attendants are liable to receive the thrill of their lives. Four queens are doing their Christmas shopping early in London this season.

Queen Mary has been visiting a number of famous antique shops on her annual pilgrimage. Queen Maud of Norway, who came to London when her sister, the Princess Royal, became ill, has been a frequent visitor to west end stores. Queen Victoria-Eugenia of Spain is the third member of the royal shopping group, and Queen Alexandra of Denmark is the fourth.

The queens go about their shopping very much like other bargain hunters. Queen Mary is an especially keen shopper, and she should be, for each year she sends some 350 gifts, each with a personal note of greeting.

She usually enters a shop with a lady-in-waiting, and unless she is spotted by an alert manager, the queen may mingle with the shoppers unnoticed until some shop girl gasps, swallows, and manages to murmur, "Yes, Your Majesty."

Queen Mary's purchases range from valuable antiques and laces to children's toys. The grandchildren to be remembered are Princess Elizabeth, the young Viscountess, and two daughters after Christmas, and his younger brother, the Honorable Gerald Lascelles.

Itchy Eczema on Hands For Two Years. Cuticura Healed.

"My eczema started by little blisters breaking out on my fingers. Later it broke out in large patches that scaled over. When I scratched them they used to bleed and crack open. They itched very much and when I put my hands in water they became worse. I had the eczema about two years.

"I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in a few days the eczema started to get better, and after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Sylvia Viola Riffel, R. 1, Box 7A, Clinton, Mo., Feb. 20, 1929.

Rheumatic Pains Gone

Frank Seeger, 310 Romig St., Lafayette, Ind., says: "I had suffered for some time with rheumatic pains due to a kidney infection that was poisoning my system. I was so sore and stiff that when I would bend over I felt as though a million needles were piercing my body. The rheumatic pains left almost instantly after a few doses of Argray Tablets. I continued for a few weeks until I had taken three bottles, relieving the kidney trouble. I am now feeling like a new man." Try one package of Argray Tablets under positive guarantee. 99¢ at all druggists.
