

BRITISH LOWER HOUSE FAVORS PEACE MOVES

Commons Backs Reduction of Arms: Pay Tribute to Hoover Speech.

By United Press
LONDON, Dec. 5.—Great Britain's house of commons once more has voted confidence in Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald's moves toward world peace and reduction of armaments.

The expression of confidence was the commons' voteless approval of a motion asking the government to do everything in its power to stimulate international action for reduction and limitations of naval, military and war armaments, adding that it is "desirable to co-ordinate the defense forces of this country."

Former Premier David Lloyd George, speaking for the motion, paid tribute to President Hoover's armistice day speech and his earnest efforts toward international understand-

"He did not cry peace where there was no peace," Lloyd George said.
"Everybody is proceeding on the assumption that after the last war, war is impossible. Nobody had the courage to say that was not so except Hoover."

The liberal leader cited the increasing armaments since 1914 and referred to the eloquent speeches at Geneva favoring peace, disarmament and arbitration.

"The League of Nations is in danger of failure by being run by flap-doo-dlers," he added. "You are not going to get peace with 30,000,000 armed men and gigantic armaments.
The chariot of peace can not advance along a road cluttered with cannon."

"I was suffering intense pain with lumbago owing to a kid-new disorder that had poisoned my system. It seemed as though I would never get relief until I learned about Ar-gray tablets. I used two bottles of Argray tablets, cleaning my system and stimulating the glands to function as nature intended, giving me a renewed energy. I now feel like a new man as the pans are gone, leaving me feeling
