

TWO ARRESTED FOR WEEK-END THEFTS IN CITY

Purse-Snatcher, 14, Held; Youth Charged With Vehicle Taking.

With almost a score of holdups, burglaries and thefts perpetrated over the week-end, police made arrests in only two cases.

Arrest of a 14-year-old boy Sunday is expected to solve a number of purse-snatching cases. The boy was caught by Milburn Grido and Lure Spears Saturday night, after a chase on South New Jersey street. He admitted, police say, that he snatched a pocketbook from Mrs. Nina Kelley, 606 Fletcher avenue, Saturday night.

Ralph Spears, 12, of 529½ Lord street, caused the arrest when he recognized the youth as the one who robbed him of $1.40 a week ago.

Mrs. Bonnie Hash, 45, of 301 Bright street, reported her purse containing $1 was snatched Saturday night near her home and police are questioning the youth.

Take Pay Check

Mrs. Elizabeth Todd, Negro, of 809 Fayette street, reported $45 was in her purse when three men snatched it on West street near St. Clair street Sunday night.

After John Steggs of 303 North East street, reported he was robbed of his $50 pay check and $5 in cash at the home of Gar Armstrong, 1019 Iowa street, Saturday night, police arrested Arthur Hathaway of 730 West New York street; William Edwards of 327 Agnes street; Otto Spaul of 1019 Rowens street; Roy Loomis of 315 West Ohio street, on charges of intoxication and vagrancy. It was found Steggs' pay check had been cashed by two of the men, police say.

George Kirk, 18, of 2036 West Tenth street, was charged with vagrancy and vehicle taking after being arrested in a shed in the rear of the home of Mrs. Foster Covington, 951 North Sheffield avenue, where a stolen car, owned by Mrs. Ora Barlow of 3420 Prospect street, was found. Mrs. Covington reported three different cars had been left overnight in the shed within a week.

Holdups reported were: Ben Nicholl, 1330 English avenue, driver for Omar Baking Company, robbed Saturday night of $20 by two Negroes at Lenox street and Senate avenue.

Holds Grow

T. T. Frake, 1711 South Emerson avenue, driver for Sterling Laundry Company, robbed of $60 Saturday night by a Negro at Ogden and Fourteenth streets.

Morris Harris, 141 West Twenty-eighth street, Red Cab driver, robbed of $10.50 by two Negroes at Twenty-first street and Hillside avenue, Saturday night.

Winter Comes to Capital

King Winter laid his icy paw on the nation's Capitol, and here you see a striking night view of the famous dome, framed between the frozen branches of trees when sleet and drizzling rain formed a sheet of ice over Washington. Two representatives, approaching the Capitol building for the opening of the seventy-first congress, slipped and fell and were injured painfully.

BOLES RITES SLATED

Hold Funeral Wednesday at Heath Church.

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Boles, 50, wife of Ralph Boles, J. I. Holcomb & Co. traffic manager, who died Sunday at the family residence, 429 North Davidson street, will be held at Heath Memorial M. E. church at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

A burglar stole trousers belonging to H. C. Lord, 830 West Twenty-eighth street, from his bedroom Sunday night, leaving the trousers in the yard after stealing $18 from pockets.

NUT SHORTAGE FACED

Squirrels Will Have Hard Winter, Asserts Agriculture Expert.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Squirrels through the country are facing a hard winter due to a dearth of nuts, C. A. Reade, agriculture department expert, said today. Nut-bearing trees in all sections of the country were adversely affected by unseasonable weather last spring, Reade said, resulting in short crops.

CHINA IS READY TO INAUGURATE AIRPLANE LINE

Nanking-Peiping Trip of 700 Miles to Become Quick Journey.

BY EVA CHANG, United Press Staff Correspondent NANKING, Dec. 9.—Early next year a distance of some 700 miles between two important cities in China will be shortened to a few-hour journey by inauguration of the Nanking-Peiping air line, the second project of the China National Aviation Corporation. Stops will be made at Hsichow, Tsinan and Tientsin.

A third line which will either connect Shanghai with Canton via Ningpo, Wenchow, Foochow, Amoy and Swatow or Hankow with Canton via Shanghsia will also be inaugurated at the same time.

According to the China National Aviation Corporation, this is only the initial activity of the corporation whose ultimate object is to develop commercial aviation throughout China. Other lines subsequently will be instituted so as to form a network over the entire country.

The Shanghai-Hankow air mail service, the first line operated by the corporation, was started on Oct. 21 and has proven successful. The distance of 516 miles in air is made in seven hours, allowing time for stops at Nanking and Kuklung.

Four Loening amphibious air yachts are used on the line, each having a carrying capacity of six passengers, 300 pounds of mail and freight besides the pilot and mechanic. The seats are movable and the ride is smooth and enjoyable.

For the time being the planes are piloted by three Americans, Harry Smith, E. M. Allison and S. T. Kauffman, each of whom has had at least four years of experience with several thousand flying hours to his credit.

They are also holders of licenses issued by the national government.

A school will soon be established to train Chinese pilots, who will in time supply the need when commercial aviation further develops.

It is the policy of the corporation to use Chinese pilots whenever possible.

MARIGOLD CLUB TO KEEP GOING

Reopening Slated Tonight, With Dance Permit.

Doors of the Marigold Club, Indianapolis' new and only night club, located in the Liberry hotel, 3208 East Michigan street, will reopen tonight after one-night holiday enforced by police.

William A. Quillin, contractor, proprietor of the club, said he would obtain a permit today to operate a dance.

Police Chief Claude M. Worley and Major Lewis Johnson paid a brief call at the club Saturday night, causing a general alarm of a police raid among several hundred patrons at tables and in booths.

But despite the discovery of two bottles of liquor abandoned by departed guests, Chief Worley announced that his visit merely was to inquire about the permit.

"This is a club. We understand clubs are not required to operate under a police permit to dance," Quillin explained.

Membership cards are issued to guests, he said. Returning to police headquarters, Chief Worley dispatched a police squad to stop the dance. Cover charges were refunded to guests as the merrymaking halted.

The club was opened shortly before Thanksgiving.

Three Cities in Running

By United Press WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—One of three cities, Chicago, Miami or Springfield, Mass., will be chosen Tuesday for the 1930 national air races, the National Aeronautic Association said today.
