

MEXICO SEVERES RELATIONS WITH SOVIET RUSSIA

Government Closes Legation in Moscow, Formally Cuts Off Ties.

BY JOHN R. MORRIS
United Press Staff Correspondent MEXICO CITY, Jan. 24. — The first Soviet legation in the western hemisphere was closed here today and interest was centered in the reaction from Moscow to Mexico's severance of diplomatic relations with Russia.

The summary announcement that the recent recurrence of Communist attacks on Mexican embassies in Washington, Buenos Aires and Rio De Janeiro had forced the government to close its legation in Moscow and formally break off diplomatic relations caused a flurry in the capital.

The Mexican government declared, however, that the attacks, as well as other manifestations of unfriendliness toward Mexico, has made it impossible to continue its policy of tolerance.

In recent weeks Mexico has deported several groups of alleged foreign Communists and agitators and imprisoned numerous Mexicans on similar charges.

An official statement declared the Mexican government had attempted to maintain friendly relations toward the Soviet, but that this was unreciprocated by Russia.

The immediate cause of the break, it is believed, was a Communist demonstration outside the Mexican embassy in Rio De Janeiro on Tuesday, when forty Reds, throwing stones at the building, shouted:

"Down with Mexico! The government of Mexico is sold to the clericals and North American imperialism!"

RADIO FANS TO HEAR STRADIVARIUS VIOLIN

Rare Instrument Will Be Taken to Studio in Armored Car.

A rare $50,000 Antonius Stradivarius violin will be played over WKBF Friday night by Olive Klier, prominent Indianapolis violinist, between 8:30 and 9:30. She will be accompanied at the piano by Una Talbot-Wehman. So many requests have been received by the Wilking Music Company to hear this famous violin that they have been persuaded to play it over the air.

The collection on exhibition is from the private collection of Rudolph Wurlitzer and is valued at $500,000. Special police protection has been given it while in the city and one violin, valued at $50,000, will be taken to the WKBF Broadcasting Studio in an armored car.

The collection is on display at the Wilking Music Company, 120 East Ohio street. The public is invited to inspect these rare violins.

ADVERTISING IS PRAISED

Dr. Stanley Coulter Lauds Work in Uplifting Civilization.

Advertising has done much to uplift our civilization by showing men and women the things and services they need and by creating many new necessities of life. Dr. Stanley Coulter, the research department of Eli Lilly & Co., former dean of Purdue university, declared in an address on "What I Think of Advertising," to the Advertising Club of Indianapolis at the Columbia Club Thursday.

"Many persons," he said, "continue in the same old rut of existence, but the advertising men and women are compelled to keep their eyes on new horizons and then present their visions of better things to their more submerged brethren of life. Advertising is the forerunner of creative thinking on the part of the mass of people of society."

Boy Scouts to Meet

WINCHESTER, Ind., Jan. 24.— More than 150 Boy Scouts from Ridgeville, Parker, Lynn, Winchester and other neighboring towns are expected to attend a jamboree here, Feb. 11. This will be the first inter-scout activity of the Randolph county council.

Star on Air

Grace Hyde, whose beauty and soprano voice have been acclaimed by audiences in this country and abroad, has joined radio's ranks and is now heard during her own half-hour program every Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Indianapolis time, over stations of the Columbia broadcasting system.

Following London engagements in Herbert's "The Only Girl" and Lorillard's "Tonight's the Night," Miss Hyde returned to America to rejoin the exclusive Palm Beach colony, where her voice and charm at once attracted public attention.
She has appeared in numerous recitals and only recently has been signed by Florenz Ziegfeld for a leading role in his forthcoming production, "Ming Toy."

Road May Be Opened

GIBSON, Ind., Jan. 24.—State highway commission engineers here are surveying land for a proposed viaduct over the Indiana Harbor Belt railway yards here. Completion of the viaduct will remove the last obstacle to a through route to Chicago.

FIRE IN HOTEL BRINGS PROBE

Refuse-Choked Stairway Branded Menace.

Fire, starting in the wall of a lavatory on the second floor of the Tourist Inn, two-story hotel building at 359 1/2 West Washington street, Thursday night, will be the subject of a rigid investigation by the city fire prevention bureau.

A wide wooded staircase, erected as a fire escape, was found to be choked with ashes, kindling and rubbish, Fred C. Kennedy, assistant fire chief said, constituting a serious fire hazard.

Mrs. Emma Ackerman, operator of the hotel, was questioned by police. Guests at the hotel said hot ashes from a base burner on the second floor had been dumped down the stairway or piled in a corner of the lavatory. Damage to the hotel by the blaze was light.

Fire early today routed the family of Mrs. Susie Roberts from the home at 250 North Tacoma street.
Damage totaled $100, the blaze being due to a defective flue.

Death Follows Operation

WINCHESTER, Ind., Jan. 24.— Mrs. Elvira Moorman, 78, is dead here, following an operation. She was the widow of T. F. Moorman.
She had spent her entire life in Randolph county. She leaves two sons, Herbert, New York, and Lester, Indianapolis; two brothers, George and William Elatt, Winchester; and three grandsons, Dr. Russell F.
Moorman, Winchester, Edwin, Buffalo, N. Y., and William, a student at De Pauw university and a granddaughter, Miss Carolyn Moorman, New York.

Building Inspector Sought

ANDERSON, Ind., Jan. 24.—Appointment of a city building inspector is sought in a petition signed by 100 persons and filed with City Clerk Francis Hernan for consideration at the next meeting of the city council.

COLD

Do this: 1: Check Fever 2: Open Bowels 3: Tonic System to stop cold in a day

A slight headache? ... A sneeze or sniffle? ... A few sore muscles? ...
