

Institute to Be Scene of Art Session

Lovers of art throughout the state will gather in Indianapolis next Friday and Saturday to attend the fifth annual state convention of the Indiana Federation of Art Clubs.

The meetings will be held at the John Herron Art Institute. The theme for the convention this year is "The Need for Art in Life."

The conference will open at 10 o'clock Friday morning with a meeting of the executive board in the printroom of the institute. At 10:30 a meeting of chairmen of districts will be held in the upper east gallery, with Mrs. H. A. Carter, Connersville, presiding. At the same time members of the garden conference will be meeting in the center gallery, with Mrs. C. Mac C. Van Dorn, Flora, presiding and the art-club conference will be held in the primitive gallery, with Mrs. Ida Strawnaker presiding.

Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock at the Colonial tearoom, 1433 North Pennsylvania street. Mrs. Robert Elliott and Mrs. Frank A. Schlichte, Rushville, will be hostesses. Mrs. Everett M. Schofield will preside. Seth M. Velsey, sculptor, will talk on "Memorials and Their Appropriateness."

Greetings to Be Extended

The convention proper will open at 1:30 in the center gallery of the institute, with Mrs. H. B. Burnett, president, and Mrs. John T. Wheeler, chairman of the program committee, presiding. Wilbur D. Peat, director of the John Herron Art Institute, will extend greetings. Reports of officers and committee chairmen will be given. The nominating committee will give a report and amendments to the constitution will be discussed. A. G. Mitten, Goodland, will address the group on "Village Flower Shows."

At 4 o'clock, Mr. Peat will conduct a tour through the museum and Miss Edna Mann Shover, principal, will take the members attending the convention through the institute. Friday evening will be informal. The meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in the sculpture court at the art institute.

The Indianapolis Art Association and the Indiana Artists' Club will be hosts, represented by Mr. Peat and George C. Calvert, president of the Indiana artists. Miss Caryll Strauss will give "Travel Sketches in Costume." The address for the evening will be delivered by Allen Diehl Albert, assistant to the president of Chicago world's fair centennial celebration, 1933. Mr. Albert will talk on "Late Developments of the Century of Progress, 1933." A social hour will follow.

Committee Heads to Report

Saturday morning session will convene at 10 o'clock in the center gallery of the institute, with Mrs. Burnett and Mrs. Leon Stern, chairman of fine arts, presiding. Committee reports and business discussions will be held. Mrs. C. B. King, executive secretary, will tell of the progress of the Hoosier Salon. Election will be held.

Luncheon Saturday will be held at the Women's Department Club, 1702 North Meridian street, with Mrs. R. O. McAlexander and Mrs. Lawrence Keely, Madison, presiding. Mrs. J. R. Marsh, Muncie, will preside. The Rev. J. B. Langstaff, pastor of Grace church, New York, will speak on "The David Copperfield Library, Somerset, England."

Saturday afternoon at 1:30 Robert V. Burke, professor of fine arts, Indiana university, will talk on "Introduction to the Study of Art Appreciation." Mr. Peat will talk a medals and there will be an exhibit of medals, through the courtesy of the Medallic Art Company, New York.

A motor pilgrimage to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Calvert, the studio of Mr. Velsey and to the Scottish Rite cathedral will be taken by delegates.

The biggest event of the convention will be the banquet at 6:30 Saturday night in the Riley room of the Claypool, when Ian B. Doughton Holburn, M. A., Oxford, Edinburgh, Scotland, will speak on "Art and Beauty in Relation to Life and Education." He is American to found a model university art department at Carleton College, Minnesota.

Members of the reception committee for the dinner will be Dr. and

Healthiest

"My little daughter is just about as healthiest girl I know," says Mrs. Ivan Spencer, 832 Bradshaw, Indianapolis. "And I want to live credit where it is due."

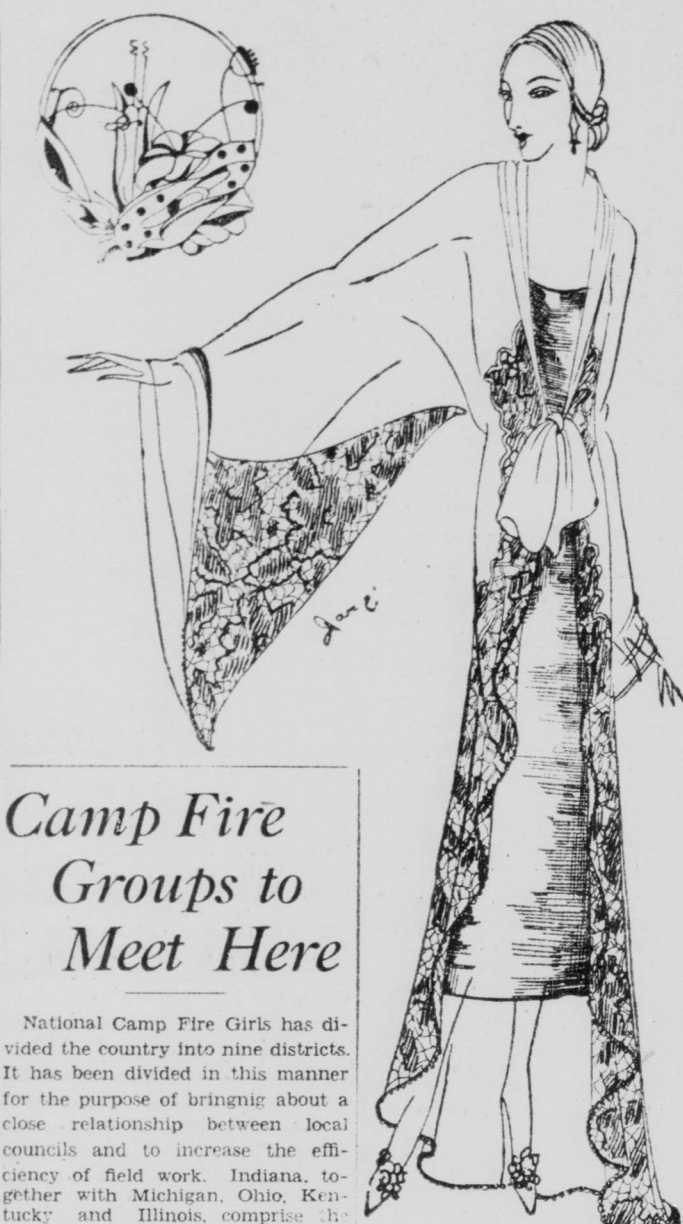

"Emma was constipated several years ago and gave her California Syrup. It helped her so wonderfully that I have used it ever since for all her upsets or colds. It kept her strong, energetic, and happy. Children suffer when bowels aren't regular. Breath becomes dull; tongue coated; eyes dull; then these symptoms are neglected, biliousness, feverishness, lack of appetite invariably follow."

The first dose of California Fig Syrup relieves these symptoms and restores sluggish bowels. Successive doses help tone and strengthen weak bowels; improve appetite; encourage digestion and assimilation; rid the system of bilious, headachy, constipated chills and see how it kept!

The pure vegetable product, endorsed by doctors for 50 years, always bears the name California. Look for it when buying—Advert.

Camp Fire Groups to Meet Here

National Camp Fire Girls has divided the country into nine districts. It has been divided in this manner for the purpose of bringing about a close relationship between local councils and to increase the efficiency of field work. Indiana, together with Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois, comprise the ninth district or Great Lakes district.

Each district has its own executive committee. Mrs. H. M. Tarr, Cleveland, is chairman of the Ninth district. Mrs. Charles Smith, president of the Indianapolis Camp Fire Girls, is vice-chairman.

Annual district meeting is to be held in Indianapolis, Friday, April 25. The meetings and luncheons will be held at the Lincoln.

Delegates will be representatives from local councils and executives from the five states.

Annual meeting of the local Indianapolis Camp Fire Council is to be held Thursday, April 24, at the Lincoln in connection with the convention.

Calverts Are Winners at Artists' Ball

The roof garden on the Hotel Severin was transformed into a lovely Oriental festival street scene for the annual Indiana Artists Club, Saturday night.

The artists identified themselves, among their several hundred guests, by wearing Chinese costumes. Chinese mandarins, bandits, warriors all degrees of royalty, Chinese dancing girls and Chinese ladies were in evidence. The costumes were colorful and original.

The dance, given every year, resembles in a small way the revelry of the famous Beaux Art ball given by the artists of Paris. Both the decorations and the costumes, executed by the members of the club, are distinctly original. Over the entrance into the ballroom and concealing the wall lights were paintings of Chinese pagodas and "the Tong" signs of Hoosier artists and art schools.

George C. Calvert, president of the club, and his wife, wore Chinese pajamas, embroidered Chinese slippers and headresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hines, dressed as an officer of the Russian royal guard and a lady of the Russian court, were awarded first prize for the most beautifully costumed couple. Second prize for the most beautifully costumed individual went to Miss Lillie De Carlo, who was dressed as a Japanese dancing girl.

Miss Ruth Edwards, dressed in a startling costume of a Chinese warrior, won third prize, for the most original costume.

BRIDAL COUPLE IS FETED AT DINNER
