

FRANCE FEARS DRIVE ON PACT OF VERSAILLES

Charges German Agitation
Is Creating 'Deplorable
Suspicion.'

By United Press
PARIS, Aug. 15.—France continued uneasy today concerning efforts of Germans for revision of the Versailles treaty despite the assurances of Ambassador Leopold Von Hoesch that the blunt speeches of Gottfried Treviranus, German minister without portfolio, wholly were unofficial, and not representative of the German government's sentiment.

Coincident with advices from Berlin that a determined campaign for treaty revision may be started soon, semi-official quarters here said the Reich foreign policy in the last two months had created "deplorable suspicion" in the minds of various European countries.

General French opinion is that German agitation is making neighboring states fearful, especially Poland, which Thursday formally protested to the German charge d'affaires at Warsaw against Treviranus's speech urging changes in the Polish-German frontier.

SEALED GRAVE MYSTERY KEY

Wife Thought Dead, Returns; Husband Remarried.

By United Press
SPRINGFIELD, Vt., Aug. 15.—A cemetery plot at Chester was believed to hold the answer to the mystery of the year-long separation of George Packard and his wife Catherine and, likewise, the identity of the body buried under the name of Mrs. Packard as a suicide.

Mrs. Packard has reappeared, after being found in Manchester, N. H., and has opened a strange mystery case.

Her husband is honeymooning with a waitress he married after he believed his wife had committed suicide in an attack of melancholia. But with reappearance of Mrs. Packard, authorities today sought identity of that body buried at Chester, and have called upon Packard to come here and aid them.

ENGLISH CHURCH GROUP ACTS ON BIRTH CONTROL

Divorced Person, With Ex-
Partner Alive, Would Be Refused New Marriage.

By United Press
LONDON, Aug. 15.—Attitude of the church toward modern life again became the subject of heated controversy today, with publication of the Lambeth conference resolutions providing for the guidance of Christian principles in practice of birth control.

The resolutions also recommended that a divorced person whose former partner is still alive be refused celebration of a second marriage according to rites of the church.

The birth control resolution emphasized the need for sex education.

"Where there is clearly felt a moral obligation to limit or avoid parenthood, the method must be decided on Christian principles," the resolution says.

The conference strongly condemned birth control practiced for "motives of selfishness, luxury or mere convenience." Legislation placing definite restrictions on birth control information was recommended "in view of widespread and increasing irregular unions."

Open Saturday Until 6 P. M.

August 15, 1930.

Dear Mrs. Everybody:
Some people think of a furniture store as a place to come only when they want to buy. It's more. At least ours is. It's a place to come and browse, and plan, and get ideas.
You may be thinking of a rearrangement in one of your rooms. Perhaps you want to borrow an idea. This is the place to come. We're in touch with people who know, people who do things. And things are done chiefly through ideas.
We like to be helpful, even if we don't sell something. Then when we do sell something, we feel we've earned the right to the sale. But we like to have folks feel that they can come, whether they want to buy or not. Yes, we mean it.
You'll find that this is a somewhat different kind of a furniture store.

Very truly,
THE KIRK STORES.
