CHURCH GROUP WARS ON ALIEN AND WET RULE

'Protestant Alliance' Takes Up Cudgel Against
'Nation's Foes.'

By Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—For 2 cents dross can learn how to cut thirty wets from the congressional roster and for 4 cents they can get a lot more detail about that and the "stop alien representation" amendment.

This offer of information is contained in a letter from the American Protestant Alliance, which is described as a "practical basis of union to promote militant Protestantism without raising any real religious issue."

The alliance's chief effort this winter, apparently, will be to seek congressional approval of the proposed amendment, and this is seen as the "last hope of preventing a staggering permanent loss in the dry strength in congress."

The amendment is described as the Sparks-Capper stop alien representation amendment resolution, which, "by cutting out representation of unnaturalized foreigners, will offset much of the automatic loss, under the new apportionment, of at least forty dry rural congressional districts."

The alliance will have in the field the Rev. George M. Fowles, D. D., who last year was the treasurer of the foreign mission board of the Methodist Episcopal church. Fowles will act as chairman of the amendment campaign committee, which is asking for $250,000.

A large part of this amount, the article says, will be used for "intensive work to arouse dry Protestant pastors of the entire nation to demand "quick submission of the amendment in December."

The amendment, the alliance says, has been given the approval of Bishop Cannon.

"The Constitution of the United States makes representation in congress depend not on citizenship, but on population," says a statement by William H. Anderson, general secretary of the alliance. "As a result, some 7,500,000 unnaturalized aliens have about thirty congressmen, therefore thirty electoral votes, and also sixty delegates to the national convention of each party."

CIVIL SERVICE RULES WAIVED FOR WOMAN

Hoover Signs Order Aiding Widow of Slain Prohibition Agent.

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Civil service rules have been suspended in the case of Mrs. Frances Kearney, widow of a slain prohibition agent, President Hoover having signed an order permitting Mrs. Kearney to enter government service without civil service status.

Kearney was murdered from ambush at Aguilar, Colo., last June.

His widow, who has two children to support in Longmont, Colo., will be placed as a stenographer, it is understood.
