

2 ARE KILLED, MANY HURT IN AUTO CRASHES

Woman Is Struck by Speeding Car, Dies Instantly of Injuries.

Week-end auto accidents in and near Indianapolis took two lives and injured almost a score of persons, records of police, sheriff, and hospitals revealed this morning.

Her prayer book and rosary clutched in her hand, Mrs. Mary Van Camp, 60, 131 North Bradley avenue, was struck by a speeding auto at Bradley avenue and Michigan street Sunday.

She died almost instantly from a skull fracture. Police held William G. Schnef, 1333 Corner avenue, on charges of involuntary manslaughter, speeding, and driving without a license.

Boy Is Injured Fatally

Witnesses said Schnef was driving about forty-five miles an hour.

Mrs. William E. Masterson, 2016 West New York street, survives Mrs. Van Camp. Burial will be at Lafayette, following funeral services for which arrangements are not complete.

Gerald Wilburn, 16, R. R. 10, was injured fatally, but his brother was bruised only slightly when an auto struck a bicycle on which they were riding near Greensburg Sunday.

Name of the driver of the auto was not learned here.

Jack Bell, 4327 Rockville road, was charged with drunken driving and recklessness after his car sideswiped another auto and a street car Saturday night, injuring Mrs. Florence Roach, 862 South Worth street.

Harry Cooley, 21, of 1039 West Michigan street, taxicab driver, whose cab struck and injured Henry Seyfried, 58, of 3699 North Delaware street, an attorney, at Twenty-eighth and Meridian streets Saturday, was charged with speeding and reckless driving.

Following an accident Sunday night at Ruckle and Thirtieth streets, in which Jerry Hadley, 3444 North Pennsylvania street, was injured, perhaps seriously, police held Miss Katherine Budd, 17, of 2415 Shelby street, Apt. 18, driver of one of the cars, on assault and battery and failure to observe a preferential street.

Others injured:

George Henninger, 28, of 2810 Tenth street, head injuries; Mrs. Violet Kelley, 511 North Denny street, shock; M. E. Steward, 54, of 1063 High street, head, back, and body injuries; Joan Specker, 6, of 4612 Winthrop avenue, lacerations; Oliver Cornelius, 30, of 832 North Meridian street, Apt. 8, cut on forehead; Mrs. Edith Ramer, 31, R. R. 1, Windfall, chest injuries; Henry Kaminsky, 30, of 892 South Illinois street, cut and bruised; Jack Littlejohn, 29, of 51 West Fall Creek boulevard, cut above left eye, and Ed Snyder, 45, Kenny Simms, 35, Rox Simms, 9, Zella Snyder, 43, Mildred Snyder, 7, Ruth Snyder, 12, all of 2388 Cornell avenue, and Dorothea Dotchiff, 12, of 2357 Cornell avenue, minor injuries.
