

CHICAGO G. O. P. FIGHTS ACTION OF 'BIG BILL'

Cook County Group Chooses to Remain Faithful to Ruth McCormick.

By United Press
CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Relations between the Cook county Republican organization and Mayor William Hale Thompson, one of its most powerful factional leaders, were broken definitely today over the senatorial candidacy of Ruth Hanna McCormick.

Led by Chairman Bernard W. Snow, the county committee voted late Thursday to remain "regular," and in so doing chose to ignore Thompson's bolt from Mrs. McCormick.

Nothing has been said officially about Thompson's call on Chicago's Negro voters to scratch Mrs. McCormick's name and vote for James Hamilton Lewis, Democratic nominee. The inference, however, was unmistakable that the committee felt certain its ticket will win, whether Thompson backs it or not.

"As long as I am permitted to live I never will betray the people of Chicago by voting for any member of the McCormick family," Thompson said in a statement published Thursday night.

Any doubt that Thompson was responsible for the appeal to Negro vote was dispelled when he handed reporters copies of the circular with the remark:

"There is some doubt about where these are being given out. To clear up the mystery take one from me."

G. O. P. HOLDS PRAISE SESSION

Judicial Candidates Upheld at 22 Precinct Talks.

Reiteration that the Republican judicial candidates are "upstanding and high-grade" men was made by Republican speakers at twenty-two precinct rallies Thursday night.

They were led in their praise of praise by Walter O. Pritchard, Co. candidate for judge of the criminal court, who was nominated in the primary by the Co. organization. He defeated Judge James A. Collins, veteran jurist who inaugurated the probation system now in use in the county.

William Birchard Butler, nominee for county auditor; Jesse P. McClure, candidate for county clerk; and Frank E. Conner, nominee for county treasurer, all stressed the importance of tax reduction, economy and efficiency in the conduct of government, in talks at 1510 Mont-calm street.

They also declared the county government, under Republicans, had reduced the tax levy for 1931 2 1/2 cents while the Democratic city administration had refused to lower the rate. Dr. Ralph R. Coble, candidate for county coroner; Judson L. Stark for prosecutor, and others also spoke.
