

LESLIE FORCES HUFF CHOICE AS BUDGET CHIEF

New Chairman Unfamiliar With Work; Farrell Fails to Get Post.

Governor Harry G. Leslie was reported today to have dictated the election of State Senator Byron Huff (Rep., Martinsville) to the chairmanship of the state budget committee.

Huff was elected by the budget committee, upon motion of Representative Sam Farrell (Rep., Hartford City) at the budget committee organization meeting Thursday afternoon.

Farrell himself had been said to have been scheduled for the place. But Leslie gave Farrell his reappointment on the committee, knowing its legality had been questioned and without asking an opinion from the attorney-general's office.

Evidently feeling that this was sufficient he is said to have wanted Huff in the chairmanship.

Huff is entirely unfamiliar with budget committee work, it being his first services as a budget committee member. Farrell and Senator Thurman A. Goetz (Dem., Berne) are holdover members of the committee, both having been reappointed.

The other new Democratic member is Representative H. Curtis Bennett of Dillsboro.

HULA FASHION DECREED

Skirt Should Fall Just Below Knee, Natives Told.

HONOLULU, Nov. 21.—The correct style for hula skirts has been decreed by Hawaiian fashion experts.

The native dress will range "just below the knee" showing that the long-skirt idea has not hit the islands so hard. It takes from 40 to 80 ti plant leaves, depending on the size of the dancer, to make a hula skirt, and it takes about three hours to weave one.

Hoosiers Will Debate

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 20.—Albert Keck, South Bend, Ind., is captain of the men's negative debate team at Wittenberg College. Don Elder, Ft. Wayne, is also a member of the squad.

Noted Comedian Is Dead

NORTH BERGEN, N. J., Nov. 21.—Jimmy Hussey, Irish comedian, who specialized in caricatures of Irish policemen and Jewish magistrates, is dead.

No Wild Party

"I drank only water and lemonade in Cristobal." And that was that, so far as Aimee Semple McPherson, Four Square evangelist, was concerned with news reports that she had made a wild tour of the "hot spots" in the Canal Zone city.

Here you see her, as she arrived in New York, some thirty-six pounds lighter than before her illness last August.

The gospel exhorter, who used to be red-headed, but now is a blonde, sailed from the Canal Zone under the name of "Mrs. Betty Adams."

MORTGAGE WILL GO UP IN FIRE

Degree work will be given by the Grotto cast with Lee Blazer, dramatic director, in charge. Clyde E. Robinson, monarch, is in general charge of the program. Parade will form at city hall at 7:30.
