

SLAIN BANDIT BELIEVED SON OF DETECTIVE

Death Claims Second Youth
Wounded in Holdup of City Grocer.

A 19-year-old youth, identified only by the name of Nichols, slain in a grocery holdup Monday night, may be the son of a Detroit detective, Police Chief Jerry Kinney learned today.

Last hope of police here to identify the boy faded late Tuesday night as Paul Kiefer, 35, New York, Nichols' companion in the robbery attempt, died of wounds he received in the battle with Joseph Glosson, grocer, at 209 Ft. Wayne avenue.

Lapsed Into Coma
Kinney said a telegram this morning from a Detroit detective captain asked detailed description of the young bandit, stating a man in his office feared it was his son, missing from home.

Before Kiefer became unconscious Monday night he told detectives his young companion's name was Nichols, and said his home was in Detroit. Then refusing to answer further questions he lapsed into a coma in which he died Tuesday night.

Carried Water Pistol
Glosson attacked Kiefer and Nichols, who were armed with a water pistol, as they were binding his stepson, Richard Estridge, 17, with adhesive tape in a rear room of the store building.

Mrs. Glosson saw the bandits tying up her son when she peered through a trap door in the floor of their home above the store, after hearing strange voices below.

Bert Perrot, Berillon expert, failed to identify either bandit from fingerprints and photographs he made Tuesday.

One More of Barrymores Is Now on Stage

By NEA Service
CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—The name of another member of the illustrious Barrymore family now graces the roster of actors.

John Drew Colt, second son of Ethel Barrymore, has followed the example of his sister, Ethel Barrymore Colt, who made her stage debut last fall.

Jack recently made his first appearance as an actor here with his mother in "Scarlet Sister Mary." He appears in the wedding scene and, like his mother and sister, wears the makeup of a Negro.

No announcement that Jack had decided on the theater as his profession was made and it was not until newspapermen discovered his presence that his mother discussed the matter.

Jack, who was named for his famous grand-uncle, John Drew, resembles his uncle, John Barrymore, now a screen star.

John Barrymore also made his stage debut in Chicago, twenty-nine years ago.

GRAFT CHARGED IN FAILURE OF BIG N. Y. BANK

State Orders to Officials of Giant Institution Ignored,
Prober Learns.

By United Press
NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Charges that the state suspected graft in the conduct of the closed Bank of the United States and that a dozen orders given bank officials by the state banking commissioners a year ago and five months before the closing were ignored, were expected to be amplified today. The bank is not connected with the United States government.

Max D. Steuer, special prosecutor, investigating the affairs of the bank whose closing affected 400,000 small depositors with accounts amounting to $169,000,000, brought out the charges in examinations Tuesday and will continue his questioning today.

The graft charge came with C. Stanley Mitchell, chairman of the board of directors, on the stand. Steuer asked:

"There was a time when the state banking department charged graft in the real estate situation, wasn't there?" Mitchell, visibly surprised, replied: "The is the first time I ever heard of it."

Questioning indicated attempts would be made to prove money had been paid in commissions to real estate brokers investing money for the bank, parts of the commissions later being returned to bank officials.

SENATE TALKS WHIPPING POST BILL TO DEATH

Crime Measure Would Have Sanctioned Lashings for Felons.

Launched to oblivion two years ago, the whipping post bill of the current legislative session was "talked" to its grave in the Indiana senate Tuesday.

Sponsored again this session by Senator Robert Moorhead (Rep., Marion), the bill drew but twelve favorable votes, while twenty-two were for defeat.

It would have authorized judges to add to sentences given felons convicted of crimes with use of dangerous weapons not more than sixty lashes "on the bare back, well laid on."

"Adding lashes to the back of a criminal will not deter crime," contended Senator Jesse E. Wade (Dem., Vanderburgh and Warrick) in an impassioned speech. "The death penalty is nothing more than legalizing murder in Indiana. Let's not add another blot to the state's name."

Senator Winfield Miller (Rep., Marion) championed the measure.
