

REAL PROBLEMS FAGED BUTLER IN VICE DRIVES

Lack of Support, Hostility of Business Leaders Greet Crusade.

Following is the fifth article in a series about General Smedley Butler.

BY RAYMOND CLAPPER United Press Staff Correspondent (Copyright, 1931, by United Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—After about six months in Philadelphia, General Smedley Butler concluded that many of the "best people" were standing behind him in his fight—a long way behind him.

Bankers were against crime, but when Butler removed the policemen who were doing duty as guards inside their banks and forced them to hire their own private guards there was complaint.

He shifted traffic policemen, alleging many of them had become friendly with wealthy men, who gave them large tips for permitting regular violations of traffic rules.

Butler claimed the Chamber of Commerce refused to support his war on vice on the ground it had affected the hotel business by causing salesmen to avoid Philadelphia over week-ends because liquor couldn't be bought in hotels.

Courtesy Cards Demanded

"There are no fighting parsons in Philadelphia," Butler complained at the end of his experience. "All seemed afraid of the money suppliers."

He said a prominent civic figure, arrested for speeding, appealed to be let off and when Butler declined, a magistrate excused the man.

A world-renowned philanthropist, Butler says, insisted upon having a courtesy card which would enable him to park his car anywhere.

"Philadelphia's leading banker, one of the wealthiest men in America, appealed to me personally several times to renew such a card for him," Butler said. "He had carried one for many years. Refused, he cooled."

Butler said pillars of the church and society often had liquor in their homes, drank in public and served it at dinner-dances given for their children in Philadelphia hotels.

Governor for Him

Governor Pinchot was for him and some civic organizations and the church members in numerous instances supported him.

His leave was extended for another year. Bickering increased. Often he and the mayor were not speaking. There was constant friction.

Butler continued to fight in spectacular fashion. He moved a cot into city hall to be available for sudden night calls.

Finally the mayor threatened dismissal. Butler says Kendrick accused him of hounding the big hotels. Toward the end of his second year, Butler was pressing to padlock the Ritz-Carlton and to revoke the license of the Bellevue-Stratford. He wanted to stay on, while the Philadelphia politicians wanted to get rid of him.

The fight was carried to the White House and President Coolidge declined to extend Butler's leave. Butler told the press he intended to resign from the marine corps and continue in Philadelphia. He had been appointed to a four-year term.

Holdups Are Reduced

Leaving office to return to the marines, Butler claimed he had reduced holdups from three a day to one every three days, and other crime to a lesser extent.

"I believe Philadelphia wants to be cleaned up," he said, "not entirely, but just enough to appear respectable."

Just before his dismissal, a civic group sought to arrange for present-

SUFFERING SEEN AS AT PEAK IN DROUGHT AREA

Construction Work to Aid Thousands; Arkansas Hit Hardest.

BY RICHARD L. HARKNESS United Press Staff Correspondent

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 5.—Suffering in the southwest from drought and unemployment has reached its peak, with more than 700,000 persons dependent upon the Red Cross and other agencies for the bare necessities of life, relief officials believed today.

The mid-western Red Cross is caring for 524,729 persons in Arkansas; 76,068 in Oklahoma; 69,890 in Missouri; 30,450 in Texas; and 20,000 in Louisiana and Mississippi, it was stated officially.

State organizations have undertaken to care for drought-stricken farmers by distribution of funds and seeds and by rushing all public projects to aid unemployment. State legislatures have appropriated approximately $1,000,000 for relief.

Reports to Red Cross headquarters at St. Louis indicate conditions are improving steadily. Labor heads

WELL-KNOWN MAN PRAISES DIAPEPSIN FOR STOMACH ILLS

"My work as a commercial photographer keeps me on a strain," says J. Walter Ingraham, 1004 21st St., Des Moines, Iowa.

"So my digestion suffered. I got so I would have severe headaches and a heavy feeling in my stomach after meals. I had gas on the stomach; would belch often, leaving a sour taste in my mouth. Few things agreed with me.

"A friend got me to take some Pape's Diapepsin. I had immediate relief from the first few tablets, so I kept on with it. Now I feel fine; eat anything I want without bad after-effects. I intend to keep on with Pape's Diapepsin until I am sure my trouble won't come back. The tablets are pleasant to chew and sure get results quickly."

Pape's Diapepsin is the best thing yet discovered to end digestive worries, give tone to a disordered stomach, increase appetite, make digestion vigorous and complete. Its success in so many cases where everything else has failed, proves that.

All druggists sell these harmless, pleasant tablets. If you prefer to try them before buying, a letter to Pape's Diapepsin, Wheeling, W. Va., will bring a sample box, FREE.

When he went to the railroad station to leave to go back to the marines, one police officer and two detectives were there in addition to his relatives and intimate friends to bid him good-by.

agree the unemployment crisis will be passed March 1, when expenditure of vast sums for federal, state, county and city improvements is started.

Drought suffering centers in Arkansas, where more than a half million persons are receiving supplies of salted meats, vegetables and dried fruits from the Red Cross, under direction of Albert I. Evans, State relief organizer, manned by 20,000 volunteer workers, have undertaken to supply seed and livestock food. The state legislature has launched an ambitious relief program.

The 76,068 persons in Oklahoma receiving Red Cross aid are scattered throughout sixty-five counties, says Henry M. Baker, director. Two relief measures of $300,000 each have been passed by the legislature.

Unemployment in Oklahoma totals approximately 70,000, according to a report by State Labor Commissioner Pat Murphy. J. F. Owens, chairman of the state unemployment relief committee, predicted the crisis will pass March 1, when construction projects costing about $75,000,000 begins.

While 69,890 persons now are being cared for by the Red Cross in Missouri, officials predict the number will swell to 86,000 this weekend. The state legislature's action yesterday in appropriating $250,000 for immediate use is expected to be of great aid.

Drought suffering in Texas, where the Red Cross is providing for 32,450 persons, centers in western sections. Crops in south Texas were less than 3 per cent below normal this year and east Texas is experiencing an oil boom, following discovery of a large pool near Longview.

After lying on the bottom of Lake Nemi in Italy for nearly 2,000 years, one of the barges of the Roman emperor Caligula has been exposed by pumping the water from the lake. The boat, some 300 feet long, was once a floating palace.

AMERICAN MAY HEAD WORLD ARMS PARLEY

Charles Evans Hughes Mentioned as First Choice.

By United Press
ROME, Feb. 5.—Selection of an American as president of the League of Nations 1932 world disarmament conference would remove the danger of political jealousies and bickerings expected to follow naming of a European to the post, Italians believe.

Charles Evans Hughes appeared to be the first choice in such speculation, although it was realized that he would have difficulty in being relieved of duties as chief justice of the supreme court.

Owen D. Young, Charles Gates, Hugh Gibson and Henry P. Fletcher were among others mentioned. Gibson, United States ambassador to Belgium, has a thorough knowledge of the European situation through his services on other disarmament commissions, and Fletcher is well known as former United States ambassador to Rome.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 29 years, and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative safe and pleasant.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They help cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you should find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets.

Thousands take them every night to keep right. Try them. 35c, 25c, 65c. Advertisement.

CREOMULSION FOR THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

"I am so happy . . . that the last pimple is gone"

You, too, may be proud of a clear skin!

A CLEAR SKIN, and of even greater value to you—a strong organic vitality—comes only with the right number of red-blood-cells.

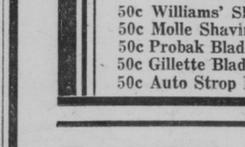

Whatever treatment you may use for your complexion, remember the important fact that natural beauty—a clear skin and a rose-petal complexion—comes from within.

More red-blood-cells and of the right quality! That's the answer to a sallow complexion and to pimples and boils. The way to regain the red-blood-cells is to take S.S.S.—the Tonic that will help Nature build up and enrich your blood. Your skin will clear up! Your whole body will be strengthened, invigorated!

When you take S.S.S. to get rid of these outside blemishes you are building up the system to ward off the graver diseases of which these blemishes are Nature's warning.

Get the large size. At all drug stores.

A clear skin comes from within

Blood is life! You cannot count your own red-blood-cells—technical! But you should know that they are the "ships" that sail in the blood and carry nourishment to all parts of the body. Also, they remove impurities from the tissues.

You can recognize a lowered count by the way you look and feel—such as body weakness, lack of appetite, underweight, paleness, sallow complexion, boils and pimples. They may indicate that you need S.S.S.

Pimples and blackheads disappeared
Mrs. Mary E. Parker, Bahama, N. C., writes: "Because of a run-down condition my appetite was poor. I felt tired in the mornings and was troubled with pimples and blackheads. Red bumps came on my face once or twice monthly. After taking S.S.S. the pimples and blackheads disappeared and my skin became clear. I do not feel tired upon rising in the mornings. I had tried a number of medicines but S.S.S. is the one that helped me."

Complexion cleared up beautifully
Miss Mary Rank, Clearwater, N. Y., writes: "My face was blemished with many pimples. No treatment I used did them any good. I also had boils. My appetite was poor. My weight was off and I felt nervous. After taking S.S.S. my complexion cleared up beautifully. My appetite improved. I now rest well at night and am greatly benefited in every way. Because S.S.S. helped me I think it is the best blood medicine!"
